

Scotia, returned Monday from a pleasant holiday trip. The many friends of Miss Jessie Jones heard with deep regret of her death Sunday morning at her home in Main street. Miss Jones had been very ill for some weeks suffering with great pain, which was the cause of her death. She will be greatly missed as she had been an active worker in her church and also in a great many charitable institutions. Especially will she be missed in the hospital, in which she had always taken the deepest interest and for which she had worked with great zeal. The family had the sympathy of all in their bereavement. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended. Rev. D. Hutchinson, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the funeral service, assisted by Rev. S. T. Teed and Rev. W. Penna. Mr. Hutchinson spoke most fittingly of the deceased, her Christian life and work.

Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, of Chatham, spent Friday in town. Miss Murphy will leave Thursday for Ottawa, where she will spend the Easter holidays with her friend, Miss Edith Dimes.

Mr. R. Clark, manager of the Bank of Montreal, gave a small dinner party Tuesday evening to a few gentlemen friends. Miss Grace V. Smith, bookkeeper in K. Beazons's jewelry store, has resigned and will leave in a few weeks for Everett (Cal.). Miss Smith's many friends will regret to hear of her intended departure. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Abinzie, who have been living in Montreal for two years, have removed to Boston, where they intend making their home.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Bishop, Bedford street, when her daughter, Miss Ida Bremner Bishop, was united in marriage to Mr. Irvine M. Malouin. The ceremony took place in the drawing room which was beautifully decorated with potted plants, the decorations being carried out in pink and white. An aisle was formed through the centre of the room by six little girls carrying white ribbons. Through this the bride and groom passed, as Miss Hazel Lockhart played Lohengrin's wedding march on the piano. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. MacDonald. The bride wore a most beautiful gown of white crepe de chene, over white silk, elaborately trimmed with white silk applique, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and carnations. The little maid of honor, Miss Margaret Crockett, was dressed in pink silk and looked very sweet. The bride is one of Montreal's most charming and popular young ladies and all her friends join in wishing both her and her husband much happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Malouin left on the C. P. R. for Virginia and Georgia and will reside in Rome on their return from their wedding trip.

Miss Eunice Welch gave a most enjoyable dance Wednesday evening to about thirty young people. Mrs. Edith Brooks, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Crandall, at her home in King street.

Miss Mamie Chapman, who is attending Mt. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cavour Chapman, Bedford street.

Miss Lindsay, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. W. Givan, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when about fifty members of the Moncton Curling Club called on them at their home in School street, it being the twentieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding. Mr. Allen has during the past year occupied the position of president of the curling club and the members also wished to express their high appreciation of his able manner in the discharge of his duties. Mr. and Mrs. Allen were presented a very handsome dinner set of linens china, accompanied by an address read by the vice-president of the club, Mr. F. A. McCully, to which Mr. Allen replied in behalf of himself and Mrs. Allen. The evening was most enjoyably spent. Mr. March, of St. John, and Mr. A. E. Massie, of Fredericton, favored the gathering with a number of songs and recitations.

Mr. H. C. Marr is very seriously ill at his home in Bedford street.

BRISTOL.

Bristol, March 30.—William Rogers has returned from a pleasant visit to Boston. Mrs. Robert Atkinson left Tuesday for her former home in Chicago.

Rev. D. Fiske will spend April 3 and 4 in the parish in Sunday school work. The convention will be held on the 14th. George Davis returned today from Green River station, where he has been spending a few days.

Miss Alice Gibson, who teaches at Windsor, is spending her Easter vacation at home.

Miss A. M. Hartley spent her vacation at home, Florenceville, and Mr. A. Cronkite at Woodstock.

Three more cases of diphtheria are reported in the family of Barred Donouan, Gardinville.

Lila Gibson has sold her girl mill at the Maniac to George Wiggins, a former resident of the village.

TRACY STATION.

Tracy Station, March 31.—Misses Bonnie and Josephine Hart, of Everett (Mass.), are spending their Easter vacation with their grandparents at Tracy.

Miss Lizzie Reed is suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Dundas, of Hout, is in attendance.

A car which has been loaded with potatoes from here is on the siding waiting to be moved. Prices range about $1.10 per barrel.

Miss Ella Meservey has taken charge of the school at French Village.

Fred Tracy, of Three Tree Creek, is very ill. He is suffering from cancer of the stomach.

Miss Pearl Segee entertained a number of her friends at her home on Wednesday evening, the 30th inst. After a very enjoyable evening the guests departed about midnight.

ST. MARTIN'S.

St. Martin's, N. B., March 31.—Fred J. Bonnell and A. Cassidy, of Sussex, were here on Monday. They purchased from A. W. Proulx a quantity of lumber and sawing to be used in the construction of the cheese factory here.

On Tuesday evening, Michael Kelly, accompanied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

William Black, of Fairview, who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Ernest Vaughan has just returned home from visiting friends in Sussex and Salisbury.

Mrs. S. V. Skillen is visiting friends in Penfield (N.B.), and Calais (Me.).

A gentleman from the lower end of the county, in the interest of the local opposition, is here consulting friends of the party with a view to becoming a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Hon. A. T. Dunn.

companied by Mr. Edward Melville, addressed a large meeting on the cheese factory and other agricultural topics in Union Hall, Fairview. Mr. R. Daly presided.

RIVERSIDE.

Riverside, A. county, April 4.—Mrs. C. H. Bray returned from Montreal on Thursday. Mrs. Bray had been undergoing treatment at the private hospital of Doctor Lockhart, and her many friends are pleased to see her return in such good health.

The conundrum tea given by the ladies of the Riverside Social Club on Tuesday evening at the home of Hon. A. R. McClellan, was a decided success both financially and socially. The proceeds, which amounted to more than $12, are to defray the debt on Riverside hall.

Mrs. A. R. Tibbitts is visiting friends in Fredericton.

Mrs. J. J. Downing continues in very poor health.

Hilary Peck has moved his family into the house owned by Thomas Dobson.

The body of William Daley arrived by train from Moncton on Sunday afternoon, and was interred in the cemetery.

The young man was accidentally killed by stepping off a moving train on Friday evening. Deceased was the third son of John Daley, of this place, and about thirty-two years of age, his principal occupation was that of a seaman, and he had just left his ship in Halifax on his way home for the Easter holidays.

His coming was not known to his parents until the news of his sudden death was received. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family, consisting of father, mother, three brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

GREER.

Greer, St. John county, April 1.—The logging camp hereabout have nearly all suspended operations for the winter, and are now preparing for the spring drive.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

Mrs. J. D. Seely and Miss Bessie Seely will take place on Monday afternoon, the interment will be in the R. C. cemetery.

APOHAQUI.

Apoahqui, Kings Co., April 4.—Miss Laura Newlin is spending the Easter holidays with friends in St. John.

The editor of the Sackville Post and the editor of the Sackville Post are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCready. Their son, Rev., is at home from St. John for a few days.

The service in the Church of the Assumption at 8.30 a. m. was well attended. Several floral decorations of potted plants and cut flowers added to the beauty and impressiveness of the early communion service.

The F. B. church was trimmed with cut flowers and potted plants. The house several weeks with a sore leg, is not much better.

Mrs. D. Little is slowly improving—not able to sit up yet.

Mrs. Irwin Thompson, of Long Creek, and her sister, Mrs. Hiramson, went to Sussex Saturday to visit their brother, John Thompson, who leaves in a short time for a home in the west.

Miss Johnson and her brother, Howard, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Smith, in St. John.

Mrs. Wetmore had her daughters' Mrs. Scribner, Mrs. Folkins and Mrs. Sinnott, at home yesterday.

Mr. Smith has his mill running for Jones Bros., making lots of work for many hands.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. W. Weyman are moved in their new home, at the J. A. Campbell house.

Mrs. Jessie Weyman and Mrs. Annie Gunn have home from U. N. B. for the holidays.

TRURO.

Truro, March 30.—Beautiful springlike days have made their appearance and all are enjoying them. The housekeepers are beginning to think of house cleaning and already carpets are being washed.

The widowed mother of Miss Blackmore, who has been peacefully and happily passing her time in the home of her daughter, Miss Blackmore, will now be free to resume her loved work in Japan. She has remained at home to care for her mother.

An entertaining and instructive debate was carried on by Messrs. St. John's and Messrs. Truro's. The resolution was: "Resolved, that the proposed church union is both possible and advisable."

Those who spoke in favor of the resolution were Mr. Ashbury, Mrs. D. Gunn and Mr. C. E. Davidson. The other side was upheld by Rev. J. N. Ritchie, Miss Cassie Whitman and Miss Florence Johnson. The great majority went in favor of the resolution.

The pronouncing bee in St. Andrew's church Friday evening was attended by a large number, and much information as to the amusement was derived; $30 was realized.

Miss Mary Coffin will leave tomorrow for Halifax to spend Easter with her sister, Mrs. H. Hart.

Mrs. Minnie Barnes and Mrs. N. B. Thompson purpose spending part of the vacation in Halifax.

The workers in the First Presbyterian church are preparing for a concert to be given April 4.

Tomorrow afternoon one of the emergency hospital circles is to have an apron sale.

Mrs. Rupert Cox, of Maitland, was in town Monday. Her husband, Capt. Cox, will leave in a few days for the west coast, where he has employment during the summer months.

Mr. G. W. Ross, of New Glasgow, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Rupert Cox, of Maitland, was in town Monday. Her husband, Capt. Cox, will leave in a few days for the west coast, where he has employment during the summer months.

Mr. G. W. Ross, of New Glasgow, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Rupert Cox, of Maitland, was in town Monday. Her husband, Capt. Cox, will leave in a few days for the west coast, where he has employment during the summer months.

Mr. G. W. Ross, of New Glasgow, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Rupert Cox, of Maitland, was in town Monday. Her husband, Capt. Cox, will leave in a few days for the west coast, where he has employment during the summer months.

Mr. G. W. Ross, of New Glasgow, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Rupert Cox, of Maitland, was in town Monday. Her husband, Capt. Cox, will leave in a few days for the west coast, where he has employment during the summer months.

Mr. G. W. Ross, of New Glasgow, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Rupert Cox, of Maitland, was in town Monday. Her husband, Capt. Cox, will leave in a few days for the west coast, where he has employment during the summer months.

Mr. G. W. Ross, of New Glasgow, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Rupert Cox, of Maitland, was in town Monday. Her husband, Capt. Cox, will leave in a few days for the west coast, where he has employment during the summer months.