In the York county probate court, on application of J. W. McCready as executor, Judge Barry has ordered a citation to issue to prove the will of the late Thos. Staples, of St. Mary's Ferry, in solemn form. The estate consists of personal property valued at $13,150, which under the will is bequeathed to the son and daughter, A. G. Hector Nadeau, of Madawaska, who has been in the city for the past few days on business, was also here as representative of Messrs. Cyr and Baker, M. P. P. These men ran as independent liberals, and they are willing to support Premier Hazen, the condition being that they have the patronage in Madawaska. Mr. Nadeau left for St. John this morning, and was not, it is said, any too successful.

The election for the repeal of the Scott Act in this city is fixed for Thursday, April 30.

The Royal Gazette which, for the last several years, has been published by the Herald Company, was this morning removed to the Gleason Company's office at which place it will in future be published. For several years there was a beer shop in this town where Pilsener and other similar brews were sold. The first of the year the proprietor retired to the demand of public opinion and went out of business. Since that time numerous outsiders have tried to secure a location here for carrying on the trade, but up to the present time no one has been inclined to let a shop for the business. Recently a man refused an offer of $15. per month for a store that is now bringing only $4. A daily stage service for the mails will be inaugurated on April 1, for river points. From Westfield Station to Gagetown stages will give a daily mail, making double trips. ## OBITUARY

Edward Carter. Mrs. Jas. Alward, of Sydney street, last week received word of the death of her brother-in-law, Edward Carter, which took place recently in Chicago. He was a native of this city, and had many St. John friends who will regret to hear of his death.

Rev. Wm. Morrissey. Chatham, N. B., March 29—Rev. William Morrissey, for over thirty years parish priest at Bathurst, five miles below this town, and known all over the American continent for his marvellous cures, died this morning at 2.30 o'clock in the Hotel Dieu Hospital here, after an illness of many months. Fr. Morrissey had been a great sufferer from rheumatism but his end was caused by general debility, the result of his long illness. Beloved and revered for his piety, broad-mindedness and his wonderful medical knowledge, Father Morrissey's name was one to conjure and all classes and creeds deeply regret his death.

The late Father Morrissey was born in Halifax sixty-eight years ago, and while at Rome studied medicine, the use of which he understood so thoroughly that sufferers came from as far as Vancouver, Wisconsin and Minnesota to receive aid, which he always furnished gratuitously. Even at the time of his final illness Col. Mackenzie, the local druggist who handled Father Morrissey's prescriptions, had letters and inquiries from the Pacific coast from people anxious to get Father Morrissey's advice and assistance.
