"One of the best stories I ever heard,"

Democral's corridor man, "is vouched for by Captain Rivere, of the Fort Worth and Denvar Railway. A Russian Hehrew came to this country and established a dry goods and notion business. He was so successful that he sent for his younger brother and started to educate him is the business. The boy was slower to learn the ways of the world than his brother had been, and the latter sometimes grew impatient. One day be sald:

Now, shust vait und see how I do.

The lady asked to see some airs, wanted was shown, a piece at $2 a yard.

"But I saw some like it a few days ago for $1.50," she said.

The lady was satisfied and purchased the silk.

"Now, you see how dot vas done. Dere vas a lady now; you vait on her," he said to his brother.

The lady entered and asked for tape. The young man was all attention, and the desired article was speedily produced.

"How much?" the lady asked.

"Ten cents a yard."

"I don'd doubt id, madam, but dot vas some time age. Shust te-day vehard dot all the tapeworms' vas dead, und dere would be no more tape less as twenty cents a yard.

"Use and Abuse of Toothpicks.

The toethpick, judiciously used, is of undoubted value, says the Laneet. Of the materials used as toothpicks the best is the quill, with the sharp point remoyed, but with this, as with all other forms, care must be observed. By indiscriminate application the gums may be so irrittated and injured as to cause recession and thus increase the existing trouble, or inflammation of the tooth membrane may be the cause, a most annoying condition, and one in which the still more vigorous use of the toothpicks gives temperary relief, only in reality to add fuel to the fire. Metal toothpicks are good because blunt pointed, but are too thick to pass between teeth at all close together. Wood need only be mentioned to be condeaned, for it is by no means an uncommon thing for small fibres to he come detached and jammed between the
