In the meantime, its business as usual at our temporary location, on the second floor, at 98 Street and Jasper Ave. New spring fashions are arriving daily in fitted vested suits, fashion jeans and leather jackets. Of special interest is a new shipment of all weathercoats for spring, in beige and navy.

Just a word of thanks to the hundreds of people that made our January Sale the biggest in our history. We apologize for the long lineups but we are sure you found the waiting to be worth your while. (A special thank you to our staff, they did a super job)
