

STAINED GLASS WINDOWS...

Founders Day, 1965

Members of the Legislative Assembly and their wives toured the University of New Brunswick Thursday as part of the annual Founders' Day celebrations here.

Founders' Day at UNB is held each year to pay tribute to those in the community and the government who established UNB in 1785 and to examine contemporary issues. The theme this year was the future of higher education in Canada and UNB in particular.

A student-general public gathering attended a Founders' Day panel discussion on "Whither the University?" in Memorial Hall. Later, at 8 P.M. in Memorial Hall Dr. John Francis Leddy, President of the University of Windsor, delivered the Founders' Day address.

He spoke on "The Future of the Canadian University".

Members of the Legislative Assembly, their wives and the press toured UNB and Saint Thomas University.

Following the tour, they went to McConnell Hall for a buffet supper with members of the UNB Faculty and student body. Prior to the supper at 6:30 p.m., a portrait was unveiled of the late J. W. McConnell, after whom the men's dining hall has been named.

A reception in Lady Dunn Hall after the evening ceremonies ended Founders' Day for this year.

...SIR HOWARD DOUGLAS HALL.

Brunswickian

VOL. 97, No. 23

FREDERICTON, N. B., MARCH 5, 1965

THE VOICE OF UNB.

That was the story at the Slave Market at LDH on Saturday night. The annual event took in over $225 for WUSC's work. Chief auctioneers Ross McLeod and Dave Tilson kept the crowd in an uproar as they auctioned off the carnival queens, professors, and McConnell Hall's chief cook (rumour has it his masters will make him eat one of his own meals). Slaves must give 3 hours service to their masters. The bidding was faster and steeper than in other years as syndicates competed against each other, pushing the prices up as high as $25.

Some shrewd buyers managed to pick up bargains at considerably less. As one WUSC committee member summed it up, "We forgot to take out insurance policies on the slaves, but the auction was a great success."

— Nelson Camrose

"Federal Goose Lays Debt-free Egg"

By BOB BANCROFT

A recent article by Peter Bruton in the Toronto-Telegram, reveals that in 1884 the Federal Government owed Ontario $2,848,290 in subsidies incurred before Confederation, which should have been paid previously. The Federal Treasury, like old Mother Hubbard, was bare, so rather than pay the debt they agreed to pay 5% interest on it until they could pay it back.

That was 80 years ago. Up to the present time the Federal Government has paid out over $11,350,000 in interest on this debt. Not a penny of the original $2,848,290 has been repaid. The logical thing to do, even at this late date, would be to pay the debt now. However, a Treasury Department official, in answer to this, stated:

"Don't rock the boat. Every year we get $140,000. Every 20 years we get paid the total amount of what we are owed."

If Ottawa is happy with the situation, why should we complain?"

Malone Now Chairman

J. BRIAN MALONE

J. Brian Malone was appointed to the position of SRC Chairman at the meeting last Monday night. He succeeds A. Ross Webster who held the position on the previous council. Mr. Malone has served as Finance Committee Chairman, previous to this he sat as Sophomore Rep on the Council.

A native of Stanley, N. B., Mr. Malone has been very active in extra-curricular Campus affairs which should stand him in good stead as he makes his way through the often times long and arduous Council meetings.

Apology:
The Brunswickian
is late.
Our heads
hang.

i?
waving
e afore-
plained
Campus
n went nd pere; and,
s only
to pro-
your
in the d not males
inking opened t, they apol-
neces-
ts do
ey do oever
ear of n the o the clear
f the ve a s the s?
such resay
this way