216 Peel St.

Montreal.

Dear Mr King

With this I send

"proof" of the address of which you spoke so kindly.
It will appear in the Security magazine on April 20th.
You thought at the time
it should be widely read.

So Montreal shall be glad to supply copies of the magazine at 250 dollars a thousand, which is the cost of "surrendering thousands" although the 47662

just thousand costs me one dollar a copy. If you prefer, the printer will supply reprints of
"The Immigrant" alone
at fifty dollars a thousand. I shall be away for the next ten days but a letter to this address will have attention.

Yours faithfully

W. L. Mackenzie King
