Dr. E. A. Forsey,
8 Lakeview Terrace,
Ottawa, Ontario.

My dear Eugene:

I received yours of 22nd. I have always heard Mr. Henney well spoken of and have not the least doubt he is a thorough and painstaking student. In fact, I think he would probably know considerably more about the working of the Cabinet and the Privy Council than I would myself.

As to attending the address tomorrow, I really think I would prefer not to. You will hardly believe how sedulously I avoid attending meetings of any kind, and especially those where discussions may occur in which I would be expected to take part.

Nonetheless I would certainly like, and will expect, to see you when you arrive. Will also look forward to reading your article on the extra Senators, with the keenest anticipation.

With highest regards always,

Yours sincerely,

AM/E.
