Sir,-

In reply to your letter of the 16th instant, I beg to say that you are hereby authorized to grant assistance to John Crow Eagle, to the extent of $125.00 to aid him in building. This young man has been too long a time out of school to receive assistance from the ex-pupil vote. It will be necessary to charge the expenditure now authorized to the funds of the Band. When you send in account to the amount of $125.00, kindly mark them as chargeable to interest account No 210.

Your obedient servant,
