Ottawa, 3rd March, 1915.

Sir:-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 27th ultimo, with which you forwarded copy of your diary for the month of February; and in reply I have to request that in future when you submit your diaries to the Department, you will be particular to give therein definite information as to how you have been occupied. It does not meet requirements for you to state that on certain days of the month you were "in office", or on the reserve. The Department wishes you to <sup>intimate</sup> ~~state~~ briefly how you were occupied while in the office, and also for you to indicate with regard to what matters your attention was engaged while on the reserve.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
