

- request for Imperial interference in, 155.
- Railway gauge of Commonwealth, necessity of uniformity for military purposes, 44.
- Railways, government ownership of, in Dominions, 482.
- Radiobor*, purchased by Canadian government, and placed at disposal of Admiralty in 1911, 320.
- Ratification of treaties, necessity of retaining control of, in hands of the Imperial ministry, 290, 293; asserted in 1895 by Lord Ripon, 255.
- Rebellion in South Africa in 1914, 348-51, 512; in Canada in 1870 and 1885, 302; of Papineau, 13.
- Reciprocity, proposed conclusion of arrangement with United States by Canada in 1911, 272-6.
- Reciprocity treaty of 1854 with United States, 16, 281, 315, 520.
- Reenrting for Imperial forces in over-sea Dominions, 309.
- Red River, rebellion of 1870, suppression of, by Imperial forces, 302.
- Redistribution of seats in House of Commons of Canada, 393; four seats retained by Prince Edward Island, 395.
- Referenda in Commonwealth in 1910 and 1913, 104-6; proposed in 1915 (despite failure of State Parliaments to carry compromise of 1915 into effect Mr. Hughes declines to proceed with, during war), 471, 472; Governor-General declines to submit to people in 1914, 110-12.
- Referendum as mode of legislation adopted in Canadian provinces, 124-6.
- Reform of Privy Council as a judicial body, suggestions for, 379-88.
- Registered vessels, powers of Colonial legislature to legislate for, 214, 233.
- Reid, Rt. Hon. Sir George H., M.P., High Commissioner for the Commonwealth of Australia (1909-15), estimate of political capacity, 540.
- Reid, Sir R. G., railway contract in Newfoundland, 155.
- Religion, no power in Commonwealth to legislate as to, 446; question of in Canada, 456, 492.
- Republicanism in South Africa, 318, 512.
- Repugnancy of Dominion legislation, 138-42.
- Reservation of Dominion Bills, 143-5; of Provincial legislation in Canada, 153.
- Reserved powers of the States, Australian doctrine of, 449, 463 seq.
- Resident Minister, of Dominion to United Kingdom, 322, 323, 542-3, 578, 579.
- Residual power, limits of exercise of in Canada, 152.
- Resignation of crown office dependent on permission, 146, 147.
- Responsible government, origin of, 13; prematurely granted to Natal, 46; essential conditions of existence of, 83.
- Retaliation policy of Canada, 266.
- Revolutionary movement among British Indians in North America, 196.
- Rhodesia, constitution and future of, 493-8.
- Rich, Hon. G. E., Justice of Commonwealth High Court 1912-357; views on interpretation of Commonwealth constitution, 221.
- Rioting in Natal in October, 1911, 208; in Vancouver in 1907, 191; in Johannesburg in 1913 and 1914, 47-9; in New Zealand in 1911, 51 n. 1.
- Ripon, Marquess of, K.G., sets out policy of Imperial Government regarding treaty relations with Dominions, 264-6.
- Roblin, Hon. Sir R., K.C.M.G., Premier of Manitoba, forced to resign in 1915 by Lieutenant-Governor, 114, 115.
- Rogers, Hon. R., Minister of Interior of Canada, 197.
- Rogers, Sir Frederick, Bart., K.C.M.G. (afterwards Lord Balford), Under Secretary of State for the Colonies (1859-71), views on independence of the Colonies, 1 n. 1.
- Roman Catholic education question in Manitoba, 438, 439; marriage question concerning, 455; difference between Irish and French Canadian, 492.
- Roman Catholics in Canada, 492.
- Roman Dutch law, lack of familiarity of Privy Council with, 374.
- Ross, Hon. Sir George, K.C.M.G., leader of Liberal party in Canada, Senate, erroneous policy in question of Naval Aid Bill, 322.
- Round Voyage, power of Commonwealth