

that I have age, fearing everything.
ach history,
es in regard lace in the

are entirely ay not find orrows, and ancies, but periences.
me that I

CONTENTS.

---

|  |         |
|--|---------|
| CHAPTER I.                               |         |
| A CHILD OF NATURE.....                   | Page 13 |
| CHAPTER II.                              |         |
| VERA AND HER HOME.....                   | 27      |
| CHAPTER III.                             |         |
| THE ICONOCLASTS.....                     | 46      |
| CHAPTER IV.                              |         |
| FOR WORSE.....                           | 54      |
| CHAPTER V.                               |         |
| WASHINGTON'S SERMON.....                 | 66      |
| CHAPTER VI.                              |         |
| A SCENE AT BLACK SAM'S.....              | 79      |
| CHAPTER VII.                             |         |
| NEW YORK UNDER FIRE.....                 | 86      |
| CHAPTER VIII.                            |         |
| LARRY MEETS HIS FATE.....                | 94      |
| CHAPTER IX.                              |         |
| LEFT TO NATURE'S CARE.....               | 110     |
| CHAPTER X.                               |         |
| THE ROBIN HOOD OF THE HIGHLANDS.....     | 148     |
| CHAPTER XI.                              |         |
| THE MOTHER STILL PROTECTS HER CHILD..... | 166     |
| CHAPTER XII.                             |         |
| BEACON FIRES.....                        | 188     |