

Bridges

WHEN TO BUY THEM

Bridges should be contracted for as early in the year as possible, and there are various reasons for this. By doing so closer prices can be obtained and arrangements can be made to have the bridges erected during the favorable summer months. Bridges can be erected much cheaper in the summer when labor is plentiful and the roads good.

We manufacture all classes of bridges, from the heaviest railway structure to the smallest highway spans.