

this work, and also his "DIRECTORY OF CANADA," he has, contrary to the rule in this case, continued their names in "THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY," and he trusts that in consideration of the utility and completeness of the present volume, and also of the very considerable additional outlay which it has cost over that of any former one, they will continue to sustain his endeavors to keep Quebec supplied with what no city of its importance should be without, i. e., a well arranged and reliable Directory.

Quebec, September, 1852.