

house.—Sutherland, Engen & Hanson, piano dealers, intend building an office and warehouse here.

SHEDIAC, N.B.—D. Pottinger, Railway office, Moncton, will receive tenders up to June 27th for construction of a station building. Plans with Chief Engineer, Moncton, and with Station Master here.

MOOSE JAW, SASK.—The Fire Water and Light Committee will ask the City Engineer to prepare plans for new firehall.—Jones & Bunyard, architects, have taken tenders for erection of an Exhibition Pavilion.

SUSSEX, N.B.—C. H. LaBillois, Department Public Works, Fredericton, will receive tenders up to July 2nd for rebuilding Armstrong's Bridge, King's county. Plans at the Department and with O. P. King, M.P.P.

NORTH BAY, ONT.—F. Gelinis, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, will receive tenders up to July 9th for construction of a public building. Plans at the Department and with the postmaster here.

WELLAND, ONT.—J. H. Crow will receive tenders up to June 28th for concrete walks on First street and Plymouth avenue.—The Royal Commission on transportation have recommended the enlargement of Welland canal.

STRATFORD, ONT.—H. L. Merritt, Blenheim, will erect a cooperage factory here.—W. J. Ireland and Orr & Russell have been appointed joint architects to prepare plans for new church for Knox congregation, cost $15,000.

AULTVILLE, ONT.—H. E. Hodgins, Osnabrock Centre, will receive tenders up to June 30th for construction of a steel-concrete bridge. Plans with W. J. Ransom, Dickinson's Landing, and W. H. Magwood, C. E., Cornwall.

STRATHCONA, ALTA.—Plans have been prepared by W. H. Martin & Co., Toronto, for church building for Holy Trinity Parish, cost $8,000.—The Trustees of the R. C. school are considering the erection of a new school.

PRINCE ALBERT, SASK.—J. H. G. Russell, architect, Winnipeg, has prepared plans for St. Pauls Presbyterian church, cost $25,000.—The Dominion Government is being asked to aid in building a new railroad bridge to cost $165,000.

CAPE COVE, QUE.—F. Gelinis, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, will receive tenders up to July 10th for construction of a pier. Plans with P. Beland, Post Office Building, Quebec, C. Desjardins, Post Office Building, Montreal, and Postmaster here.

HALIFAX, N.S.—H. E. Gates, architect, has prepared plans for additions to the Union Bank building, Nova Scotia Hospital and Victoria General Hospital, also for a residence on Tobin street for A. W. Duffin.—The Dominion Government have included in their estimates the extension of North street station also construction of an elevator.

BRANDON, MAN.—Plans have been prepared for the new G. N. R. station, on Twelfth street, Bedford stone and pressed brick, cost $30,000.—G. Wyman intends building a residence on Eighth street, cost $5,000.—Tenders have been called for erection of a two story brick block for Brandon Machine Works.

QUEBEC, QUE.—Building permits have been issued as follows: Ls. Lanoie, repairs to the Caisse d'Economie building, corner Mountain Hill and Peter street, cost $15,000; W. McWilliam, for repairs to the building, corner Garneau and Fabrique streets, for Bank of Montreal, cost $3,000.

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C.—The Calgary Milling Co. are seeking a site for a mill and elevator.—It is said that American capitalists purpose building a seven-storey summer hotel in the city.—R. Lennie will receive tenders up to June 21st for erection of a wing to Central school.

PETERBORO, ONT.—The Peterboro Show Case Co., intend building a two-storey factory.—The revised plans of Mr. Blackwell, architect, for the Isolation hospital have been presented to the Board of Health, cost $8,500.—The plans for the new armouries have been approved by the officers of 57th Regiment, brick and stone, 254½ x 170 feet, cost $100,000.

EDMONTON, ALTA.—Miss Le Page will build a residence on Sixth street, cost $3,000.—A. H. McGoan, architect, is preparing plans for a large warehouse on Third street for Teller Bros., Colingwood, Ont., and A. McDonald Co., cost $40,000.—The plans for the Isolation hospital have been approved by Northern Alberta Medical Association.

FORT WILLIAM, ONT.—D. F. Burke, will extend his block, being built corner Cumberland and Ambrose streets.—White, Sons & Co., London, are considering the erection of a factory for making threshing machinery.—The Council and Board of Health propose establishing an incineratory to cost about $20,000.

PORT ARTHUR, ONT.—The C. P. R. have taken tenders for erection of a new station here.—The Twin Town Agricultural Society have asked the Councils of Fort William and of this town to guarantee $15,000 bonds for new buildings, etc., for exhibition grounds.—A by-law will be voted on July 17th to grant a bonus to the Seamen, Kent Co. to establish a branch here.

VANCOUVER, B.C.—H. G. Bissett, proprietor of Mining Exchange Saloon, is having plans prepared for addition to the building. E. Guenther, architect.—The Y.M.C.A. directors are considering the enlargement of their building, cost $5,000.—J. A. L. Waddell, Kansas City, is preparing estimates for bridges over False creek at Westminster ave., Gamble and Granville streets.—The A. R. Williams Co., of Toronto, are looking for a site here to establish a branch of their business.

HAMILTON, ONT.—It is stated that the Bennett Theatrical Co. expect to soon begin the erection of a new theatre in this city.—Stewart & Witton, architects, have taken tenders for the erection of a carpet factory, cost about $10,000.—F. J. Rastrick & Sons, architects, have taken tenders for erection of a cement dwelling on South street.—W. A. Edwards, architect, is preparing plans for brick Sunday School building for Barton street Methodist church, cost about $12,000. The same architect has taken tenders for a residence on Homewood avenue for S. S. Washington.—S. McPhee, architect, is preparing plans for residence for R. Moody, in East Hamilton.—The Wentworth County Council are considering the erection of a House of Refuge.—The fire, water and light committee will ask that a by-law be voted on to grant $100,000 for a fire station and for equipments for the central stations.

MONTREAL, QUE.—L. O. David, City Clerk, will receive tenders up to June 22nd for steam hammer, No. 4 wood lathe, Oster improved pipe threading and cutting machine, adjustable stroke crank shaper, drilling machine.—The City Clerk has taken tenders for construction of sewers on Hogas, Montgomery, De Levis, Wurtelle, Hochelaga and Davidson streets.—J. Sawyer, architect, will prepare plans for two school buildings on Chaboillez square.—The property, corner St. Catharine and City Councilor streets, has been sold by J.

Stevenson, Brown & Co., which it is said will be converted into stores.—Building permits have been issued as follows: Catholic School Commissioners, four-storey brick school, corner Richmond and Grand Trunk streets, cost $25,000; Dominion Textile Co., seven-storey factory, St. Ambrose street, cost $50,000; Smart Bag Co., three-storey factory, Mullins street; J. A. Roch, dwellings 201 St. Antoine street, cost $10,000; X. Charbonneau, dwelling, St. Catharines street cost $5,500; W. A. Kneeland, 285 Charlevoix street, three dwellings, $12,000; Canada Sugar Refining Co., alterations, $4,000; J. B. Collette, four dwellings, Chateaugay street, $3,000.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—Tenders have been taken this week for construction of a number of granolithic walks, sewers, macadam, block and asphalt pavements.

—Board of Police Commissioners will receive tenders up to June 26th for erection of police station.—V. W. Horwood, architect, has taken tenders for erection of a house at Crescentwood, for A. E. Kingdon.—J. D. Atchison, architect, is preparing plans for a five story brick block on Portage avenue for Kennedy & Vokes, cost $75,000.—The same architect has prepared plans for an addition to building of Modern Laundry on Hargrave street, cost $20,000.—Oldfield, Kirby & Gardiner are considering erection of a ten story office building, corner Main street and Portage avenue.—A. & W. Melville, architects, are preparing plans for a private hospital in Fort Rouge.—Plans have been prepared for the artificial lake at mouth of Sturgeon creek, cost about $25,000.—St. Giles' Presbyterian church purpose erecting a new building on Burrows ave.—The Kildonan council have decided to have estimates prepared for piers and approaches for bridge at the old Kildonan ferry.—Plans have been prepared for a three story apartment block on Kennedy street for J. H. Lee, Neepawa, cost $20,000.—F. W. Heubach has had plans prepared for a residence on Roslyn road.—C. W. Fillmore will build a residence on Cumberland street, cost $10,000.—Canada Malting Co. will have a new elevator erected on Lincoln street, cost $12,000.—Mrs. H. S. Dick will build a three story apartment block on Edmonton street, cost $50,000.—C. Plaxton will build a block on Donald street, cost $20,000.—Plans have been prepared for branch office for Bank of Commerce, corner Blake street and Logan avenue, cost $5,000.—W. Moxam will erect five houses on Maryland street, cost $17,000.—S. E. Elliott has had plans prepared for store and dwelling on Main street, cost $5,000.—The Winnipeg Theatre Co. purpose re-constructing the Winnipeg theatre. Stevens & Patterson, architects, are preparing plans.

TORONTO, ONT.—The Board of Control will receive tenders up to June 26th for supply of steel bolts, nuts, etc., for high pressure fire system.—G. W. Gouinlock, architect, J. Milne, structural engineer, Hamilton, and S. R. Heakes, government architect, have been employed to report on alterations to parliament buildings.—Work will soon begin on construction of a new military storehouse, cost $100,000.—J. Poucher, Broadview and Sparkhall avenues is asking tenders for plumbing, painting and plastering of three houses.—Tenders are being received at 29 Tranby avenue, for erection of a pair of houses.—The Board of Control are seeking a site for Rivendale branch library.—It is said that the Swedenborgian church purpose erecting a parsonage, corner College street and Euclid avenue.—E. E. Sheppard intends erecting eleven 2-storey cottage flats, corner Charles and Jarvis streets.—The Board of Control have voted $201,000 for enlargement of the public schools.—