A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.

There's a stream of trouble across my path,

It is black and deep and wide.

Bitter the hour the future hath

When I cross its swelling tide.

But I smile and sing and say:

"I will hope and trust away;

I'll bear the sorrow that comes tomorrow,

But I'll borrow none to-day."

To-morrow's bridge is a crazy thing;

I dare not cross it now;

I can see its timbers sway and swing,

And its arches reel and bow.

O heart, you must hope away;

You must sing and trust and say:

"I'll bear the sorrow that comes to-
morrow,

But I'll borrow none to-day."

—Anna Burnham Bryant.
