TOLD BY A LIFE AGENT

"About two years ago I endeavored to interest a young man in this town, who had just been married, in Life Insurance. He was a traveling salesman and carried $5,000 Accident Insurance, a fellow of splendid physique and rare good health, he was quite content and felt secure in this class of Insurance, in fact he allowed a former Life Policy to lapse. It was impossible for me to write him and I naturally presume that other Agents have tried. After a child was born I tried again, but was unsuccessful. He died of Typhoid Fever last Fall and there was another birth in the family just last week, no Life Insurance at all to help smooth the way for wife and family."

Take Life Insurance and when you take it—take the BEST.
