HIT WITH A STONE HANOVER BOY DIES

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Gruetzner of own have the sympathy of the community in the loss on Tuesday last by death of their little son, Stuart Fraser, aged 6 years, 2 months and 23 days. It appears that he was struck on the head by a stone last Friday afternoon at recess on the school grounds, and went home com plaining to his mother of a pain in his head. Later, his stomach became upset and he passed away on Tuesday. He was a very bright little chap and his sad death under such circumstances has occasioned much regret and sympathy for his parents and relatives. The funeral takes place on Friday afternoon to the Hanover cemetery .- Post.
