MUST PREACH THE GOSPEL AS NEVER BEFORE

Declared Rev. J. R. Turnbull in First Baptist Church Yesterday

GREAT OPPORTUNITY

"There can be no religious union that is not based on the fundamental truths of God's word," said the Rev. J. R. Turnbull of Toronto in the course of a forceful sermon on "The Sinfulness of Jesus," at First Baptist church yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Turnbull occupied the pulpit morning and evening, and spoke to two large congregations. Mr. Turnbull also addressed the Bible School in the afternoon.

Mr. Turnbull in his morning sermon made reference to the oft-advanced statement that the religion of the future would be the religion of the trenches, and that the church must preach a new message engendered of the war. This the speaker emphatically refuted. "Such a belief," he declared, "exists only in the mind of a few men who have never seen the trenches." The majority of returned men he had spoken with had a deeper appreciation of the truths of the old religion than ever before. The church was going to be called upon to preach the gospel as never before, for there were countless hearts which were ready, after four years of war, for the gospel of Jesus Christ. We had never before accepted before. We had learned the true meaning of sacrifice and devotion during the past four years, in a manner that could never be forgotten. Mr. Turnbull expatiated upon the sublimity of the true Christian gospel, which he declared must not be altered.

"Do not let us becloud the issue," he urged. "Greatly as we glory in the achievements of our fighting men, do not let us cheapen the great truths of the gospel in the hour of victory." Instead, he declared that the church must get back to the preaching and teaching of positive truths with greater vigor than ever before. A great opportunity in the field of religious work had presented itself to-day. Illustrating the position in which the church of Christ stood, Mr. Turnbull related an anecdote of a brother clergyman, who had been walking down the streets of London with a strapping big Scottish sergeant, who saluted a dapper little lieutenant, who passed him. "What?" queried the clergyman. "A great fellow like you must salute such a puny little creature as that?" The Scottishman's eyes flashed fire. "It was not that creature that I saluted, sir," he replied, "it was the King's commission."

Even so to-day, the man who preached the gospel of Jesus Christ held his commission, and stood, as did Paul, as the ambassador of Christ unto man. Mrs. Secord sang very pleasantly "The Ninety and Nine." At the evening service, Rev. Mr. Turnbull spoke on the subject of "The Lost Boy." Mrs. Secord sang "Softly and Tenderly," and Mr. J. Halrod "The Penitent."

SONG SERVICE WAS POPULAR

Rev. J. H. Slimon Spoke in Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Night.

The Y.M.C.A. hall was filled last night at the People's Evangelistic Song Service, which proved a deeply interesting one. The songs as led by Mr. J. H. Slimon, harmonized with the topic of Rev. J. H. Slimon, who spoke on "The Dawn of a New Day." The address was based on the turning point in the life of Jacob, who became a Prince in crisis and character. An application was made of the incident in reference to the close of the world war as well as the individual life.

Chairman Lockington of the Religious Work Committee introduced the new Y.M.C.A. president, Mr. J. W. Young, who made a brief address in which he urged aggressive and united effort during the coming year. Mrs. A. O. Secord sang "He will not let me fall." Her solo was given with her usual strength and sweetness of voice. Rev. Capt. Oke was announced as the speaker for next Sunday.

IS RENAISSANCE COMING FROM ARMY?

Rev. Jas. McEwen Spoke on Subject at Calvary Church

Taking for his text, "Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, and uphold me with thy free spirit. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways and sinners shall be converted unto thee," Rev. James McEwen, D.D., of Toronto, delivered an impressive sermon to a large audience at Calvary Baptist Church last night. Rev. Mr. McEwen is a former pastor of the church and is well known here. Special music was provided by the choir during the service and an inspiring service was the satisfying result. The speaker alluded to the old time idea that in times following a war a great revival would be found. This has occurred in other wars and people wonder why the world has not been moved to a greater religious activity. The world was surprised when Admiral Beatty made the assertion that the revival would not come from the churches, but would originate in the army and its spiritual influence will expand until the people at home feel it. People had been looking for it and saw with disappointment that it was not to be found. More and more certain has become the belief that the soldiers are becoming hardened and that the church's teachings no longer have any effect on them? This seems to be a good reason to explain why that there are no startling and enthusiastic revivals like of former days. Another reason advanced is that churches are not so experienced as in other days and their members are not as enthusiastic in giving testimony. The former reason is apparently without foundation, asserted the speaker, in the opinion of prominent biblical authorities. Soldiers always were gospel hardened and it was always necessary to soften their hearts before conversion would take place. The gospel has not changed during the past decade and its effect on men's actions should not be different.

The idea that a child should be brought up in Christ is one that was more widely practiced, there would be fewer sinners in the world to-day. "A true must be planted to insure its growth," declared the speaker. A person given a Christian start in life will have the advantage over any other otherwise. The speaker concluded his message by outlining the steps that a person must undergo to again become a Christian. One must confess sin and ask forgiveness, and finally acknowledge which Christ alone can give. All these are easily obtained by the grace of God.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE HELD AT LUTHERAN CHURCH

Allied Victory Commemorated Both Morning and Evening Yesterday

The services in the Lutheran Church yesterday were of a thanksgiving character for the great victory of the Allied arms and for peace. The pastor preached at both services. In the morning the sermon was based on the gospel for the day dealing with the fall of Jerusalem. Fitting references were made to Germany's fall and to present world conditions. In the evening the text was Psalm 55, v. 8, 9. The pastor emphasized the joy of thanksgiving for the triumph of our armies, that autonomy was doomed, that the mighty principles for which the Empire took in arms were vindicated, and that freedom was again triumphant on the earth. This was a time for Christian people to wait upon God, in view of the imminent coming peace conference. Prayer was needed that the men who met at the peace table be guided in establishing a just and lasting peace between our neighbors, and brotherhood in which Germany would be required to render satisfaction for all the destruction of life and property she has brought about. There was need for divine guidance lest after peace the old follies be engaged in. The mad rush for armaments, the making of secret covenants, the creation of trade jealousies must cease. The money thus foolishly spent should be turned to better purposes in the arts of peace. Nations need to learn that God has called them into existence not merely for the purpose of de-

Allied Armies Have Commenced Their March Into Germany

With the Allied Armies in France and Belgium, Nov. 17.—The allied armies have begun their march towards Germany. The Belgian forces have already occupied Antwerp, which was evacuated by the enemy on Friday, and immediately taken over. Brussels was expected to be free of German soldiers to-day.

The withdrawal from Antwerp was accomplished without untoward incident, and when the correspondent visited the city to-day the people were in the midst of a celebration for their deliverance. Burgomaster Max has left Brussels for Ghent to visit the King.

London, Nov. 17.—Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, commander of the Grand Fleet, received Rear-Admiral von Meurer, and the other German naval delegates aboard the flagship Queen Elizabeth in the north of Forth, Scotland, Friday evening.

The German cruiser Koenigsberg, carrying the delegates, having arrived at the rendezvous selected in the afternoon, Admiral Meurer was taken to the Queen Elizabeth by a destroyer. The German admiral was "piped" aboard the flagship's quarter-deck where he and the other Germans were received by Commodore Hubert Brand and escorted to Admiral Beatty's cabin, where the conference lasted until the early hours of Saturday morning.

Admiral Meurer sat opposite Admiral Beatty, who had fronting him a model of the battle cruiser Lion, a memento of his famous flagship, while on the cabin wall at his back was a fine picture of Nelson. The German civilian delegates remained aboard the Koenigsberg.

The conference was resumed Saturday and was concluded Saturday evening. Among Admiral Meurer's staff were a Zeppelin commander and a submarine commander.

As a result of the conference the German naval envoys have agreed to surrender the German Fleet, the estimated value of which is $350,000,000. The German Fleet is to be taken to the Orkney Islands off Northern Scotland if it is underdred.

Leave German Port To-day
The surface warships which are to be surrendered have to be ready to leave German ports seven days after the signing of the armistice. That is to say on Monday, November 18.

The submarines which are to be surrendered must be prepared to leave German ports immediately on the receipt of a wireless order to sail.

to the port of surrender, and are to be handed over with full complement in a port specified by the allies, and the United States within 14 days after the signing of the armistice. That is Monday, November 25.

All the submarines are to be surrendered and of the surface warships ten battleships, six battle cruisers, eight light cruisers and 50 destroyers of the most modern type are to be given up.

ORDER TROOPS MOBILIZED.

By Courier Leased Wire
Basel, Sunday, Nov. 17.—The Hungarian Government has ordered the mobilization of troops on a pretext that it is necessary for the maintenance of order, according to a Prague despatch from the Czech-Slovak press bureau, which quotes advice from Slovakia. Four classes of the troops mobilized are Slovaks.
