MAPLE CITY CREAMERY

The Planet reporters are always on the lookout for something new, or any improvement that will be interesting and beneficial to its many readers, and in calling at The Maple City Creamery Mr. C. E. Lister explained fully the process of clarifying, cooling and bottling milk, and after seeing what the clarifier takes out of the milk, it is certainly a very important process, and shows out of the milk, it is certainly a very important process, and shows clearly that all milk for family use should be clarified. The bottles, after being thoroughly washed with a steam brush, are filled quickly with a bottling machine and the caps put on at once. This prevents any street dust from getting into the milk, which is the worst and most dangerous feature of delivering milk from large cans and open measures exposed to street dust. After thoroughly investigating the process of clarifying, cooling and bottling milk at The Maple City Creamery I believe it to be just as important to the good health of milk consumers as the city waterworks purifiers are in purifying our river water, as the results are practically the same, and I am sure uone of us would want to drink river water.

I am sure none of us would want to drink fiver water.
This process is in use in all large cities, and it is quite probable that in the near future it will be necessary for all dairies—and creameries to adopt the same principle of clarifying and bottling milk for the retail trade, as it is now done at The Maple City Creamery. Visitors always welcome.

Sirs,—I came across a bottle of your MINARD'S LINIMENT in the hands of one of the students at the University of Maryland, and he being so kind as to let me use it for a very bad sprain, which I obtained in training for foot races, and to say that it helped me would be putting it very mildly, and I therefore ask if you would let me know of one of your agents that is closest to Baltimore so that I may obtain some of it. Thanking you in advance I remain.
