CANNING AND VICINITY

The Progressive Club of Pereau held a special service in the Baptist, church, Sunday evening, May 3, addressed by Mr. Paul of Acadia University, who choose for thought "A Challenge to Personal Service for Jesus Christ". Mr. Everette Lynn presided. This was one of the finest addresses that the congregation has had the pleasure of listening to, an appeal which could not fail to leave an impress on the large congregation. A service of song followed. A large number were present from Canning, where Mr. Paul was a former principal of the High School.

The Mission Circle of Canning Methodist church held a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. North in honor of their former president, Miss Florence Cook, who has since left for New Hampshire. Mrs. North was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Ceva North. The early part of the evening was delightfully spent in music and games, which were followed by supper. Mrs. North, on behalf of the Circle and friends, presented Miss Cook with an address of appreciation which was accompanied by a set of ivory. Miss Cook, who was entirely taken by surprise, expressed her pleasure and appreciation of these tangible proofs of esteem, after which more than fifty friends joined in community singing, closing with Auld Lang Syne.

Mrs. Malcolm McBride, Blomidon, held a delightful reception on May 9 in honor of her mother, Mrs. Lemuel Rogers, who on Saturday passed her 81st milestone. Mrs. Rogers, who is in excellent health, was the centre of attraction, amidst more than 28 children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She received many beautiful gifts, to which she appreciatively replied. Supper and a delightful musical program were enjoyed.

Women's Mission Aid Society Wednesday afternoon, May 6th. Mrs. W. G. Hiseler presided at the meeting, the topic for the day being, "Home Missions". Each member responded at roll-call with a short reading on that subject. It was decided to hold the meeting in the church the first Wednesday evening in June, making it a public meeting and to have the Mission Band present and take part in the program.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH

METHODIST CHURCH

The anniversary services of the Methodist church were held on Sunday, Mey 10, and largely attended. The pastor, Dr. Thomas W. Hodgson, occupied the pulpit at both services, his discourse in the morning dwelling on "Christ the only one who can build men to the likeness of God, that they may live together in the brotherhood of peace, with God as their Father". Special music was rendered by the choir, with a vocal duet by Mrs. (Dr..) F. F. Chute and Mrs. Walter Dickie; vocal duet, Miss Josephene Harris, Gerald McElhiney; vocal duet, Mrs. A. D. Ells, Mrs. W. R. Dickie; mixed vocal quartette, Mrs. Ells, Mrs. John Brown, Messrs. G. McElhiney, Charles Sinnett. The accompanists were Mrs. Charles Sinnett and Mrs. Clifford Bowlby. The music was very beautiful.

At three o'clock a sacred concert was held by the choir, assisted by Canning Orchestra, leader, Mrs. Charles Sinnett, which was attended by more than 500 music lovers. The program was the following:

1. Grand Religious Fantasia—Rollinson

The concert, which reflected great credit on the choir and orchestra, was one of the finest ever heard in Canning.
Dr. Hodgson gave a very fine address at the evening service on "Be still and know that I am God". Jesus, said the speaker, laid His ear to the human heart. till He heard what no one else heard. No one ever believed in man like Jesus did. He knew what was in man. We lose faith in ourselves, but Jesus never lets go. A strong plea was made for tolerance. At the evening service Mrs. Durrell Sutton and Mr. Fred Ibson sang very beautifully. Special music was also rendered by the choir.

SHEFFIELD MILLS

Mr. Edward Rudolph, who has been ill with blood poison, had his hand amputated on May 8th.

Mr. George Bowser, who is a patient at Camp JHill Hospital, Halifax, is seriously ill. Mrs. Bowser is with her husband.

Sheffield Mills school, under the direction of the teachers, Miss McKenzie and Miss Ross, celebrated Arbor Day very successfully. The Women's Institute, which is doing fine community work, presented the school with a hedge and perennials, and assisted in planting several beds of seeds. The grounds were put in splendid condition, and at the close the Institute served lunch: Arbor Day songs were sung. The committee consisted of Mrs. David Ells, Mrs. Clarke Ross, Mrs. Fred Burgess, Mrs. A. W. Bowser.

GEORGE A. BOWSER

The death occurred at Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax, Saturday night, after a lengthy illness, of George A. Bowser, a veteran of the late war, and a resident of Shefield Mills. The deceased, who was a native of Halifax, was 48 years of age. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock from St. Paul's church, Halifax, with full military honors. Rev. Archdeacon Armitage conducted the funeral services. Interment was in St. John's cenetery.

THE MOTHER

There will be a singing in your heart, There will be a rapture in your eyes; You will be so wonderful and wise. You will be so wonderful and wise. You will sleep, and when from dreams you start, As of one that wakes in Paradise, There will be a singing in your heart, There will be a rapture in your eyes.

There will be a moaning in your eyes;
There will be an anguish in your eyes;
You will see your dearest ones depart,
You will hear their quivering good-byes.
Yours will be the heart-ache and the smart,
Tears that scald and lonely sacrifice;
There will be a moaning in your heart,
There will be an anguish in your eyes.

There will come a glory in your eyes, There will come a peace within your

There will come a peace within your heart;
Sitting 'neath the quiet evening skies,
Time will dry the tears and dull the smart.
You will know that you have played your part;
Yours shall be the love that never dies:
You, with Heaven's peace within your heart. heart,
You, with God's own glory in your eyes.

TAN WOOL CREPE IS SIMPLY TRIMMED WITH SORU BATISTE

Wool crepe in a charming sheets of soft tan is used for the youthful little frock shown here. This particular model was made for an ingenue in one of the new plays, and it expresses the youthfulness of the part.

The only trimming is of the finest eeru batiste, daintly embroidered, inset bands top the gathers at either side, and the strings extend around to the back, where they tis in a jaunty bow.

The Spring season is bringing in a decided vogue for the daintiest possible collars and cuffs. These may be made of organdie, fine lines or betiste.

AND IN JUNE

Father entered the door. He heard sounds of joy and glee in the parlor. Slowly he removed his hat and coat. He was a tired business man. Mother came through the parlor door to greet him, a smile on her face.

"What's the matter?" asked father.
"Diamond jubilee," said mother, squeezing his arm.

"Migosh," said father, "have we been married that long?"

CONSERVATIVE LEADER RE-

The news of the retirement of W. L. Hall, K.C., from the position of leader of the provincial Liberal-Conservative party, which was first announced in the Herald on Tuesday morning, came as a great surprise to his many friends. Mr. Hall, it is stated, finds this course necessary on account of personal reasons. Pending a conference of the executive and nominated candidates to be held on May 21st, Mr. Frank Stanfield, the president of the Provincial Liberal-Conservative Association, has assumed the leadership of the party.
