

ALL THE NICE GIRLS

The Canadian Pacific liner "Montreal" recently brought 200 happy Canadian University Students home from a stay of several weeks in England and on the continent. A happy group of girls are here seen with Captain John Hall, commander of the ship. The steamer called at Cherbourg to pick up 250 returning Canadian teachers who had spent part of the summer abroad.

PERTH NOTES

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the U. B. church, when Miss Carrie Isabel McPhail, daughter of Mrs. McPhail and the late James W. McPhail, became the bride of Mr. Dean Richards, Rogers of Amherst, N. S. The church was beautifully decorated with hydrangea ferns, and potted plants. The bridal party stood beneath an arch during the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rev. Gordon Pringle of the Colony, assisted by Rev. O. C. Howlett, R. A. B. D., pastor of the church. The wedding march was played by Miss Louise Blaklee, in her usual pleasing manner. She also played softly during the ceremony. First came the Rev. Mr. Pringle and Rev. O. C. Howlett, followed by the groom and best man, Mr. Edward Rogers of Boston (a cousin), then the maid of honor, Miss Gertrude McPhail, a sister of the bride, wearing a handsome gown of mauve georgette and carrying a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, then the bridesmaid, the Misses Mary McPhail, sister and cousin of the bride, both attired in dainty gowns of mauve georgette, and carrying bouquets of Marshall Poch asters. Then followed the bride, wearing a gown of her brother, H. Wilfred McPhail, who gave her in marriage. The bride looked very winsome in a rich gown of oyster colored satin, heavily headed in crystal and silver in Christian design, and wearing a veil of Brussels point lace, brought from overseas by her brother, H. W. McPhail. Her bouquet was Othello roses. Mr. LeBaron Hopkins sang "Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. The Misses Marion Kilburn of Kilburn, Georgia; Springer, Marion Brown, St. John, and Ada Boy of Victoria Corner, were ushers, the first two wearing dresses of jade headed georgette; the last two coral headed georgette. As the party left the church the wedding march was played by the organist. A reception was held at the residence at the conclusion of the ceremony and a very enjoyable time spent. Dainty refreshments were served by the young friends of the bride. The house and grounds were beautifully decorated for the occasion. In the dining room which was lighted with candles, a handsome bride's cake graced the centre of the table, while white streamers and bells were suspended from the chandelier. At the conclusion of the lunch, the bride cut her cake and distributed it among the guests after which Rev. G. Pringle proposed a toast to the health of the bride, which was responded to by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers then left by motor for Oxbow Lodge where they will spend a few days, after which they will proceed by motor through different parts of N. B. and N. S. The bride's travelling suit was an ensemble costume of almond green, with small hat and seal scarf. The bride is one of our most popular young ladies and a very successful teacher, having taught a school in Connecticut the past year. The groom took part in the great war and is a very clever and worthy young man. The presents were numerous and costly and included silver, cut glass, pyrex, etc. Among those from a distance attending the wedding were, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Brooklyn, Mass., Mrs. A. F. Rogers, Mr. E. W. Rogers, Boston, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rogers, Amherst, N. S., Mr. Leonard Allan, Brooklyn, Mass., Mrs. E. C. Brown, Mr. Bliss Brown, Misses Margaret and Marion Brown, Miss Georgie Springer, St. John, Mr. and Mrs. F. Boyer, Miss Ada Boyer, Victoria Corner, Mrs. E. H. Duane, San Pedro, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kilburn, Fort Fairfield, Miss Avis Streeter, Providence, R. I. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers have the best wishes of all for their future happiness.

Mrs. E. H. Duane and daughter, Margaret, who have been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cox and sister, Mrs. B. C. Palmer, left on Saturday for San Pedro, Calif. Mrs. Percy Sisson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sisson spent the week-end in Hartland. Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. White and Miss Margaret of Fort Fairfield were guests of Mrs. B. C. Palmer on Friday. Mrs. E. W. Larlee visited friends at Wapke over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Sadler are spending a few days in Boston.

Wife—If the human body is renewed every seven years, I can't be the same woman that you married. Hub—I've been suspecting that for some time.

An old "darkie" was charged with chicken stealing. He was at the court early and before the case was called judge saw him and asked his name. "My name's Johnsing," yo' honah," said the negro. "Are you the defendant in this case?" enquired the judge. "No, sah," replied the darkie. "I've got a lawyer to do my defending; I'd gentleman what stole de chicken."

"Eczema on My Face Completely Relieved"

Miss Winifred Ernest, Box 46, Blockhouse, N. S., writes:

"Ever since I was a little child, I suffered with eczema on my face. At times my face was completely covered with large sores, and I tried nearly every kind of medicine that I heard of with no results. This lasted for over twenty years, until one day I asked the advice of my druggist, who bade me give Dr. Chase's Ointment a trial. After using the Ointment for a few days, the sores began to heal, and soon I was completely relieved of the disease."

Foot Saved in 4 Days!

"Nothing but Zam-Buk could have done it," says Mrs. A. Berryman, 190, John Street, North, Hamilton, in describing how her right foot, crushed by a wagon wheel, was healed. "The foot was terribly bruised, blackened and inflamed, and I fainted away with pain. When it was quite impossible for me to move about, my husband's mother got me to try Zam-Buk. It was surprising! Within TWO DAYS all swelling and discoloration had disappeared and pain was banished. In FOUR DAYS, through this timely use of Zam-Buk, I could get about as usual; the injured foot was thoroughly healed."

Zam-Buk is the powerful antiseptic healer which quickly frees the skin of corruption and disease and grows new healthy tissue. No common ointment or salve can possibly compare with Zam-Buk. Get a box to-day! 50c. all dealers or FREE SAMPLE for 1c. postage from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

ZAM-BUK For Healing!

Here and There

More than one hundred and fifty traders from the Far North arrived in Edmonton, Alta., recently bringing with them fur sales to the value of approximately $500,000.

Tarzan Second, the largest wooden scow in the world, was launched recently at the Wallace shipyards, Vancouver, B.C. She is 1,000 tons burden and has 300,000 feet of British Columbia lumber in her make-up. The scow is to be used as a carrier for a great pile-driver for Sydney E. Jenkins Company.

Two dinosaurs have been located in the Red Deer Valley, Alta., near the Canadian Pacific Railway line this summer, by the University of Toronto expedition, composed of four scientists who prospected for several weeks in the gorge and are packing up the prehistoric monsters for shipment to the Royal Ontario Museum. Another skeleton has been located by the Geological Survey of Canada.

One of the outstanding features of Canadian trade with the Orient during the past year or so has been the remarkable increase in wheat flour exports. Imports of Canadian wheat flour into Hong Kong in 1923 were the largest on record, showing an increase of 100 per cent in volume over those of 1922. The figures and values were: 1922, 79,585 barrels, valued at $126,000; 1923, 151,821 barrels, valued at $249,044.

Zene Grey, the famous novelist, recently caught a 758 pound tuna-fish, constituting what is believed to be a world's record. The sea monster was successfully conquered after three hours and ten minutes of grilling endeavor off the Nova Scotia coast, and towed into Liverpool harbor. Mr. Grey's prize is a species of the blue fin family. The record before this catch was held by J. K. L. Ross, the well-known Montreal sportsman and financier, who caught a 710 pound tuna.

One of the most remarkable achievements in art printing yet produced in Canada and one which finally disposes of the idea that such work cannot be satisfactorily handled by Canadian firms is found in the new booklet issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway dealing with the forthcoming 1925 Round the World cruise of the company's steamship "Empress of France." The booklet contains 40 pages of text and color illustrations, the latter exquisitely combining many brilliant hues in a number of highly imaginative designs.

Canadian Pacific gross earnings for July totalled $14,883,677 as against $15,677,835 for the same month last year, a decrease of $794,159. But in order to meet this reduction, operating expenses were reduced by $1,963,686, those for the month being $12,544,115, as compared with $13,607,802 for July, 1923. Thus the net earnings for the month showed an increase of $269,527 over those of the same month a year ago. For the 7 months of the year to July 30 gross earnings showed an increase of $3,017,265; operating expenses an increase of $1,924,013 and net earnings an increase of $1,093,251.

At a local concert a young lady began a song "The autumn days have come. Ten thousand leaves are fall-ey. But she began too high. "Ten thousand," she screeched and stopped. "Start her at five thousand," cried an auctioneer present.

FADING OF IDEALS.

Marks an Educational Failure Sustained Through Ages.

"The fading of ideals is sad evidence of the defeat of human endeavor," writes Prof. A. N. Whitehead in the Atlantic Journal. "In the schools of antiquity philosophers aspired to impart wisdom, in modern colleges our number aim is to teach subjects. The drop from the divine wisdom, which was the goal of the ancients, to the full knowledge of subjects, which is achieved by the moderns, marks an educational failure, sustained through the ages. I am not maintaining that in the practice of education the ancients were more successful than ourselves. You have only to read Lactantius, and to note his satiric presentation of the pretentious claims of philosophers, to see that in this respect the ancients can boast over us no superiority. My point is that, at the dawn of our European civilization, men started with the full ideals which should inspire education, and that gradually our ideals have shrunk to square with our practice."

"But when ideals have sunk to the level of practice, so long as we conceive intellectual education as merely consisting in the acquisition of mechanical mental aptitudes, and of formulated statements of useful truths, there can be no progress; though there will be much activity, and aimless rearrangement of syllables, in the fruitless endeavor to dodge the inevitable lack of time. What I am anxious to impress on you is that, though knowledge is one chief aim of intellectual education, there is another ingredient, vaguer but greater and more dominating in its importance. The ancients called it 'wisdom.' You cannot be wise without some basis of knowledge; but you may easily acquire knowledge and remain bare of wisdom."

"Shakespeare wrote his plays for English people reared in the beauty of the country, amid the pageant of life as the Middle Age merged into the Renaissance, and with a new world across the ocean to make vivid the call of romance. To-day we deal with herded town populations, reared in a scientific age. I have no doubt that unless we can meet the new age with new methods, to sustain for our populations the life of the spirit, sooner or later, amid some savage outbreak of defeated longings, the fate of Russia will be the fate of England. Historians will write as her epitaph that her fall issued from the spiritual blindness of her governing classes, from their dull materialism, and from their Pharisaic attachment to petty formulae of statesmanship."—Family Herald.

Welsh Castle for Sale.

Yet another Welsh castle and estate is in the market because its owner finds it too costly to maintain in view of present taxation burdens. This is Hensol Castle and estate of over 1,000 acres, regarded as one of the beauty spots of Glamorgan, the residence of Sir Francis Rose Price, a former High Sheriff of the county. Asked why the castle was up for sale, Sir Francis said: "The old place requires a lot of money to maintain it. Income tax and super-tax have almost trebled since the war, and the cost of upkeep has considerably increased, and there is a duty to younger children."

"If I died to-morrow heavy death duties would make it impossible for them to live here. By the time one has paid all Imperial and local dues in the way of taxation there is not much left now, and for that reason I have decided to put the estate up for sale."

No Clasps to Be Issued.

No clasps for separate actions and engagements of the war will be issued. Economy is the only reason for the Government's ruling. Over 13,000,000 war medals of various kinds have already been issued, and if clasps were to be given, also a vast expense would be entailed. For the South African War, ten clasps were given, and if battles during the 39 months of the Great War were to be recognized on a similar scale, it is estimated that more than 1,000 clasps would be needed. It is pointed out by the War Office that hundreds of thousands of medals of all kinds are still lying unclaimed. Among these are Military Medals, Military Crosses, Distinguished Conduct Medals, and even some D.S.O.'s.

Destructive Beetles.

The devastation wrought by beetles to the oaken roof of the famous parish church of Limehouse, the tower of which is one of the most striking landmarks of London as viewed from the Thames, is clearly seen in a section of one of the beams which has just been placed on view at the Whitechapel Museum.

The whole of the woodwork has been honey-combed by the insects, and, as the result of the mischief wrought during the past two hundred years, what remains is a mere shell. The work of renovation is now in progress, and will involve an outlay of close upon £2,000.

The Order of Merit.

Twenty-one years ago the Order of Merit was founded by King Edward, carrying with it the right to add "O.M." to a recipient's name. The order is limited to 24 members exclusive of foreign honorary members. Military members include the Earl of Ypres and Earl Haig, while among the civil members are Lord Morley, Thomas Hardy, Sir George Trevelyan—all octogenarians—Sir J. M. Barrie, Lord Haldane, Lord Balfour, and Mr. Lloyd George. The ribbon is blue and crimson.

"Dry" Humor.

It was an ironic commentary on the "dry" law, says an English exchange, as applied to foreign ships, that the cargo of the Mauretania, which arrived from New York the other day, included 160 barrels of whiskey.

WRIGLEY'S

after every meal

Cleanses mouth and teeth and aids digestion. Relieves that over-eaten feeling and acid mouth.

Its l-a-s-t-i-n-g flavor satisfies the craving for sweets.

Sealed in its Parity Package.

If a man is described as having his heart in the right place, you may be sure there is something wrong with his head.

The train stopped longer than usual on the big curve coming into the Irish wayside station. A passenger looked out, saw the guard descend from his van, and listened to the following conversation with the driver: Guard—"What are ye stopping for?" Driver—"Sure, and can't ye see the signal is agin me?" Guard—"Tis mighty particular you're gettin' all of a sudden."

Two young women artists in Spain arrived at a country inn, hot, dusty and thirsty.

They couldn't talk Spanish, but wanted some milk badly, so one of them drew a most beautiful cow, while the other jingled some coins.

Ten Spaniards looked, and a boy was sent of post-haste. He returned triumphantly—with two tickets for a bull-fight.

MISERABLE AND ALWAYS IN PAIN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Dependable Help for Mothers

Port Greville, Nova Scotia.—"I took your medicine for a terrible pain in my side and for weakness and headaches. I seemed to float all over, too, and my feet and hands were the worst. I am the mother of four children and I am nursing my baby—the first one of four I could nurse. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before the baby's birth, so you can see how much it helped me. I cannot praise it too highly for what it has done for me. I took all kinds of medicine, but the Vegetable Compound is the only one that has helped me for any length of time. I recommend it to any one with troubles like mine and you may use my letter for a testimonial."—Mrs. ROBERT McCULLY, Port Greville, Nova Scotia.

Before and after childbirth the mother will find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a blessing.

Many, many letters are received giving the same sort of experience as is given in this letter. Not only is the mother benefited, but these good results pass on to the child. No harmful drugs are used in the preparation of this medicine—just roots and herbs—and it can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

88 out of every 100 women reported benefit from its use in a recent canvass among women users of this medicine. C

NEW LAMP BURNS 94 PER CENT AIR

BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month. 11-13.
