Stomach Always Baulked, THE MINISTER'S RUSE. Had Constant Indigestion

How He Saved Himself From Committing Lese-Majeste.

The passing of the court fool as REMARKABLE PART HE PLAYan institution did not mean that kings had ceased to take pleasure in the sort of nonsense that the jesters had been licensed to perpe-Has Taken a Hand in Nearly Every

"Though ne possessed a mortal Dr. Guelpa points out that the his mind to invade Russia. Before extricate members only by the car ing better if not cured next morn-income, he affected the dress of the scalp can actually be compared to starting he was careful to inquire ercise of the bing was almost as ready inc

COMMANDER JACK FROST

ED IN BIG WARS.

European Conflict on a Big usually set in in Southern Russia. to enjoy his own discomfiture' as They told him the middle of Decem- that of his intended victim. ber, says London Answers.

Battling Against Cold.

As for Napoleon's huge army, it was almost wiped out. Four hundred thousand men perished. They receive, instead of a word of froze to death in battalions as they thanks, a tap on the cheek. bivouacked, and when at last, on The minister, December 6th, Napoleon reached German soil, out of his whole vast had saved the situation without host but 130,000 men were left alive. violating the rules of the game. During the winter of 1853-4 the The king was the first to join in the Turks were battling for dear life laughter and applause that greeted along the Danube against hordes the minister's cleverness.

of Russians. In the following September 25,000 British troops, a similar number of French, and 8,000 Turks were landed in the. Crimea.

Again came a terrible winter, and from the West of Ireland right land and sea. In London it froze Smell of Cooking Made Him Sick

-Bilious Two Days a Week.

Cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Mr. Clemmons' experience is not unusual. Now-a-days poor stomachs trate. King Frederick William I. are more the rule than the excepof Prussia was an incorrigible tion. But the proper treatment is joker, and greatly enjoyed testing sure to make a quick cure. You the cleverness of his ministers and can always depend on Dr. Hamil-Eighteen hundred and twelve was advisers by planning embarrassing ton's Pills, they reach the trouble Eighteen hundred and tweive was advisers by planning embarrassing ton's runs, they reach the trouble the year when Napoleon made up situations, from which they could at once, go right to business, work the year when Napoleon made up situations, from which they could at once, go right to business, work his mind to invade Russia. Before extricate themselves only by the ex- while you sleep and have you feelin my stomach, writes Mr. Ralph One day, at a small dinner, the Clemmons, of Newbridge P.O. It was on June 24th that he in- king, happening to be in the mood had a stomach that failed in some vaded Russia with 600,000 men, and to play a prank, chose as his victim way to perform its work. Digeshe reached Moscow on September one of his ministers, seated at his tion seemed more or less arrested enouse nave each of them a pair of Sumilarly, if the scalp is not pro-tanned leather gloves and a new perly cared for the hair stops 14th. That night fire broke out, left. After a moment's thought, and I grew thin, yellow, nervous. Each hair consists of a canal, the burnt to the ground. Even then he tier on his right, and giving him a impeded, apparently the action of remained until October 18th before gentle slap on the check, said, the heart, for often at night it commencing his retreat. As the tap was passed from guest my head ached most terribly. A to guest round the table, the king's friend who had been cured. of a

by his with

HER HEARING RESTORED.

known for three generations. The intentions became apparent. The similar condition, advised me to at about 4 o'clock at the entrance liquid oil. In Miness or in irritated known for three generations. The intentions became apparent. The similar condition, advised interval of the salons of the Cafe Riche, Rue or unduly subjected to pressure the Thames froze from its source to the minister at Frederick William's left take Dr. Hamilton's Pills regular-The Hellespont and the Dardan-elles were frozen. Jack Frost's icy ready in a gale of merriment at his neys were released of excessive finger lay heavy even upon North expense, the minister was not at work. Health soon grew withis all ready to acknowledge defeat. me. I can now eat, sleep and live

Be advised-use Dr. Hamilton' floor between the king and himself. Pills-they are sure to do you good Immediately a servant sprang for-ward, picked the knife up, and handed it to the minister; but what was the lackey's astonishment to ada.

ROYAL COSMETICS.

What Their Majestles Use in the Boudoir.

The lovely and perennially youth-ful complexion of Queen Alexandra makes the fact plain that her Ma-jesty the Queen-Mother is particularly choice as regards her selection of tollet soaps, perfumes, and cosmetics generally. So careful has Astonishing Deliverance of Woman Queen Alexandra always been in Thought to be Hopelessly Deaf. this respect that she has never NEW YORK (Special Despatch). -Fully convinced that her hearing as been permanently restored af-

CAUSES OF BALDNESS. the most curious of all the curious Frenchman who died in 1877. In Responsibilities of Heavy Hats and

Dr. Guelpa, of Paris, has made "I express and formally desire some interesting studies pertaining that my remains may be enclosed for burial in my large leather trun, to the scalp and the hair which have led him to conclude that men are instead of putting my survivors to more frequently bald than women the expense of a coffin. I am attached to that trunk, which has for three reasons. First of all, they gone round the world with me three wear hard, heavy hats; secondly, they cut their hair too short both

The clause reminds one of a in summer and winter, and in the Hampshire clergyman referred to third place men usually are greater lowest indigence. At the age of 83 soil, says the London Evening he married a country girl of 13. He Standard, the hair to the vegetain his will a clause to this effect: shut off from its source of supply amazing sight of floating ice-floes. laughing-stock of the table. "I desire that on the day of my and withers. burial I may be carried round by It will readily be seen that a short leaves the hair at the mercy of atmospheric conditions, of cold, in Tripoli and Morocco.

The sebum, like all oily sub-Among noteworthy wills are some of the shortest. It would not do to stances, tends to coagulate when call these curious, for brevity in all the temperature is low, and while the long hair of women affords a aged. What is probably one of the protection that is ample against shortest wills on record was that this condition, the short hair of made by the late Mr. Pitcairn, for- men positively invites destruction merly assistant to the president of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Though A meat dist increases the proporhe left no less a sum than £3,000,- tion of acids in the blood and con-000, his will bequeathing this to his sequently also increases the acids widow contained only twelve lines in the waste thrown off by the body in the form of perspiration. This But an even shorter will was acid perspiration is particularly made by an Englishman who died, in harmful to the hair, as it stimu-May, 1905. It was as follows: "All lates unduly the flow of the sebum, for mother," with the initials of the and as the hair cannot absorb this testator. These few words, written unusual amount of fluid placed at widow-whom around the roots of the hair and across into Asia frost fell heavy on on the back of an envelope, was its command the fluid thickens ments, and valuable property. The will was recovered together with an immense amount of property hidden is sublich here at a probably it lies in the strange places is indeed hard to strange places i ness which invariably adds to the freezing every night. In the Cri-misery of the fat man. If men would substitute light felt hats for derby's in winter and suffered horribly. In all we lost derived dotted to tell the story of her won-suffered horribly. In all we lost derived dotted to tell the story of her wonhats for derby's in winter and suffered horribly. In all we lost wear soft straw instead of the hard 20,656 men, and of these only property, is in itself a thing of acas board straw hats with which twelve per cent. fell in battle. The tual commercial value and as such they adorn themselves in summer, rest were destroyed by cold and should be placed in safe custody. baldness would soon be on the wane disease, aggravated by a rotten And to many persons safe custody among them.

IT SATISFIES MILLIONS the last clause he directed : OF PEOPLE Worth your while to test it LIPTON'S TEA times." Sustains and Cheers.

TAKE WILLS AND HIDE THEN

CONCEALED IN SOME RATHER CURIOUS PLACES.

One Disposing of Large Estate Found in Rubbish Heap in cordingly."

Ireland.

"Why do testators, having carefully arranged for the post-mortem disposition of their property-procood to hide their wills in strange places I' asks a barrister in the London (England) Daily Mail. And be proceeds to answer his query by stating that possibly the reason lies in man's inherent objection to being dead.

Whatever the reason, the British sourts show that the peculiarity is my life. · wide-spread one. Here, in tabular form, are a few of the hiding places :

In an old hat: Under a doormat; In a clock :

In a blotting pad; Behind an old picture; and In a rubbish heap.

The will found inside a clock was made by a wife in her husband's After her death he searched the house in vain. But one day, lavor. fust as chancery proceedings with regard to a receiver of the estate of typewriting. were started, the clock stopped, and the will-which the judge of the Probate Court decided was absolutely in order-was found.

£7,000 on a Rubbish Heap.

desired in his will that he might be tion springing from that soil. buried in an old chest which he When the soil is poor and improhad for some time kept by him for perly looked after microbacilli at-pair of shoes, which were given ac- sprouting. One more instance may be taken root or matrix and the sebum, an oily substance which supplies the Lepelletier, Paris. On enquiry it sebum thickens, coagulates and forms hard little globules which forms hard little globules which forms that is forms that is forms that is form its source of supply shut off from its source of the Rue Lepelletier to visit once heavy and hard hat is bound to exmore the table where I have spend ort a deleterious pressure. One Africa. Drift ice appeared in the all ready to acknowledge deteat. like a live man." so many of the pleasantest hours of ping the hair or wearing it very Nile, and there were snowstorms Just as the blow was passed to him, like a live man." Be advised us Shortest Will on Record. heat and dust.

One September afternoon in 1874 hair with nourishment. Under In the last week of October began an empty hearse was seen standing normal conditions the sebum is a the worst frost which Europe had in rubbish hesps, the property in-cluding £7,000 in bank notes and fact that to many people a will, invarious securities. The Irish Master of the Rolls, before whom the matter came, said that the litter on the stairs was almost knee-deep. Two bank notes were found glued means hiding. to the floor.

In another case before the English courts not half a dozen years How to Cure ago a will was admitted to probate found in the lining of a very oldfashioned silk hat which the testator had given to a friend. And in An Experienced Horseman Sola successful action for the establishemnly Declares Nothing is So ment of a will a year earlier it was stated that the will had been writ-Says Nerviline is Fine Liniment.

ten on a half sheet of note paper and placed between the leaves of a blotting pad. After the death of the testator a relative who had been present, went to the blotting pad to write a letter. A half sheet of note paper was found and used for the letter. And filling up the ment as Nerviline." Thus opens blank side the writer turned the the very earnest letter of J. J. Evthe dead man's will.

ment as Nerviline." Thus opens paper over to discover that it was anston, who lives near Wellington. took distemper a month ago, and was afraid I was going to lose him. His throat swelled and hard lumps In the Lining of a Ceach. In one of Thackeray's novels a will is found in the lining of an old developed. His nostrils ran and coach. Such a hiding-place was he had a terrible cough. I tried actually used by a testator whose different remedies, but was unable post-mortem affairs figured in the to relieve my horse of his pain and French courts in 1830; while there suffering till I started to use Neris a story of a later French case viline. I mixed a bottle of Nervirentleman in perfect health line and sweet oil and rubbed the 7 will and testament mixture on the throat and chest three times a day, and you would vears scarcely believe the way that horse ricked up. Nerviline cured him. found have used Nerviline for colic and cows, and earnestly every man that is Satisfactory as Nerviline.

Experiments conducted by Mosso, of Turin, indicate that physical education and gymnastics serve not only for the development of the the latter half of the nineteenth Horse Distemper muscular exercise as to intellectual was besieged, and there began the exercise and that children should four months' investment, with furbegin reading and writing only ious fighting on both sides. Again after they are 9 years old.

"After fifty years' experience in raising horses I can safely testify dency to rest every ten seconds. It Germans, who had the whole counthat no remedy gives such good results for an all-round stable liniis probable that only part of the try to draw on, besides their own brain is active at a time; the vari- excellent commissariat, suffered ous parts relieve one another. The very little. By January the city more mobile any animal's extremi was in such a terrible condition ties are the more intelligent, other that it surrendered. things being equal, it is.

An Unconditional Surrender.

In 1870 came the biggest war of muscles, but for that of the brain as well. It is becoming evident, in tween France and Germany. By the opinion of this authority, that October 29th there ware 850,000 as much time should be devoted to German troops in France, Paris

Jack Frost came to the aid of the Muscular fatigue exhibite pheno- Germans. A long spell of intense mena identical with intellectual cold made life almost impossible for fatigue. Nerve cells show a ten- the half-starved French, while the

One of the most charming young royalties in all Europe is Princess Marie of Roumania, who is scarcely more than thirteen years old. Beauty is her bi thright, for her Eighteen hundred and seventy-mother, the Crown Princess Marie, after whom she is named, is neseven was the date of the last great The Turks were attacked by an nowned for her beauty, her amiable send gratuitously.

Thirteen Years Old.

sians, with the Tsar himself in The mother married Crown (Well, you try it, and you'll find of Roumania it requires considerable will pow from Bucharest have it that already a village which stood upon a hill, young princes and grand dukes and there hastily entrenched himself. The Russians had 100,000 have come a-courting Princess men, but Osman and his dauntless Marie. In her veins flows English and band defeated them in four suc-Russian blood, which perhaps excessive battles. In November winter set in three plains why she has blonde hair and blue eyes. Her grandfather was weeks earlier than usual. The Turks had no winter clothing, and Prince Alfred, Queen Victoria's son, Duke of Edinburgh and Saxelittle to eat but maize-porridge and horseflesh. They suffered fearfully. At last, on December 9th, they deonly 30,000 left, but their rush was so tremendous that they carried three lines of Russian trenches before they were surrounded, and forced by enormously superior numbers to surrender uncondition-

RAIL-FENCE PHILOSOPHY.

Clear-sight d reason is one's most valuable asset. Some folk's lives are like a They bring nothing into dream.

the world and take nothing out of Success comes to the man who believes in succeeding. We should water and cultivate A woman's intuition can beat a man's logic to a conclusion. Some men expect a receipt in full when they pay a debt with promise assured of its purity. Her favorite perfumes are those of the hily of the

After having spent hundreds of the Queen of Italy has a liking for dollars on mechanical devices, medi- Roman cream and Palermo cream, cines and doctors' lees, she decided with a patriotic prejudice also as that this latest discovery, however regards perfumes. simple and inexpensive, should be The Czarina loves the odor of the last she would try before re-signing herself to the hopelessness of permanent and total deafness. arranged in all her Imperial Majes-Those interested in Mrs. Barry's ty's rooms, and even scattered them may write to her in confidence robe. No sweet soont seems too for full details, which she offers to powerful for the Czarina, and she blossoms as those of the hyacinth and the gardenia. The perfumes she chiefly uses-all of Parisian manufacture-are the jasmine and A BEAUTIFUL PRINCESS. the jonguil.

Queen Wilhelmins of Holland employs, both in her boudoir and the Princess Marie of Roumania Is But Royal nursery, a specially fabricated English' soap scented with heliotrope, while her favorite perfume is eau-de-Cologne.

> Not So Easy. "That's as easy as rolling off a

"Did you ever roll off a log?" "No, I can't say I did."

Handy Breakfast

Ready to Serve Direct From Package

Post Toasties and cream

A dainty dish of toasted Indian Corn, brimful of sweet flavor and substantial nourishment.

Post Toastles in the pantry mean many delicious breakfasts.

Direct to your table in sealed, air - tight packages. Sold by Grocers everywhere.

"The Memory Lingers"

Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Led. Windsor, Ontario.

Coburg-Gotha; her grandmother was Grand Duchess Marie of Rustermined to break out. There were Princess Marie and her two sisters and brother have been brought up on essentially modern methods; between the broad lines of knowledge and savoire faire. The Princesses are devoted to outdoor sports, in which their mother joins them enthusiastically. Nothing can be prettier than the sight daily in Bucharest-the Crown Princess riding with her children.

The mother, slender in her wellfitting habit, looks like a girl, the Princesses ride like lovely Amazons, their golden locks streaming in the breeze.

the flowers and destroys the weeds Laziness and drunkenness clothe a man in rags.

The man who thinks he is more cunning than others is usually the one who is deceived at the end.

"She talks Barely one-seventh of the popula-don't get a tion of the British Empire is com-pulation of England and Wales is which asked Noddles. "No," said Blithers. "She talks

wellings. colds,

ols.

