A CELEBRATED CASE.

CHAPTER XVIII.

" YOU WILL KILL ME." murmured. 'Oh, no! it is too much now 'But separation! to lose you, Valen- quickly, or-or I will make you! to hope for. It is impossible!'

'You were but an infant-a child, not happy.' conscious of the meaning of your words, 'And you, Valentine? You speak and Heaven, I willme, Adrienne, if that fearful thing had to my father.' taken place when you were old enough to realize the terrible effect of your own words --- ' at Valentine's painful efforts to speak.

'Well, what Valentine?' 'If I say, you were quite old enough to know what you were doing, and if---'

'If what, Valentine?' 'If you were, as then, thoroughly convinced of your father's guilt, would youwould you do as you did then?'

'What, cause his arrest-inform against him? Never!' Adrienne rose to her feet, and approached Valentine. 'But think Adrienne, if he were really a murderer-if your mother were deaddead by his wicked, brutal act!'

'I would not give him up. A child has no right to cause a parent's death. Surely, Valentine, in such a case. Heaven you from Heaven? would not condemn me for keeping sil-

'But Adrienne, could you keep silent? Would not your mother's blood cry to Heaven for vengeance on her murderer? Would you not die under the torturing weight of such a secret? It would kill only die. I would not betray my father!' you? Valentine staggered back, her eyes fixed on Adrienne's glowing face. For a mo- for me.' reflecting for a short time, she put her used to love so to deck herself in these. Valentine stood upright with a great hand on Adrienne's arm, and stared fix- Come take these diamonds.' edly in her timed, sad face.

punishment your mother's murderer?' | flesh as I hold it!' Valentine, think to what a horrible lingering death I should consign him! and put it before the count's eyes.

Then loving him as I did, as I do, could I

He looked from her to it, as if he think right. I—am only your father.' do it? Oh, the mere thought of such an thought she was losing her senses. Then

'And he would thus escape all punishment,' Valentine seemed to think aloud. without letting go her hold. 'He could not escape his own conscience, Valentine. To live unsuspected of the crime, yet tortured by that ever- ding-day. Why, something must have tray my father! Oh, Adrienne — 'She present accuser, would be an expiation for the deed.'

'You are reasoning on the theory that no arrest would be made, that your father would be supposed to have escaped pur-'Why, yes, Valentine; and would you not do the same ?'

'Under those circumstances I might. enough already.' A life long repentance might atone for the crime. But, Adrienne, suppose that an innocent man were arrested for the crime, tried, found guilty, and condemned like your poor father, on circumstantial now speak as I do.' evidence, to wear a convict's dress and drag a chain, as he does, in the streets of you mean?' yonder city ?'-Oh, Valentine, you frighten me!

Suppose, I say such a case! A guilty man shielded, and an innocent one suffering the infamy, the pain, enduring the toil, the heat, the cold, the insults of any a daughter like you, and who, like you, believed in his innocence! Suppose, I say such a case, and yourself the child conniving at the unmerited punishment of an innocent man! What-what would you

Adrienne shrank away, frightened at the passionate vehemence of Valentine's voice, at her flashing eyes and burning cheeks. But Valentine followed her. 'Teli me, Adrienne, what would you

The appeal was full of anguish, and would is answered. Adrienne's eyes filled at the sight of Valentine's sorrow. · Alas ! Valentine, I cannot reason as you do ; I cannot comprehend your mean ing. I do not know what I should do. I dare not contemplate such a terrible position. Mine is sad enough, humiliating, crushing; but that would be-

'Far worse! You shrink from even the contemplation of a child satisfied of her father's guilt, and witnessing an innocent man suffering in his stead; but, if you were placed in such an awful position, with no one to go to, no one to help you, Heaven would inspire you, Adrienne, a it will inspire me!'

Valentine's uplifted eyes, her clasped hands, raised in fervent supplication, was a sight that for a moment held Adrienne still in mute surprise. Then, a light broke in upon her. She caught Valentine hands, held them firmly and whispered passionately. 'Why do you ask me these questions

What have you discovered? What i troubling you? Quick, Valentine, tell me! You have learned____' A heavy step in the ante-room made her pause; both girls turned and met the count's eyes fixed on them as he entered. Adrienne would have shrunk away un der their angry expression : but Valentine, with a rapid movement, threw her arm around Adrienne's waist, and, thus supporting her, awaited the count's scorn-'So, together again!'

Valentine did not stir.

'I thought I told you, a short time since my wishes on this subject.'

You did; but Adrienne cannot in any way, injure me.' Valentine's voice was calm and clear. Her eyes met the count's quick glances with a fearlessness that enraged while it puzzled him. What do you mean by that?' · I mean that Adrienne and I are now equally convinced of her father's innocence of the crime laid to his charge.' · And you persist in disobeying me. I was explicit in my command that you should have nothing to do with that girl. against me? said the count, approaching convinced by the duke's explanation. Valentine shivered, and looked lovingly at Adrienne, who was gently disengaging herself from her strong clasp. Valentine faced him boldly.

Forgive me, Valentine, if I have caused 'You are right: I have.' you to disobey your father. I did not know that he ---' find it ?'

She ceased, unable to speak. 'Do not fret, Adriehne, Separation 'Separation, Valentine!' France and clear the innocent.' Chateau La Grange.

The count turned away from Adrienne's 'I want that proof. (live it to me!' Perceiving the young man enter the startled eyes; but Valentine, bending, He caught her firmly in his powerful rooms and look about him rapidly in kissed her passionately, tears choking her arms; his white face was convulsed with search of the brilliant vision he expected 'Courage, Adrienne; trust me. I will hissing tones; his hot breath seemed to The marquis was clocking unusually tine! Valentine rose suddenly, and bent over 'There might be worse evils, Adrienne never!' her friend. Her voice was hoarse and uneven.

There might be worse evils, Adrienne Valentine trembled in his grasp, but fectly happy this afternoon I just saw her eyes unflinchingly met his.

Mademoiselle Adrienne leaning on of the terrible consequences you were look so strangely! I will not leave you! 'You will kill me, as you did-Madebringing upon him--your father. Tell 'It is better, Adrienne; I must speak leine!' Valentine said, slowly.

went to the door of the garden entrance, ed animal, he shrank before Valentine's holding Adrienne's hand. There the flashing eyes. She caught his arm, speak-at the count.

mocking bow. proached him fearlessly.

'I did not seek Adrienne; she came of her father's innocence?" 'She? None whatever!'

Valentine looked steadily at the count Valentine total acceptable with his hands but did not reply.

down, without meeting her eyes. 'Pshaw ? I am tired of all this ; ense; have you selected your jewels?'

you.'
'That is true; but, Valentine, I could with them? Are they not rich enough for in such an embarrassing situation,' the ment there was a silence. Valentine put her hands to her head, as if to recall her You are angry with me. Well, perhaps I like a leaf! I do not understand this! scattered thoughts. Adrienne watched am severe, even unjust; but I have reacried the duchess, indignantly. 'Speak, her, perplexed at her earnestness. After sons. Come, Valentine, your poor mother Valentine, speak, my child !

'You say that you would shield from this one. This seems to burn into my proposal?' 'I cannot! They all terrify me! See action on a child's part makes me shud- he held it for a moment, and pressed the her startled eyes glanced at the three medallion to his lips.

ewildered you, my daughter.'

'Yes; I see.' Valentine again concealed the neck-so suddenly affected your daughter?' the lace; and going to a table, sat down and duke said firmly. being unsuspected, the real murderer leaned her head on her hand in deep 'I-the fact is, I am as much surprised thought.

> for our drive. We have delayed long utes the child has been uttering the most 'I am not going to the presentation!' 'Not going? But I insist upon your gong; you know I am your father.'

is because you are my father that 'I do not understand you. What do

'I mean that we must leave France.' Leave France! You must be raving. Oh! he says that I am mad! mad! Why, I have only just returned, after an years. I have brought with me every tine fell insensible to the ground. brutal person who cared to taunt him able to enjoy life and secure all these es- sofa; the duchess, assisted by the maid, while passing! More than that, the separ-tates for you. Leave France! I should who came running in at the sound of Val-reason? ask you to leave France. I will go with glance, drew the count into an adjoining you. Once out of danger, beyond reach apartment.

liberty.' by all this sacrifice?' 'Jean Renaud.'

Valentine rose as she spoke. The count stood for a moment gazing him?' as led the duchess.

at her, an expression of cunning and curiosity meeting her steady scrutiny of his enough. Do not let him come.

cuse me? your father!'

Valentine clasped her hands. Do not, do not drive me to such an you must not be 'disturbed.' xtremity! Be merciful to him, to his child! Has he not suffered enough for cent child die, broken hearted, because some time. Marie will stay with me, no help can reach him? Do you suppose at another murder! 'I think you have lost your senses, again. Valentine.' pleading.

'Will you not agree to my earnest hood.

you, be indeed your daughter ---'I tell you no! Here I remain.' 'You will not undo this injustice? You for the city. will not leave France?'

'Never! I tell you. Never! What is more, I command you to cease talking on this subject, which seems to be depriving you of your senses, driving you into insanity. We must leave this place; and scene they had witnessed. that without delay. The presence of that 'The man is passionate, and has been girl is simply maddening. It affects me away from the society of ladies. He would almost as much as it does you.' 'Her presence may excite your fears, said the duke. tion. 'Then, may I ask the cause of it?'

my own ability to keep silent; I am not that I consider it dangerous to leave her Feb 19 .- tf. onvinced that it is my duty to do so.' 'What! you threaten me!'

what is kind.' 'You must have discovered something monster! which you consider important evidence The duchess and Adrienne were not his daughter and speaking in a whisper.

'What is this proof? Where did you room of the Hotel de Ville.

'Do not ask me. It is enough that it is and faith in personal sympathy, thought sufficient for the purpose if I wish to use it but right to let the Marquis de Calonne cannot change our love for each other _____, it against you. I ask you again to leave understand the present state of affairs at passion; his words came rapidly, in eager to meet, the duchess quickly sent for him. 'To his child, who destroyed him!' she not forget your grief, and my promise.' burn her cheeks. 'Give it to me, I say! handsome: his features were lit up with 'For what to hide it or destroy it? hand that the duchess held out to him

'You will not, you say; then, by Raoul's arm and smiling at his remarks.

The count's arms relaxed, let go their Another close embrace, and Valentine hold, and, with a cry like that of a wound- condition of mind. But you have not count, regaining courage as Valentine will tell the duke if he misses you" The count turned, and made a deep, faltered. 'You are my daughter-you shall obey; give me what you have! Valentine closed the door, and ap. 'Yes, I am your wretched daughter, made so by your crime. Why do you

Adrienne flushed. Valentine looked live with this secret to hide from the world.'

With a yell the count sprang upon her and caught her by the throat, but her What new evidence did she bring you sharp cry was echoed from the doorway. As the duke and the duchess entered the room the count released his daughter, This new assurance, then, comes to and cowering away, sank into an easy

Valentine tottered toward the duchess and fell, nearly fainting, in her arms. He spoke roughly, walking up and The astonished duke looked from 'What does this mean?' he at length 'No; I cannot wear them-I will not!' asked the still trembling count. count stammered, with difficulty. 'But 'Rich enough! They are to expensive -really my daughter-effort, and looked steadily at the count.

'Shall I speak, or will you agree to my 'Oh, speak if you will my daughter. She drew the necklace from her pocket The count came quite close, speaking slowly. 'Of course, you must do as you faces confronting her. The count's snake Valentine eagerly watched the action like gale seemed to fascinate her. She 'That necklace! Why, that is the very y; 'Yes, yes, my father! What did she put her hand to her head, speaking wildone which your mother wore on our wed- say? 'I would die, but I would not bestopped. 'Count, explain this scene. What has as you are. The events of the last few Well, I am waiting your pleasure, days have undoubtedly unsettled my Valentine. Everything is in readiness daughter's mind. For the last five min> alarming, imposible accusations and threats. I fear she is mad.' 'Mad!' cried the duchess, while Valentine stared at the count as if doubting the eight; truth of what her quick percept grasping with fatal accuracy.

'Yes, madame, there can be no doubt of it. My daughter is mad!" 'Mad?' echoed Valentine. 'Mad? The last word was cry of wild despair, enforced absence of twelve long, painful and as it rang through the room, Valenpossible proof of my identity, so as to be The duke raised her and laid her on the ation from his own family—perhaps from like to know on what grounds—for what entine's voice, quickly applied restora tives. The count walked rapidly up and Because justice must be done. The down, avoiding looking at his daughter. man now suffering unmerited disgrace 'Take him away,' whispered the duchand bitter shame must be released, I ess; and the duke, understanding her of capture, you can explain everything, Valentine slowly regained consciou prove his innocence, and restore him to ness. Coming out of the long, death-like swoon, she saw the duchess bending an 'Why, what are you talking about? xiously over her. She smiled as she re-Who is this man whom I am to liberate cognized the kind, motherly face, but the next minute shivered and glanced fearfully around her. 'He is not here; do you wish to see

'No, no, not now; I am not strong 'No; I will invite him to come with us 'Jean Renaud? the galley-slave! What to the city. You will try and compose are you insinuating? Do you mean to ac- yourself and sleep, my child. You are over-excited and troubled; give up thinking and rest. I will tell your father that 'I shall feel quite well in a little while, Valentine said. 'You must not remain ou-for another's crime? Must his inno- any longer; I have already detained you Valentine smiled wearily and sadly as thas I will stay here quietly and look on the duchess kisshd her. She was questioning whether they would ever meet Fortunately, the duke had persuaded He turned away. Valentine followed the count that he had better appear at im, her hands clasped, her voice soft in the reception, the minister having been informed of his presence in the neighbor-

prayer? Heaven, perhaps has spared you | The duchess entering, reported Valento make reparation for this terrible sin. tin much better, but advised leaving her Do it, and I shall love you! I will follow to obtain rest and sleep. The count, after you in your exile, work for you, care for a slight hesitation, agreed to be advised by the duchess in regard to visiting his daughter and soon after he set out alone

Neither the duke nor his wife felt at ease about Valentine; and when Adri-not intentionally injure his daughter, but it has nothing to do with my agita. 'He must be something worse than pas sionate,' the duchess exclaimed, 'I am positive that he was choking her when we

'It is caused by your danger. I doubt surprised them that time. Do you know in his power so completely.' 'Oh, you were mistaken, my dear 'No; I implore you to do what is right What! choke a delicate, lovely girl-his only child! Why, the man would be a

Adrienne began to grow nervous in re-His eyes had a dangerous gleam in them. gard to Valentine's safety, but felt someVEGETINE.

An Encelleu: Medicine a charming smile as he bent over the 'I suppose,' he said, 'that you feel per-Cur Minister's Wife

I always judge of how you feel by her appearance. 'You are right, my dear marquis Ad. ienne's face is a very good test of my 1011 West Jefferso, Street.

mentioned Valentine ? 'No, I expected to find her with you. Adrienne lifted her head, frightened who stood with his back to her, taking no to Valentine's painful efforts to speak.

'Well, what Valentine?'

Adrienne flushed Valentine to speak.

Adrienne flushed Valentine to speak.

Adrienne flushed Valentine to speak.

Adrienne flushed Valentine to speak. that if you can leave your duties here without it being noticed, you had better 'Father, Mademoiselle Renaud salutes | 'I will not let you brave me,' cried the |go to her. Say nothing to any one. I 'Why, you alarm me! Yesterday I saw her. She is well ?' 'Do not look so worried. I cannot enter into explanations without attracting Well, so this is your promised obedi-tstood between you and your heart's de-You must see Valentine before the count sees her again. Something is wrong; neither Adrienne nor I could win her confidence. You understand me? Try what blood you can do.

'But when did this happen?' 'Since morning; she was dressed to ome here. It is inexplicable to me. The duke is not suspicious, but I fear something very terrible. The count was quite ready to proncunce her mad, but father to daughter, as if at a loss for I left her quite weak, but perfectly sen-Valentine is not inclined to lose her senses sible. Lose no time.'

The marquis had listened in shocked silence. He pressed the hand he held to his lips, and with a low 'Trust me,' left the crowded room. In a few minutes he was riding rapidly toward Chateau La Yell Grange. His bright, clear-headed Valentine mad! That was simply an absurdity. He had talked to her within twenty four hours, and had left her in the gayest spirits, full of interest in the coming preentation to the Duke de Choiseul. What had happened to trouble her? Who had dared to annoy her? The count must have caused this rapid alteration of spirits. With a sudden feeling of terror, the marquis recalled a fact that he had tried his utmost to forget. This was, his first imression of Valentine's father. It had een entirely unfavorable; now it recurred with added force.

(To be continued.)

Lands for Sale.

Christ Church in the Parish of Fredericton, ill, on Wednesday, the 2nd day of April, cxt, at 10 ciock in the forenon, at Absalom isson's, in the Parish of New Maryland, in the jount of York, offer forsale all their right, title, and interest, in and two that certain tract of and situate in the Pari-h of New Maryland, in the County of York, granted to the said Rector, funch Wardens and Vestry, for a Giebe, by frant from the Crown, bearing date the 17th day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thous and eight hundred and thirty-five, known as lots wenty-three and twenty-five and particularly dector, Guirch warens, and Vestry un aer to orporate Seal, bearing date the thritieth da anuary last past, and Registered in the Offi-ne Registrar of Deeds in and for York Con-n the thirty-first day of Jar uary last pas-fill more fully appear reference being had to ad Deed or Instrument, and to a pian the breved. annexed.

The said tract of land will be sold in separous as divided by Deputy Crown Land Survey Bevery R. Jouett, Esquire, in the year is plan of which invision is annexed to the as mentioned Deed or Instrument, and is the before mentioned, and which aid Lots are spectively numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 8 and 7, will appear on reference being had to the bian.

Lot No. 1 being all that part of the said tract which lies between the said Public Highway which now crosses the said cract and the North-west Branch of the Rusagornis Stream, and contains 82 acres more or less. Lot No. 2 being all that part of the said eserved and dedicated, thirty chains and nine nks, thence at right angles to the line has, nee one do the northwest side line of the said frac at thence along the said northwest side in authwesterly to the northeast side line of the did public Highway which now crosses the said act and thence along the said public highway the place of beginning, containing 114, acre ore or less.

Lot No. 3 being all that part of the said trac ying between the northeast boundary of 1 No. 2 and a line drawn parallel therewith distal of chains and 90 links to the northeast there and containing 117 acres more or less.

and containing 117 more or less.

Lot No. 5 being all that part of the said tract lying between the northeast boundary of Lot No. 4 and a line drawn parallel therewith distant 30 chains and 90 links to the northeast thereof, and containing 117 acres more or less.

Lot No. 6 being all that part of the said tract lying between the northeast boundary of Lo' No. 5 and a line drawn parallel therewith distant 30 chains and 90 links to the northeast thereof, and containing 117 acres more or less. Lot No. 7 being all that part of the said true art of the said tract lying between the north sast boundary of Lot No. 6 and the rear line of unds owned by the heirs of the late Edwar imonds, containing lod acres more or less.

Dated the 24th day of February, A. D. 1879. E. L. WETMORE. Vestry Clerk Christ Church, Frederict Trustees Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that George ? SCULIX, and CHARLES E COLLINS, of Frecricton, in ely carrying on business as Merchar Tellors, under the name, style and drim of SCULLY & COLLINS, have this day made a assignment in trust to me, for the benefit that credit. heir creditors.

The Trust Deed now lies at the office of the Solicitors, Messes, Rainsford & Black, skinature, where creditors are requested to call and sign the asme without delay.

All persons indebted to the firm of SCLLLY & COLLINS, will plesse make immediate payment o me at the store lately occupied by them.

Lated this sth day of February, 1578. A. ALFRED MILLER,

NOTICE.

RAINSFORD & BLACK.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill will be presented at the next Session of the Le Legislature, "To make valid and effectual at tain Dee I from the Rector, Centre Wardens, Vestry of Christ Church, in the Parish of W gervile, to Elizabeth J. Bailey," the said I being a conveyance to the said Elizabeth gard to Valentine's safety, but felt some what reassured on perceiving the Count de Mornasse in the crowded receptionroom of the Hotel de Ville.

The duchess, with her quick intuition

The duchess, with her quick intuition

The duchess are to Valentine's safety, but felt some what reassured on perceiving the Count de Mornasse in the crowded receptionroom of the Hotel de Ville.

The duchess, with her quick intuition

The duchess, with her quick intuition

The duchess are to Valentine's safety, but felt some what we sail corporation, and is particularly described in the said beed, which is recorded in the said poets a Salary of S100 per nount and expenses, or allow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We man what we sail. Sample of S100 per nount and expenses, or allow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We man what we sail. Corporation, and is particularly described in the said percentage of s100 per nount and expenses, or allow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We mill pay Agents a Salary of S100 per nount and expenses, or allow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We mill pay Agents a Salary of S100 per nount and expenses, or allow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We mill pay Agents a Salary of S100 per nount and expenses, or allow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We mill pay Agents a Salary of S100 per nount and expenses, or allow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We mill pay Agents a Salary of S100 per nount and expenses or ratiow a larger commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. We mill pay Agents a Salary of S100 per nount and expenses. Sample of the said Corporation, and the said prosure. O'UR MIXTIRE will relieve you of a bad of the said Corporation, and some commission to sell our new and wenderful indistributions. As a salary of Mademoiselle Adrienne leaning on 5 fe and Sure.

rs truly, W. H. CLARK, 120 Monterey Street, Allegany, Pen

VECETIVE.

HYDE PARK, Mass., Jan. 15, 1876.

in Vegetine, in Vegetine, but is a Vegetine, but is from its effects; still I persevered, as it it was benefiting me in other respectiful not see the results I desired till I but a little more than a yet the difficulty in the back was carred; a c months I have enjoyed the bestorine.

low, ling the past few weeks I had a scrotulous ling as large as my fist gather on anothe g as large as my list gamer on moved in my body.

A Vegetine taithfully, and it removed it into the surface in a month. I tinink I have been cured of my main trouble if I had taken larger doses, after having execusiomed to its effects, cour patrons troubled with serofula or kidsesse understand that it lakes time to cure distances; and, littley will patiently take ine, it will in my judgment, cure them, it great obligations, I am yours, very truly,

Yous, very truly,
G. W. MANSFIELD,
Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Churc VEGETINE Prepared by H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.

Vegetine is Sold by all Druggists.

THE SUBBUS OF THE NEW BRUNSWICK RAILWAY.

WINTER ARRANGEMENT Beginning Dec 16th, 1878. 6.00 A. M. Passenger Train will Leave stock, Gloson and Intermediate Stations.

EVERY LADY AND

1.00 P. M. Mixed Train will leave Ed-

Gibson, Dec. 12, 1878. T. HOBEN, Supt 'Marble Hall."

Jas R. HO VIE H is opened a very large and superior stock of seasonable goods, and is prepared to give his best attention to the requirements of his numerous customers and the public generally.

HIS STOCK COMPRISES: WORSTED COATINGS; WEST OF ENGLAND, CANADIAN. SCOTCH and GERMANTWEEDS: BLACK and BLUE BROADCLOTHS and VENETIANS:

BLACK AND BLUE DOES: A SPLENDID LOT OF FAMED EDINBURGA ubber Overceats and Ulsters Just received, which will be sold cheap.

A good fit guarantee i in every case, TEA JAMES R. HOWIE, Morchant Tailor and Clothier, Queen Street. (next door to Brayley House.)

COMING AGAIR. THAT TALENTED ARTIST. H AVING secured the services of Mr. W. H

A FIRST CLASS PHOTOGRAPH. nished in the latest style and at a molerat

Larger Photographs in proportion. ALL NEGATIVES WILL BE PRESERVED. Mr. Getchell will arrive on February 26, an These favoring us with their partonage with accepte proper attention.

Engagements will be made and kept up to five minutes within time of appointment, by letter or personally with Mr. Getchell.

Special attention given to the making of Family Groups.

Mr. Getchell cannot be surpassed in making Negatives for chile ren. Mr. Getchell will also make Negatives and take orders for Enlargements in Oil and Water Colors, India Ink, Cray-

AGENTS, READ THIS. Cough. Remedy. YORK COUNTY DEBENTURES

GEO, W. SCHLEYER

JOHN RICHARDS, Insurance Agent,

ope senting the following first-class Office LONDON & GLOBE, NORTHERN, IM-PERIAL.

American.—ETNA, HARTFORD, AND He has engaged the services of REID, who is there agaly neighboring. Plumble, Well Boring, Pumps. Canadian, BRITISH AMERICA, AND VATIONAL.

Also: Agent for the sale of Railway Tickets all parts of North America. Fron, April 13, 1878 Organs & Pianos.

The subscriber is prepared to furnish

PIANOS & ORCANS (EACH INSTRUMENT WARRANTED) at Lowest Prices and favorable terms. E. CADWALLADER.

H. RUTTER, ADDLER and HARNESS MAKER.

> BRUSHES. CURRY COBS. BITS, Etc., Etc. ring done with neatness and despatch AT THE OLD STAND, Opposite the County Court Heuse, Queen Street, Fton., N. B. Fton, April, 29, 1878.

ALLEN & WILSON, Barristers and Attorneys AT LAW.

licitors, Notaries Public, &c., Loans Nego-tiated, Accounts Collected.

"FICE up-stairs in Wiley's Building, next w logan's St. re.

WAVEFLY HOUSE HIS well known hotel has been improved on and the premises chiarged. The Stables are best in the city. Charges low.

JOHN B. GRIEVES. TUGH McMONAGL , ussea Corner, King's County NEW BRUNSWICK.

BECKWITH & SEELY. Attorneys-at-Law, Notaries Public, etc. Office in ITY HALL, FREDERICTON and varied stock of Attend at Oromocto and Fredericton June- SPRUCE, PINE and HEVILOCK Accounts Collected, and Loans Negoti-

ATTORMES and BARRISTERS at LAW, one and both sides, and tongued and grooved Solicitors, Conveyancers, etc. Solleators, Conveyancers, etc.

Solleators, Conveyancers, etc.

ALSO,

MONEY NEGOTIATED and LOANS MADE

Good Dry Laths and Sawed Cedar Shingi EVERY LADY AND GENTLEMAN

> ACADIA POCKET WISP

REED & REED. Notice to Blacksmiths. Now in Stock, and for sale at Bottom

Prices. 25 TONS Refined American Iron, i ton Sleigh Shoe Steel,
4 cwt. Axe Steel, (Firth's)
4 cwt. Axe Steel, (Firth's)
5 ton Octagon and Square Steel,
5 ton Pevte Steel,
5 boxes Mooney's Celebrated Horse Nalls,
20 kegs Horse Snoes,
10 "Sno. Ball Horse Shees, 50 "Borax,
2 M Sleigh Shoe Bolts,
1 "Ster Shoe Bolts,
5 "Ster Shoe Bolts,
5 "Ster Shoe Bolts,
5 "Ster Shoe Bolts,
5 "Ster Shoe Bolts, 1 "Stef Shoe Bolts,
6 "Serew Bolts,
2 "Fire Bolts,
4 pairs Bellows, 2 Auvils,
4 pairs Bellows, 2 Auvils,
9 kegs Nuts and Washers,
1 Portable Forge,
6 doz, Horse Shoe Rusps,
1 Edia assirted

Feb. 1, 1879. SHINGLES, CLAPBOARDS.

ಿ ಹಿಂ., ಹಿಂ. Respectfully yours,

DANIEL LUCY, Queen St., NORTH BRITISH & MERCAN-TILE INSURANCE CO. OF EDINBURGH & LONDON. change having been made in the ma ment of the business of this old estab

JULIUS L. INCHES.

Acme Club Skates. JUST RECEIVED from the Starr Manufacturing Co. Halifax,75 Pairs Forbes' Patent Acm Wood Skates, &c.

JERSEY BULLS FOR SALE. Two young Jersey Balls for sale—Hand BOILER, with appartenances, Plumbing, &c.

English. - QUEEN, LIVERPOOL AND TO THE TOTAL THE Patent Surner TRAVELLERS LIFE AND ACCIDENT.

A. LIMERICK, PRACTICAL

GAS FITTING! ESTABLISHMENT.

ers for sale cheap.

Gas, Steam and Hor Water Fitting, always in stock.

Orders for Tin Roofing promptly attended

Serior at Frederican Street, St. John, or to the Subscriptor at Frederican Superistry.

the premises at shortest notic Prices to suit the times. J. & J. O'BRIEN. Queen Street, F'ton, Aug. 10, 1878.

CABINET MAKING. JAS. D. HANLON, FREDERICTON. CABINET MAKER

UNDERTAKER

King Street, Fredericton, N. B.

Orders for Underraking, from the town country attended to with promptaess. Picture Framing a Speciality. To F ton, May 18, 1878. ceder of Ayrshire Cattle, and Leicester Sheep LUMBER FOR SALE.

The Subscriber begs to announce to Fraser, Wetmore & Winslow, 1 seasoned and planed.

Dry Pine Boards, well seasoned, planed of of every quality, together with a -tog Spruce and Hemlock Logs, from weigh All orders promptly delivered. Please call at my yard, West End Mill.

RICHARD A. ESTEY LAND FOR SALE. E are instructed to offer the following to dso a Lot sit rate in the Parish of So

For terms and particulars apply to FRASER, WETMORE & WINSLOW, 'ton, April 3, 1878. Land for Sale.

600 A CRES fine quality farming within three miles of

W. A. BLACK,
Richibact

Apples. Apples.

JAMES S. NEILL. 100bbls, of Nova Scotia Apples, Different kinds, in good order, For sale by Now in Stock, (9) pairs Wood Skates; 8 doz. DYKEMAN & VANWART,

NOTICE.

F'ton, Feb. 1.-6 ins.

FOR SALE. G. L. ATHERTON & CO., HENRY B. RAINSFORD, JR., 2 doors below People's Bank, F'ton, F'ton, June, 1878.

GAS FITTING, INSURANCE!

NORTH BRITISH AND MERCANTILE INSURANCE COMPANY of Edinburgh and London. COMMERCIAL UNION ASSURANCE

WESTERN ASSURANCE COMPANY

ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE CO.

INSURANCE COMPANY

of Hartford, undersigned is prepared to effect Insurance e gloy first-class offices on reasonable For rates and any other information ap-the office of

JULIUS L. INCHES.

SPLENDID PLUMBING. Farming Property

FOR SALE.

Fron, Sept. 28, 1878.—37ns
J. SAUNDERS,

DRY GOODS. CLOTHING. Gents' Furnishing Goods, which will be sold at reasonably Low Prices

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Q. A great quantity of Goods having been gody damaged at the late fire, will be sold a cat Bargains in order to make room for Fa Sept. 28, OWEN SHARKEY. Just Received

Geo. Hatt & Sons. 60 Doz. Pails; 2000 lbs. Cheese; Jodoz. Burnett's Extracts; doz. Smoked Beef Tongues; els Graham Flour; Enps' Cocoa; 25 Cases Corn Starck seground Pepper; els Golden Syrup; 31 doz. Bed Cords . Confectionery;

HIDES! HIDES! FREDERICTON

LEATHER COMPANY HIGHEST PRICE IN CASH HIDES.

Brushes. Brushes UST Received from McLauchlin's BRUSH MANUFACTORY, Boston. loz. R. Whitewash Brusbes; "Common Whitewash Brus

JAS. S. NEILL. Fredericton, March 1, 1879.

NOTICE. St. John.
RAINSFORD & BLACK, Emission Whees and Liquors usually kept in a fractions establishment, also Fredericton.

Wm. DIBBLEE.

Family Groceries of every description and of the best quality.

atisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its outhful color.
It removes all eruptions, itching d dandruff. It gives the head a poling, soothing sensation of great omfort, and the scalp by its use omes white and clean. By its tonic properties it restores be capillary glands to their normal gor, preventing baldness, and makthe hair grow thick and st As a dressing, nothing has been nd so effectual or desirable. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer

Massachusetts, says, "The conients are pure, and carefully se onsider it the Best PREPARATION for its intended purposes." Price, One Dollar. Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS.

degant preparation may be I from gray or any other undesirhade, to brown or black, at dison. It is easily applied, being in cration, and quickly and ef-Il meither rub per wash off. Majorfactured by R. P. HALL & CO.,

NASHUA. N.H. Rold by all Druggiate, and Lealers in Modicines.