Visit of His Excellency Monsignor Stagni to Hr. Grace.

Enthusiastic Reception to the Papal Delegate by the Citizens.

The announcement by His Lordship Bishop March, that His Excellency Monsignor Stagni, Papal Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, would visit Harbor Grace on Thursday was the signal for a large and enthusiastic gathering in the Academy Hall after Mass on Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Hanrahan, Supt. of Schools for the Diocese, was called to the chair and Mr. W. R. Madigan elected Secretary. Plans were at once formulated for a reception to His Excellency Monsignor Stagni and sub-committees appointed, the most important one being the "decoration committee" which Mr. Robert Levesque was given charge. Active preparations began on Monday and continued with a will during the intervening days, so that the arrival of the S. E. Fire at 6.30 on Thursday afternoon found historic Harbor Grace in gala attire and bunting flying everywhere and an ever increasing concourse of expectant citizens making towards the landing place at Mian's wharf. The C.C.C. under Lieutenant Colonel Kennedy, and their officers were drawn up as a guard of honor on the wharf, and as the illustrious visitor came in sight they saluted him with repeated volleys of musketry while the band played the Pope's March. A deputation from the city made up of the Chairman and Secretary of the Citizens Reception Committee and the following Knights of Columbus, Messrs. J. O'Neil, P. Lee, Van Hayes, J. Madigan, R. K. Kennedy, John Mackey, Martin Murphy and T. J. Freeman, boarded the steamer as soon as her veteran commander, Capt. P. Delaney had laid her alongside the pier, and were immediately presented to His Excellency the Delegate, who received them on deck surrounded by the unique and brilliant gathering of dignitaries of the Church. His Grace Archbishop Howley, His Lordship Bishop March, the Bishop of Power, the new consecrated prelate of the West Coast, Monsignor Stagni, Secretary to the Papal Delegate,

Monsignor Reardon of Placentia, Monsignor Veitch of Conception, Rev. J. J. St. John, Rev. Father Sears, Rev. F. D. McCarthy and Rev. Wm. Finn. By this time the wharves and their approaches were filled with an eager multitude, and on the wharf there went up a mighty cheer of welcome for His Excellency, for the Archbishop, bishops and priests. His Excellency who was visibly touched by this spontaneous evidence of good will and enthusiastic welcome was then escorted through a double line of Cadets standing at the salute by the carriage in waiting. The bishops followed under the escort of Mr. Wm. Madigan Secretary of the Committee. Next came the Monsignor escorted by Mr. J. Casey. Then the remaining clergy escorted by Mr. R. K. Kennedy and Dr. Strapp. The procession formed at once with the C.C.C. in front with band playing and side drums rattling merrily. Then came the carriage drawn by a pair of horses with elaborate trappings, containing the Delegate the Archbishop and Bishop March, followed by the other dignitaries. The reception committee came next, and after them a vast concourse of citizens and visitors from adjacent places, including the occasional order by Police Inspector Bailey in full uniform, assisted by a detachment of constabulary. The whole scene was inspiring to a degree. The bright sunshine, the music of the band, the crowded street, with strings of bunting across lending a touch of color to the surroundings, the waving of the flag, the cheering which swept over the multitude all conspired to make a most impressive and long to be remembered pageant. Arrived at the Cathedral grounds entrance was made beneath a splendid arch, ornamented with flags and (later) illuminated with closed electric lights, the work of the Cadet Corps under the direction of Major Grochev. Both towers were festooned with flags and strings of bunting extended from the top of the fence in front. The bells of the Cathedral were ringing joyously and quickly the sacred edifice was filled with people. Upon afterwards the Delegate in ceremonial robes and accompanied by the clergy made solemn entry into the Cathedral and was met and escorted to the high altar by Bishop March, Rev. Monsignor Reardon, and Rev. J. St. John were deacons of honor. Rev. Wm Finn was master of ceremonies. The music of the choir, under Miss Cody the organist, during Benediction, was most favorable comment. Lambiotti's O Salutaris, sung as a quartet by Mrs. M. O'Brien, Mrs. M. T. Jones and Messrs. Hanrahan and Casey was well rendered. After Benediction His Excellency, the Papal Delegate, proceeded to the Throne and the following address from the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese was read by His Lordship Bishop March:

His Excellency the Most Reverend Petrius Francis Stagni, D. D., Apostolic Delegate.

May it Please Your Excellency—

In the name of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Harbor Grace, and in my own, I bid you a most cordial welcome to Newfoundland. The pleasure we feel in approaching you for the first time as our Apostolic Delegate is enhanced by the fact that you are brought in closer touch with our ecclesiastical history, and promise to eventuate in much good and benefit for the cause of our Holy Religion. By this order of the Congregation of the Council, Catholics are brought in closer touch with the Supreme Pontiff through the medium of his personal representative, and the seal of authority, three thousand miles away, with its unavoidable tardiness in the transaction of ecclesiastical affairs, is thereby rendered easily accessible. From this intimate union of action and counsel with Rome, hitherto unobtainable, will, we feel sure, issue great and specific blessings, the magnitude of which we cannot at present estimate. We are anxious that this legislation of the Holy See be fully conscious of its important bearing on our ecclesiastical life. They who shall be removed from it by fifty years will perceive its full proportions and see the outline of a brighter future. We trust that Your Excellency may be spared to discharge the responsible duties of your exalted office, and we pray that you will accept the assurance of our unqualified obedience to the authority which you who are invested and anointed for yourself personally.

On behalf of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Harbor Grace,
—JOHN MARCH,
Bishop of Harbor Grace.

The Delegate replied from the pulpit, after speaking in simple, dignified and impressive language, expressed his great surprise and pleasure at the reception accorded him, and said that if the Holy Father, Pope Pius X could only be an eyewitness of the reception of this colony still burning so brightly, still thriving so strongly as it did in the hearts of the hardy pioneer ancestors who first planted its seeds on the shores of Newfoundland, he would have called down the blessing of God upon all present, upon the absent ones, especially those engaged at the factories. He spoke so earnestly, so strongly, so affectionately as to impart to the blessing a significance that deeply impressed all. Thus ended a historic day for the Catholic Church of Harbor Grace.

On Friday morning His Excellency motored to Carbonear in Mr. H. D. Reid's auto car, and later to Brigus, returning at 8 p.m. This (Saturday) morning the distinguished visitor and suite will leave for St. John's by special train. And just here the writer would like to mention how greatly the kindness of the Reid Nfld. Co. to the Apostolic Delegate is appreciated by the Catholics of Harbor Grace.
—T. H.

70% WHITE LEAD 30% ZINC WHITE

BOWRING BROS. LIMITED, ST. JOHN'S

When you buy Paint, get the real thing

It is extravagant and foolish to buy and pay for paint, and instead of paint, get a mixture containing cheap adulterants. Pure paint—the real thing—spreads easier, covers more surface (and covers it better) and wears longer than adulterated paint. Pure paint is far more economical to use. Pure paint gives the handsomest finish.

Pure paint insures you against paint "troubles", the cracking, peeling, scaling, etc. that comes from the use of impurities.

Bowring's Patent pure paint—made from 70% pure white lead (Branden's S. E. Genuine) 30% pure zinc white, pure linseed oil, pure turpentine and dryer. It will give you the greatest satisfaction and save you money on your paint bill.

No Creation of Peers.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-Day.

It is reported that Lord St. Aldwyn has pledged himself to lead fifty Unionist peers into the lobby in support of the Veto Bill. This plan while relieving Lansdowne of the onus of voting against his own amendments to the Bill, would insure its passage without resorting to the creation of peers, as the Government can rely upon fifty votes in the Upper House from Liberal peers, and it is doubtful whether Halsbury will succeed in taking 50 peers into the Opposition lobby.

Optimism Prevails.

Special to Evening Telegram.

PARIS, Yesterday.

Greater optimism prevails in the capital to-day, though it was admitted that negotiations with Germany regarding Moroccan affairs remain difficult. The statement by Mr. Asquith yesterday and Premier Caillaux's advice to the French to keep cool and be prudent reflected the tension at the moment when relief was most needed. The discreet military preparations of the Government are given rise to the apprehension that was not impossible. These preparations included orders to the cavalry to be ready for the field at the first signal, heavy provisioning of forts on the eastern frontier, special supply trains to run out of Paris and the mustering of all regiments at their full quota. It is understood that the German ambassador at Berlin, has modified his attitude, and is now asking for part instead of the whole coast of French Congo, but he is at the same time making other conditions which France would find difficulty in accepting. Nevertheless, there is a strong feeling that a solution will be found. The morning papers welcome Asquith's speech as clarifying the situation and hastening a settlement. The Pigeon understands that Emperor William told personal friends that the Moroccan question had been settled amicably with France.

Fire To-Day.

At 11.38 to-day an alarm of fire was sent in from box 117, bringing the Central and Eastern fire to Mr. P. Balfour's house, Military Road, where a blaze was in progress in one of the upper bedrooms. The firemen quickly had the hose from the "chemical" up through the building and placed a stream on the fire, but it was fully half an hour before it was quenched. Dense smoke filled the house, and a brief effort was made to work in such an atmosphere. They however stuck to their task, but the smoke was so thick that the firemen were badly gutted and the bed and bed clothes with the furniture were all charred. The morning papers were full of the details of the fire, and it is believed that a spark was blown through the chimney, and the furniture, we learn, was insured.

Fiona's Narrow Escape.

When the Fiona was in Trepassay Bay on Saturday last, with its unobtainable Amethyst just ashore, the cruiser had a narrow escape from being holed and sunk by the Amethyst. The Fiona heard her whistle close on board for a dense fog and blew a sharp whistle in reply. The Amethyst did not take notice nor did she answer, when suddenly the Amethyst jumped up close on to the side of the Fiona and the two vessels would have sunk with possible loss of life. Shortly after the Amethyst went on the rocks near Cape Milton.

Heavy Forest Fire.

A big forest fire raged yesterday along the line of the Trepassay Branch Railway near the headquarters at Cape Broyle, and Cullerton's camp was destroyed, a number of labourers camping in the woods, and their effects and effects burned. Some lady passengers coming along in the carriage with the man and to leave the wagon and make a detour of 1/4 to escape the burning woods, it being very dangerous to go through the zone as the woods on both sides of the road were blazing. Other people on the road were nearly suffocated by the heat and smoke, and their horses and their horses were in driving along. It was feared for a while that they would have to abandon the train and try for refuge in ponds and streams nearby.

Delegate Returned.

His Excellency Monsignor Stagni, Rev. J. St. John, Rev. Wm. Finn, Rev. J. Madigan, Rev. J. Mackey, Rev. J. Freeman, Rev. J. O'Neil, P. Lee, Van Hayes, J. Madigan, R. K. Kennedy, John Mackey, Martin Murphy and T. J. Freeman, boarded the steamer as soon as her veteran commander, Capt. P. Delaney had laid her alongside the pier, and were immediately presented to His Excellency the Delegate, who received them on deck surrounded by the unique and brilliant gathering of dignitaries of the Church. His Grace Archbishop Howley, His Lordship Bishop March, the Bishop of Power, the new consecrated prelate of the West Coast, Monsignor Stagni, Secretary to the Papal Delegate,

WHY should I buy roofing that needs to be painted every little while to keep it tight when for the same money or less, I can buy AMATITE which needs no painting?

The outer surface is composed of read mineral matter, which makes painting unnecessary.

With an Amatite Roof on your building you end your roofing troubles. When you buy a roofing that requires frequent painting you begin them.

Smooth roofings that require painting are a nuisance and an expense. When you buy them, you buy trouble—not protection.

Affairs at Kelligrews.

Editor Evening Telegram:

Dear Sir,—I would crave space in your esteemed paper, to state a few facts re the way the Customs and Post Office is being handled here. These positions were previously held by members of a family who have always managed to obtain a lion's share of Government patronage, and whose only qualifications consist in their ability to bluff the members into the belief that they can convert the present Government came into power large salaries were anticipated, which, however, did not materialize, and the rule of resigning was adopted in order to bring the Government to terms. The Postmaster was a display of displeasure resigning, which was followed immediately by the resignation of his son from the position of Customs Officer, and an officer from each department was sent from town to do the work.

Now, under similar circumstances, if the sentiments and wishes of the people were considered these positions would be filled with the earliest moment by other competent persons who have made application for the positions at the present rate of salary. But no, sir, the man with the pull won't allow it. He has resigned, and only on one condition that his son should be filled through the influence of Customs work for the past two years, with the aid of friends, should be given the position.
