Evening Telegram Cake and Pastry Bitter Complaint About Mail. FRESH EVERY DAY. AYRE'S ANGLO AMERICAN BAKERY Train Notes. Household Economy. TUESDAY, March 19, 1912. Legalizing Robbery. How preposterous and ill-considered the Teachers' Pension Scheme, which is now in the Bill Committee Stage in the House of Assembly, is, may be gathered from the following considerations which emphasize the facts that we have already brought out, viz., that two teachers who pay precisely the same premiums for the same number of years are pensioned not in proportion to their contributions, but according to their salaries. It works out that it is possible for one such teacher to be pensioned at $50 and another at $1,200. But this is not all. The premiums are those of the Act of 1903. These premiums with the 6 per cent. interest allowed by the Government for the use of the money accumulate a sufficient sum when the contributory is 60 years of age to buy an annuity of $100. These tables being retained, it follows that a well paid teacher may get out of it twelve times more than he puts into it, whereas the poorer teacher may not get more than 60 per cent. of what he puts in. Yet the latter is forced to enter on the scheme, and will be robbed by Act of Parliament of 40 per cent. of an annuity that he has in reality purchased. McMurdo's Store News. TUESDAY, March 19, '12. The need of a mild laxative, one which shall yet be certain in action, and easy to take, is one that often suggests itself where there are children. The dislike which children have to castor oil, senna, etc., is well known, and there is often a tendency to put off the use of medicine until the last moment. In this way a slight stomach or bowel trouble often develops into serious illness, for want of an effective medicine which can be used at the beginning of the trouble. In our Syrup of Figs we offer such a preparation, one which can be absolutely depended on for good results; one which can produce no unpleasant results of any kind. And as it is not alone children who object to nauseous doses of physic, we commend it to the use of adults. Price 30 cts. a bottle. Joseph Selman COMING WITH STOCK COMPANY. Mr. J. P. Kiley, Manager of the Nickel-Casino Theatre, who arrived by the Bruce on Sunday night from a two months trip to Canada and the United States, tells us that he has secured an excellent company to open an engagement in the T. A. Hall on Easter Monday night. The troupe includes that brilliant Shakespearean actor, Joseph Selman, so well known here, and his brother, Harry, while Miss Rose Valentine is leading lady. Their repertoire is a high-class one, and will be announced to-morrow.
