The Second Son of the Kaiser.

Eitel Fritz, the second son of Kaiser Bill, on the day his elder brother got his first uniform, became particularly envious of it, and during breakfast he kept on saying that he too wanted a pretty suit of clothes. When the Emperor would not listen, the little fellow became obstreperous, shouting, "But I want a uniform!"

To cure him of this, the Emperor sent him in "arrest," the only convenient place at the moment being the large dining-room table, under which he was told to crawl. After a time, he was bidden to come out again, which he did, but with all his clothes removed excepting his under garments.

To the question what he meant by such conduct, he made reply: "If I can't have a uniform, I don't want any other clothes either."

There is no disputing the fact there is something fascinating about a military uniform, especially if it has just been Dry Cleaned at
