Why He Didn't Go!

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir:—A few days ago a prominent gentleman of St. John's was over here on business, and amongst other questions he asked us—"why Richard Anderson Squires would be premier did not stand for Harbor Grace, the town in which he was born and reared?" Well, sir, the answer he received was brief and to the point, namely, that "we didn't want him. We knew enough of him already." And, Mr. Editor, Richard Anderson is well aware of this fact also, because when he came here about six weeks ago to feel his way, he was told in plain language that he might poll half a dozen votes. So Richard Anderson Squires hies away and foisted himself upon the people of St. John's, where he is practically unknown, but, my word for it, if St. John's has anything to do with him, they will soon find him out in his true colours, and that to their cost. If St. John's wishes to have the cast-off candidate, as Mr. P. from St. John's was telling us the other night at our meeting, "he would never believe that the great district of St. John's West would lower itself from the high position it has always held as the great Liberal Centre of the Country to elect Richard Anderson Squires as its representative." A District, said he, that has such intellectual giants as Major Renouf, Hon. Thos. Talbot, Peter Tessier, James Tessier, P. J. Scott, James J. Callahan, Lord Morris, Hon. John R. Bennett and others to do justice to them in the House of Assembly, as well as have the country respected abroad, so that international and financial relations could be entered into for the benefit of the whole country, not degrade its high standard by electing Richard Anderson of the fishing palm and his satellites to undo the great work that their forefathers fought so hard and valiantly for. "Confederation" said he, "was buried at Job's Bridge in 1869 by the heroes who fought and wiped out that bugaboo, which has been repeatedly disintegrated at intervals ever since by deep and disingenuous men as a catch cry against a Government, but it will require more professional skill than that possessed even by Dr. Campbell to infuse new life into the corpse, and enable it to stand on its feet." So let St. John's East, West, North and South have nothing to do with Richard Anderson Squires. Treat him as his native town has treated him, bury him and his associates under a shower of votes, even as your forefathers buried Confederation half a century ago. Harbor Grace extends the hand of friendship to St. John's East and West in this battle for the preservation of our Native Land.

The people of this District can size a man up as well as you people in the Capital, although perhaps you have greater advantages. A case in point will suffice. A few days ago the Coaker-Squires candidates were at Upper Island Cove, a thriving town, with an independent and patriotic population, and Frank Archibald, one of the candidates, asked one of the men and sinew for his support, and, as usual, Frank put his foot in it.

"Why should I go back on skipper Ned Parsons, Mr. Archibald? He was always a man, as was all belonging to him, and always did his duty towards us and the Empire. Why, man, he has a daughter who has proved herself a better man than you. She was on the battlefield where the cannon roared and in the Hospitals attending to the wounded and dying, and where were you?" Frank disappeared and his friends looked mesmerized. Wasn't that a bolt in the eye, Mr. Editor? My advice is—Keep clear of Coakerism, Squireism, Guppyism and every other ism, and vote the straight ticket for your six Government members, whoever they are, as we will do for our stalwart Three, tried and true—Hon. A. W. Piccott, Edward Parsons and Josiah Gosse. I shall wire you result as soon as possible. I am,

Yours truly,
HARBOR GRACIAN.
Hr. Grace, Oct. 25, 1913.

Victory.

Call the men from every quarter, All and everyone you know, Shout the shout of Glorious Victory Here and everywhere you go. In the lane and in the valley, North and South from high and low. Come and listen to their speeches, Ah, H. V. F. are the men for me. Never heard to such advantage. Touch the Spring and let them be. Listen as they call the Voters, In their might we will depend. Sure their promise we can trust them, Ever they are the poor man's friends.

PINKIE.

"Down With the Churches."

IS THE COAKERITE POLICY.

(From Coaker's 'Advocate')
"What a responsibility the churches will have to shoulder at the Day of Judgment! In our humble opinion the churches will have to answer to the Creator for the conditions we have named, for had they performed their duty faithfully, and lived only and solely for the Glory of God, instead of for temporal advancement and financial gain, those conditions which to-day cause many wise men to shudder would not have existed. The churches won't denounce wrong nowadays, because they fear financial loss, and loss of lifelong friends, if they dare to do so."

"At one place the Church of England parson refused the F.P.U. the use of the Parish Hall, Crosbie and Co. had subscribed $10 each for an organ. Perhaps such generous donations had or had not something to do with the refusal of the Hall to the F.P.U. for the President's meeting. At another settlement recently visited by the President, a Methodist parson refused to loan a school building for a public meeting to be addressed by the President. Some of the parsons are a bit prejudiced against the F.P.U., because they fear it will cut down the profits of one or two 'grab-balls' in their congregation who are important because of the extra four or five dollars for they hand over to the parsons annually. Watch those deges, boys, and put up with no fooling. You must depend upon yourselves for your own advancement, and it is only when you command enough of this world's goods to be in a position to pay an extra five dollars towards the Minister's salary that you discover yourself to be under the special care of the parson. See that the parsons are treated fair and pay them your fees like men, but give them to understand that their place is to look after the affairs of the soul and their churches, and that their intrusion into your commercial and political affairs is not their's, but your business solely, and should be of no interest to them."

(From Coaker's 'Advocate')
"Would to God a little faith were with our clergymen to-day. They would not be upholding the Government and merchants like they are. Why, if you even speak about the F.P.U. they will fly in your face. Just fancy, those big bugs, they have the best to eat and the best to wear, they can enjoy the best education and send them to England to finish up, travel where they like, spend what money they like, and where does it come from. Why, all from the men that earn on an average $300 a year. It is not outrageous to have our blood drawn from us in this way to give thousands of lazy idlers a fat salary."

What "One Interested" Says.

MONTREAL, Oct. 22.

Dear Mr. Editor:—Although I have made my home in the land of the Maple Leaf, I still take a keen interest in dear old Newfoundland, and would as soon think of doing without our breakfast as without my St. John's "Evening Telegram." I notice in that paper's latest issues, the very name makes me tremble for my country, so I hasten to sound a note of warning before it is too late. Beware of any candidates who are trying to encourage something that would help to ruin most of the inhabitants of "Ye Ancient Colony." Believe me I know all about it, for I was in Halifax when Confederation took place, when the papers were signed whilst the people were asleep in their beds, and many woke to find themselves ruined. Business men who have favoured it found it impossible to keep open and property owners had to sell or rather give their homes away, being unable to meet the high taxes. You are paying high rents now, are you not?—well that is only a taste of what faces you if you ever have Confederation. Hoping you will vote for the men who really have your interests at heart, and leave the ones who would like to sell your country, entirely alone.

I am dear Mr. Editor,
Sincerely yours,
ONE INTERESTED.

Historical.

(H. F. SHORTIS.)

Just about a year from now there is to be a big celebration at Plymouth Rock, near Boston, in honor of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers from the well-remembered ship "Mayflower" with 102 passengers and crew.

Tradition states that John Alden (immortalized by Longfellow) was the first to land with beautiful Mary Chilton.

The actual day for the celebration is not yet fixed, but our Historical Society should have a representative to meet their descendants and the blue-blood aristocracy of the United States.

Who will this lucky man be, as the Newfoundland Delegate will take precedence over anyone as the Charter of our City of St. John's dates back to August 5th, 1663, when Sir Humphre Gilbert took possession of the Harbor of St. John's under most imposing circumstances in the presence of many nationalities? This is nearly fifty years previous to the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers in the New England states.

Sir Humphre passed laws and granted licenses. One law is as follows:—

"If any person should utter words sounding to the dishonor of Her Majesty (Queen Elizabeth) he should lose his ears and have his ship and goods confiscated."
