Dear Madam: It is with great regret that I write to you of the death of your laddie, Frank H. Ball. He passed away on the 21st of March at noon. He has suffered much, and I felt so sorry that you and all his dear ones were unable to be near him. He was constantly asking if the mail was in, and two letters came after he was unable to understand what was in them. One was put in among his belongings, and I addressed to the sender's address.

He was very patient always and liked to help himself as much as possible. He never gave us a bit of trouble in any way, poor laddie.

You will be comforted to know that the Wesleyan minister, Rev. F. E.

England was with him on the night before he died, and said his mind and soul were prepared for his change from this life to that which lies beyond.

He was buried to-day in the regimental cemetery, with military honours. The Canadian boys from the convalescent camp formed a firing party at the graveside. The Canadian boys in the hospital sent a beautiful floral emblem in the form of a maple leaf and the Imperial boys, and nursing staff of the ward sent a beautiful wreath of white flowers, violets, ivy and maple leaves. A Canadian sergeant in ward 14 had arranged to take photos of the flowers and burial, and we hope to send you copies of them.

One Canadian says that if he reaches Canada in safety, will come and see you and tell you all he can.

The letters, a well worn soft leather testament, and other belongings, have been handed in to the authorities and will hope to reach you in due course.

My heart goes with you in deep sympathy. My own dear brother of about the same age, was killed in France, and another is out there still.

May God comfort you and enable you to cast your burden on the Lord, for he careth for you.

Yours in sincere sympathy,

R. M. JACKSON,

Staff Nurse, ward 14

THIS NEW COUNTRY

This wilderness was our abode

Full forty years ago.

And if good meat we wished to eat,

We shot a buck or doe.

For fish we used the hook and line,

We pounded corn to make it fine.

On Johnny-cake our ladies dined,

In this new country.

With axes good we chopped our

wood.

For well we all knew how,

With hardy hands we cleaned our lands.

To fit them for the plough.

We sowed our fields with rye and wheat,

For strangers and ourselves to eat

From the maple tree we drew our sweet.

In this new country.

Our paths were through the winding

wood.

Where oft the savage trod,

They were not wide nor scarce a guide.

But all the ones we had.

Our houses were of logs of wood,

Rolled up in squares and corked

with mire,

If the bark was tight the roof was good.

In this new country.

We lived in social harmony,

We drank the pearly stream,

No doctor, preacher, lawyer there,

Was scarcely ever seen.

Our health, it needed no repair,

No pious man forgot his prayer,

And who could fee a lawyer there,

In this new country.

The Indian oft times made us fear

That there was danger nigh.

The shaggy bear was often there,

The pig was in the sty.

The rattlesnake our children dread,

And oft our fearful mothers said

Some beast of prey would take our babe.

In this new country.

Of deerskins we made moccasins
