

I Had Colic
Oswell's in the neck since I was 10 years old; now 52. I used to be very healthy and the swelling has entirely disappeared. It has been very troublesome. When I began I was feeling so discommoded with the colic and rheumatism I felt that I would soon be dead as alive. Whenever I caught cold I could not walk two blocks without fainting. Now I am free from it all and can truly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from him, Jimmie Kugler, now of Fremont, Mich., saying if my testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; if I had it was, and sent him a bottle. I have another letter from him thanking me very much for recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Annual Conclave of the C. K. C.—A Canadian Fox Terrier Club Organized—Various Other Sporting Items.

BASEBALL.

THE CHAMPIONS WIN AS USUAL.

The champions of the east and the west met on Kensington Park yesterday afternoon and the best side won. In other words the Alerts, of this city, defeated the Cobourgs, a town of about 4,500 inhabitants, situated in the county of Northumberland on the north shore of Lake Ontario. The Cobourgs have emerged from the quiet security of their lakeside home into the western baseball arena. So far fortune has not smiled on them, but as they play splendid ball they should have no difficulty today in doing up the Tilsonburg Blues—provided, of course that Umpire Harris isn't on deck.

Yesterday's score—6 to 4—indicates a pretty good game of ball. And so it was. The visitors had played less like a lot of schoolboys during the first four innings the result might have been in doubt and the match more exciting to the spectators. But they braced up wonderfully after that, and their battery and field work in the last five innings was almost faultless. Except in the seventh, they could do nothing with Sam Collins, who struck out twelve men. Andrus, the professional, twice succeeded in the clever young pitcher's curves, and failing throughout to hit safely. The Cobourgs made two runs in the third inning. Gansby made a hit and scored on two passed balls and a wild pitch. Collins being unable to control the ball, which was being previously knocked into the river. Andrus took first on four balls—the only time he ever got there—but a fielder's choice on Pierce's grounder put him out on second. Pierce came home on an error by Player. In the fourth Andrus was thrown out at the plate and Andrus struck out when two men were on bases. They managed to get in two more in the seventh after there had been a chance to retire the side. An error by Hynd allowed C. Mulhall to reach first where Collins was out. Then came three hits in succession from Brown, Humphries and McCracken, sending Brown and Mulhall to the plate. In the remaining two innings five of the six men at bat were struck out.

The Alerts returned to business right from the beginning. A base on balls, hits by Hynd and Arthur, several stolen bases and a couple of errors gave them two runs in the first. More hits, errors, left balls and stolen bases doubled the score in the second. The Alerts then won the third through fielding, and in the fourth Arthur tallied on pretty singles by himself, Johnson and Ball. This ended the run getting. In the following five innings Mulhall was only once hit safely, and the visitor's infield played splendidly. Features of the game were Andrus' fine work at short, Collins' great pitching, Hiscott's fly-catches in center and Arthur's betting. Humphries, who belongs to the Toronto Blues, hit well. The umpire was Steve Dunn of this city, and McGuire, of Cobourg. Both gave satisfaction. Although the weather was raw and chilly the attendance was good. The band of the Josie Mills Company marched to the grounds, and their services were much appreciated by the home club. Score:

In the first heat Lobasco acted badly, but in the second he settled down and tied his record of 2:11. In the third the time was reduced to 2:10.3, and the 10,000 people were wild.

McHenry was carried around on the shoulders of a crowd and presented with a floral offering. Lobasco gives him the stallion record for one, two and three heats for stallions.

To-morrow Nancy Hanks will be driven by Doble against her 2:05 record.

SEDDEN RISE IN VALUE.
Troublesome, the young black cocker bitch shown by George Bell at the Toronto Industrial Exhibition is just 11 months old. On Tuesday afternoon she won first prize in the open bitch class, and when Mr. Mason was through with the class he remarked that it was the finest lot of cocker bitches ever brought together at a show.

Mr. Bell picked her up on Young street a little over a month ago. She was then owned by Mr. L. Farwell, of Farwell & Glendon. The owner of the A. and M. Kennels soon struck a bargain and bought the puppy for $25. Today she is worth $1,000.

SENSATION AT ST. JOHN, N. B.
Arrival of the Captured Yankee Schooner Hattie Maud.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 14.—There was considerable talk about this morning when it was learned that the fishery cruiser Curlew had brought into port the fishing schooner Hattie Maud, of Portland, Me. It appears that last year the schooner violated one of the clauses of the treaty of 1818 by shipping codfish to Shelburne, N. S. The schooner has been in custody since the 4th of September, when she was captured at Flagg Cove, Grand Manan, and the vessel has been waiting there for orders from Ottawa ever since. The orders arrived at that place yesterday, and in consequence she was brought to St. John.

HELD FOR MURDER.
Result of the Inquest in the Cornwall Shooting Case.

Slavin, alias McMahon, on the 6th day of September, 1892, at the town of Cornwall, did feloniously, wilfully and of his malice aforethought, kill and murder J. R. Davey. The prisoner on hearing the verdict said he had nothing to say at present. McMahon is a fine-looking young man 23 years of age, dark mustache, broad shoulders and six feet high. He left Cornwall some five years ago, going out to British Columbia and California, where he soon got into ways of the wild west, ending in the result already mentioned.

THE TORONTO SHOW.

TORONTO, Sept. 14.—Yesterday was Germanic and Patrons of Industry Day at the Exhibition. The attendance in the morning was large, and it looked as if a great crowd would be present; but at 1 o'clock the rain descended in torrents and continued the rest of the afternoon and evening. As a consequence all the open-air performances had to be abandoned. The receipts at the gates yesterday were $4,755—a decrease of $2,102.

Today is Farmers' Day, and is under the patronage of the Farmers' Institute of the province. The weather is beautiful, and an immense crowd of visitors are here.

SPONDER'S COPPERINE, ETC.
Alonso W. Sponder, with his copperine, so favorably known by all machinery owners, tonight occupies the same old space, west end of machinery hall. He also exhibits his Phenyle Disinfectant and Germ Killer. Manufactured under Bannerman's patent and holding strong testimonials from Prof. Ellis, it must be all that is claimed for it. It stands away ahead of other things of this kind. There is no doubt about it. It will prevent and cure contagious diseases that medicine cannot cure, and it is invaluable to people living in the city. It will cure pink-eye, run in the nose, and will keep horses healthy. Fifteen tons sold in Chicago last month, mostly to boards of health and owners of horses. Gaudin's Patent Labeler is a dandy; it puts on easily from 200 to 300 labels on three-cent paper in ten minutes. It is working every day, and the owner of this exhibit is there to see his numerous friends and to take orders for any of the above articles.

The committee views the results in Maine and Vermont as indicating that the people of the country are prepared to enforce rather than reverse the verdict which they rendered in 1890.

A Sensation Spoiled.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The State Department is still waiting for information concerning the state of affairs in Venezuela. Secretary of State Foster stated today that the dispatch of naval vessels to Venezuela was not in any way influenced by the boundary question between Venezuela and Great Britain, nor was it known that the State department that that question had recently assumed any new phase. The presence of United States naval vessels in those waters is not intended as a menace to any nation.

TIDINGS FROM TORONTO.
Accidental Death of a Popular Young Man—The Pan-Protestant Council.

TORONTO, Sept. 14.—Particulars of the death of Herbert J. Manichian, age 26, this morning, show that the shooting was without doubt accidental. A Boy Murderer's Confession.
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Young Harry Quill, of No. 8 Washington street, 15 years old, disappeared on the night of Feb. 10. His decomposing body was found at the bottom of an air shaft between the houses Nos. 53 and 55 Washington street, two months after he had been missed. It was thought at first he had met death by accident, but the police lately learned that George McKenzie, who is 18 years old, had indulged in some suspicious talk regarding Quill's death. They arrested him on Saturday, and now he has confessed that he pushed Quill down the shaft during a quarrel. After making his confession he complained to the officers that he was haunted by Quill's ghost, and was anxious not to be left alone in his cell.
