A Youthful Vagrant.
A young lad giving his name as John Hammond and his age as 11 years was the only prisoner at the police court this morning. He was very poorly clad and said that his object in coming to London was to gain admittance into some of the charitable homes. A man named John Cameron, living at Thorndale, had advised him to come here and the lad boarded the train.
Shortly after arrival he was handed over to the police as a vagrant. The magistrate remanded him for a week.

and then to con. 4, London township.
Here he found the animals in a barn belonging to a farmer named Davin-son. The constable brought the horses to Smith vs. Smith.—Judgment on petition by the Toronto General Trusts Company, for construction of the judgment in this action and a declaration as to the person or persons entitled to the moneys now in the petitioners' hands pursuant to judgment, the plaintiff and defendant were heard at the bar; the action concerned certain moneys belonging to the estate of their deceased mother. The plaintiff is now dead, leaving a widow, and the contest is between the widow and the defend-ent. The learned chief justice holds that the balance in the hands of the petitioners became payable to the defendant on the death of her brother. Order accordingly.

Petitioners to have their costs out of the estate. No costs to the other parties. E.
R. Cameron (London) for the petitioners.
Middleton for the defendant. Hoyle, Q.
C., for the widow.

Hill vs. Miller.—Judgment on motion by the defendant T. L. Rogers to set aside an order adding him as a party to the action made by Galt, C. J., on an appeal had ex parte from a decision of the master. Pergerson, J. is of opinion that whether the applicant relies on a contention that he was entitled to security on the lands in question before the commencement of the action, or claims title as purchaser pendente lite as holder of certain warehouse receipts, he is in either case properly a party and was properly added in the master's office.
Motion accordingly dismissed with costs, including costs of the day of Oct. 18, then reserved, and costs of a motion was made and necessary made perpetual. N. W.
Rogell for the plaintiff. E. R. Cameron (London) for the defendant Rogers.

the latter, at which E. T. Esary presided, and speeches were made by R. A. Smith, Charles Perrin and Joseph Murray. Loyal Orange Lodges Nos. 705, 208 and 380 also sent representatives. The ladies of Lady Victoria Lodge, No. 2, and Lady Stanley, No. 4, Hackett Band marched from the lodge rooms to the City Hall prior to the supper. The committee was composed of Bros. Murray, Perrin, Clark and C. Fletcher. Bro. Thom.
McMullen was leader of the orchestra, which provided good music for a lengthy programme of dances. The proceeds were in aid of the benevolent fund of Hackett Lodge.

The Flower Show.
The pupils of the Ashkenazi street school prizes were given to the successful exhibitors.

Some of the classes of the winners were as follows: Chrysanthemums, Miss Wildern's room—1, H. Hunt; 2, Harry Fawcett; 3, Percy Stinson. Miss McArthur's room—1, bell. Many of the friends and parents of the pupils patronized the flower show, and expressed much pleasure at what they saw.

WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT.
Paris talks of holding a poultry show about Christmas.

Hundreds of barrels of apples are being shipped from Paris station almost every day, also carloads of turnips.

Paris now indulges in the luxury of street letter boxes and one of the town papers hints for a free delivery.

Fire broke out in the farm house belonging to Wm. Lapierre, South Dundries, the other evening, but was extinguished before it did any great damage. One hundred dollars will cover the loss.

Burford people are beginning to talk council matters and discuss the position of the different candidates. It is announced that P. Kelly, the present reeve, will offer himself for re-election. A. McIrvine, present first deputy reeve, an old faithful servant of the township, intends to retire and Mr.
Van Horne will run for first deputy reeve.
E. McIrvine for second deputy reeve and Adam Crozier for councillor. This leaves one vacancy to fill. The names of W. D.
Barnett, Samuel Parkhill and James Sitt are mentioned as candidates.

BRUCE.
Lucknowites are talking of a new skating rink.

Thos. Anderson, Duncannon, who was pored by a bull at the fall show at Lucknow, is still in a critical condition at the residence of James Lindsay, Lucknow.
Two of his ribs were broken, and it is feared he also seriously injured internally, and from the effects of which inflammation may set in.

Diphtheria is still raging in Kincardine, there being about 50 or 60 cases at present.
The schools have been closed, and everything possible is being done to stamp out the disease.

The other evening a large straw stack on the farm of James Carlton, lot 20, third range south of the Dundas road, Kinross, blazed over and buried five cows beneath its weight. Two of the animals were dead when found and a third one was badly injured.

While out shooting recently Geo. Ewart, Walkerton, killed a snake five feet in length.

ELGIN.
Government Inspector Dr. May visited Sparta Mechanics' Institute recently and found everything in splendid working order. He will send the Government grant of $104 in a few days, which will at once be invested in a new stock of books.

The schooner H. P. Murray (Capt. Mark Berry) received such injuries from pounding on the beach, while loading wood at Pompey Hollow, that it became necessary to discharge her cargo of 75 cords of wood, which John Price, Port Stanley, has purchased.

The nets on the Port Stanley shore are badly torn, while east of there several have been lost.

Dr. Evelyn V.S., inspected a number of herds of cattle in North Yarmouth on Thursday, and found no traces of pleuro-pneumonia. Friday he was working in Southwest. It is said that a cow shipped by Mr.
Cusack three months ago was found to be suffering from pleuro-pneumonia on arriving in Great Britain. It is thought there

ESSEX.

Robert W. Elliott's store in Essex was entered by burglars Thursday morning and $150 worth of goods taken.

Windsor's inland revenue collections for October amount to $41,990.80.

A Windsor dispatch says: Two months ago John Smalley, of Staples, was arrested charged with breach of promise. The complaint was made by Mrs. Bushby, but it seems that John has, since his incarceration, repented and expressed his willingness to do what is right. Thursday Mrs. Bushby called at the jail with Rev. Mr. Hind and wanted to have the knot tied. Sheriff Hill said that he would be willing to do most anything to be accommodating, but there were costs amounting to $15 that had to be paid.
This Mrs. Bushby did not have and she is now working at the Stuart House until she can get the necessary amount.

As No. 3 Grand Trunk Railway express was passing through Walkerville Thursday a passenger named Eaton, from Belleville, who was standing on the platform, fell off.
He was picked up in an inauspicious condition and taken to the Hotel Eden. Eaton was badly bruised, but no bones were broken.

Willis Chipman, Toronto, the sanitary engineer who has been engaged by Windsor's water commissioners to prepare a scheme for the purification of the Windsor water supply, is in that city getting some more information. He says his report will not be ready for a week yet. He had a meeting with the water commissioners Thursday night.

HURON.

Judge Toms, of Goderich, has been granted a leave of absence for four months on account of ill health.

A sad accident occurred to a son, aged 5 years, of Donald Patterson, living two miles north of Auburn. It appears he was walking along a beam in the barn, which was covered with straw, and which slid off, causing him to fall a distance of 20 feet on the bare floor, breaking both arms above the wrists and bruising himself generally.

KENT.

Chatham will have a public night school.
Engineer Slagg, of the Chatham waterworks, who was so severely burned at the Raleigh station the other night, is slowly recovering.

MIDDLESEX.

What might have proved a serious accident befell two young ladies of Granton while out driving recently. The cart in which they were riding gave way in the bottom, letting the occupants down to the ground. The horse ran about a mile, making a wreck of the cart.

Mrs. Middlemiss, widow of the late Mr.
Middlemiss, after whom the village of Middlemiss is named, died in Ridgeway the other day. She had recently resided in Brantford, and six weeks ago went on a visit to relatives in Ridgeway, where she contracted her fatal illness. She was about 60 years of age and leaves a grown-up family.

The many friends of Mr. Wm. Bryant, editor of the Lucan Record, will hear with regret of his continued serious illness.

Rev. John Currie was given a pleasant reception by the Presbyterians of Belmont the other evening. After partaking of supper all adjourned to the auditorium, where Rev. E. H. Savers took the chair and presided over the meeting in a most satisfactory manner. The choir rendered a number of popular selections, which were well received. Rev. Messrs. Mc-Intyre and McDonald, of St. Thomas; Sutherland, of Fingal; Racey, Muxworthy and Currie, of Belmont, and Brown, of Agincourt, all delivered splendid addresses, which proved very entertaining to the audience. The edifice was filled.
