It would be contrary to all trade expectations and wholly unexplainable if these Ladies' Jacket offerings did not invoke enormous responses even during the dullest season of the year. But this is Christmas time and very many are looking for superior presents. The inducements we have decided to offer are so entirely unexpected, and so exceptionally praiseworthy in point of quality and littleness of prices, that every previous record for large sales should be amazingly exceeded during the next two weeks. The quotations below hint at what you may expect. The best plan is to come as soon as you can. Others will,

The report of the finance committee showed the accounts paid and to be paid, and recommended that the tender of the Southam Printing Company for regular synod printing be accepted. Adopted.

The missions committee reported the assessments made by the local missions committee in the several deaneries. This occupied some time, and due notice will be given to the several parishes of the amounts they are expected to raise for the year commencing May, 1301, and they will have the right of appeal at the March meeting. Special grants to Indian missions and interpreters were continued. Matters referring to Becher were referred to the bishop, and his lordship was requested to appoint a commission to visit Hepworth with a view to reorganization, and to report.

Rural Dean Robinson presented a request for leave to build a new church at Cargill, and to sell the old one in West Brant, a very generous offer to bear half the expense having been received. Granted Matters referring to Kettle Point Church were referred to the bishop and Rev. J. Downie. Rev. W. Lowe asked concerning the church at Teeswater. After some discussion the matter dropped. Mr. Macklin reported progress for the committee on admission of women to vestries, and asked to be continued. Granted.

Judge Ermatinger reported progress in the matter of select vestries.

At the evening session, the report in regard to select vestries was further discussed, and the committee authorized to apply to parliament for a permissive act to enable the synod to legislate in that direction if so disposed.

Matters reating to the Rev. Mr. Scott were considered, and after discussion it was resolved that on the certificate of Mr. Moorhouse that the applicant had submitted or was unable to submit to treatment, the amount voted him at last meeting be paid.

The reorganization of the parish of Attwood was confirmed.

Rev. C. L. Mills reported concerning the traveling mission of Flesherton Station and parts adjacent. The matter was laid over for the present.

The vestry of Waterloo asked to be formed into an independent parish. The bishop was requested to appoint a commissioner to visit and report. Application was received from Pelee on Dec. 28, 1815, and was about 3 years old when his parents came to Canada and settled in the township of London, where he continued to reside until removed by death. He was educated at the London Grammar School, and for several years taught school and filled other important positions, but it was in the church where Mr. Howard's talents were most conspicuous. He was converted at the age of 18 years, but during the revival meetings conducted in London, by the Rev. Jas. Caughey, under Rev. Henry Wilkinson, he realized a deeper work of grace in his heart, and subsequently he was brought into the fuller experience of perfect love, which he enjoyed until God said, "It is enough; come up higher." As a lifelong member of the Methodist Church, and possessing more than ordinary ability and intelligence, coupled with zeal and energy, he filled one time and another the important posi-tions of trustee, steward, class leader, and for more than forty years was a most acceptable local preacher, whom the people were glad to hear. loved the church, diligently worked for it, constantly prayed for it, delighted in its prosperity, and 'attended its means of grace, until age and infirmity prevented him from occupying his accustomed place in it. On Sunday morning, Nov. 25. Mr. Howard arose, apparently as well as usual, prayed for the church for his pastor, for his family, and after slight exertion in clearing away a little snow from the door, which brought on heart failure, he was

In 1844 Mr. Howard was married to Miss Abigail Clark, who through more than half a century has been a true helpmeet, an earnest Christian and a respected neighbor. She, with nine children, four sons and five laughters, survive to mourn their great loss, but not without hope of a glorious resurrection. The funeral was largely attended, and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Cooper, assisted by Rev. H. J. Fair and Rev. Canon Richardson (Anglucan), and the interment was made in the Siloam cemetery, where the body lies awaiting the He general resurrection of the just.

CANADIAN BARRED ROCKS First Annual Meeting of Canada's First

Poultry Specialty Club-The Officers.

Guelph, Dec. 12 .- The first annual meeting of the Canadian Barred Plymouth Rock Club was held in the city council chamber here this afternoon. There was a large attendance of those interested in the breeding of this premier variety of domestic fowls, and the proceedings throughout were marked by much enthusiasm. Mr. George W. Miller, of London, the secretary pro tem., called the meeting to order, and stated the object of the club's promoters was to further interest and instruct the farmers of the country in mating, breeding and raising Barred Plymouth Rocks, and in other ways developing the practical qualities of this popular and noble breed.

The steps towards organization which had aiready been taken were ap-proved of, and the election of officers resulted as follows: President-J. E. Bennett, Toronto. Vice-Presidents-Wm. McLoud, London; J. W. Porteous, Galt, and W. F. Garland, Hortonburg. Secretary-Treasurer-George W. Mil-
