LOCAL MARKET. London, Saturday, Sept. 30. The attendance at the market today was hardly as large as rast Saturday. However, there was a good-sized crowd of farmers and hucksters present, and there was very little space on the square that was not occupied by the farmers' wagons with produce. Sales were a trifle on the slow side and prices were inclined to be easier. Grain-Oats was in good demand. Prices, however, were easier at 88c to 92c per cwt, mostly at 90c and 92c per cwt. Wheat sold at 75c per bushel. Parley sold at 85c to 90c per cwt. Butter and Eggs-There was quite a large supply of butter marketed; sales brisk at 20c to 22c crocks, and 22c to 23c for pound rolls by the basket lot. Eggs seemed plentiful, the demand good, and prices were just a trifle firmer at 18c to 19c per dozen, wholesale, and 20c to 22c retail, Vegetables-Potatoes were well repre
