Far and NearTHE MEDICOS GO DOWN TO DEFEAT
AT UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC GAMESMaurice Folinsee, Arts, Takes Individual Championship
By Wide Margin.

For the first time within the memory of one of the oldest professors at Western University the Arts have defeated the Medics in both the individual and collective athletic championships of this institution.

It all happened at Queen's Park yesterday afternoon at the annual field games of the university, and last night the Arts and Divinity students owned the north end of the town.

Hero of the Day.

As cut up over their disgrace that they do not show their faces outside their rooms last evening.

In the meantime the hero of the day as young Maurice Folinsee, brother of that famous university athlete, Jack Folinsee, who has cleaned up two years in succession. This year Jack, feeling that brother Maurice could turn the trick and land the coveted title of university champion, laid low the whole works among the students, and as a result the youngster is now the champion of the university.

His improvement in form over last year is remarkable. He gives every year of getting better every year for several years.

N. George, a medical student, gave Folinsee the closest run for the money of any of the bunch, but he was shy some nine points when the last tape had been reached, and the points totaled up.

A more unfavorable day could not have been selected in the entire fall season than yesterday afternoon for athletic sports. The wind blew down the home stretch of the big track at Queen's Park in hurricane fashion and carried with it a taste of the bitter cold which will soon be here for the winter.

Everybody Enthusiastic.

Spectators, judges and athletes alike shivered in unison, but the enthusiasm ran high, nevertheless.

The great stand was perhaps half filled with spectators, chiefly students and their families, and everybody rooted for something or somebody.

If there is any body of rooters that can out-root a body of good healthy, buoyant college lads, they have yet to be uncovered.

It was quite evident from the way they went at things that the Arts and Divinity students thrive on Arctic weather, for they never performed better in their entire college career.

Young Folinsee pranced around like a young colt ready for action, while McDonald, Legg, Hawkins, Ashby, Riley, Alexander, Charles and Henderson were expressions which seemed to say, "Show me a Med!"

And they got away with almost everything in sight, taking two places in every event but two, and the open races, on the card.

Folinsee alone scored five firsts, a second and two thirds, while the rest of the boys did their share in the good work of bringing the Medics down to the proper state of humility.

There were eleven events on the card exclusive of three open races, and of these the Arts scored seven victories, leaving the Meds four firsts to ponder over.

The Open Events.

In the open events the Y. M. C. A. boys were supreme, although Roy Campbell, a member of the Ramblers Club, was there or thereabouts in the half-mile open.

Billy Brock, a brother of the speedy Mel Brock, set a hard pace at the pistol in the hope of killing Campbell's chances of taking first place. Campbell finished second, with Mel Brock first, and little Bill in the rear.

The quarter-mile furnished the surprise of the day, inasmuch as the famous Jack Sweeney was defeated by Mel Brock in a whirlwind finish at the tape. Jack looked to have the contest clinched right up to within five yards of the wire. Brock was trailing along, perhaps three yards in the rear, and looked to have no chance for first place. Suddenly he let out, and although a tie would not have been a bad decision, passed Sweeney by a few inches. Sweeney laughed over the result afterwards himself.

Had he put on an ounce of extra steam he would have won. Jack is a better 100-yard man than a 440 speeder.

Allen, another Y. M. C. A. runner, took third place.

An open mile relay race for teams of four was also slated to take place but as no team lined up against the "Y" team they were given the contest by default.

A word of praise must be accorded the referees who handled the games. Never in the history of local sports has there been an athletic meet which was handled in better fashion than that of yesterday. There was no confusion, no confusion in scoring, which was centralized, and just decisions were given all around in deciding winners where the events were closely contested.

WATCH THE FOOTBALL BULLETIN

Last week's bulletins of the football results from all parts of Canada proved so popular and such a great drawing card that The Advertiser has decided to continue the service all season.

This afternoon the half-time and full-time scores of every rugby game worthy of note in the Dominion of Canada will be posted as soon as the returns are received over the wires.

The advertiser's sporting writer will accompany the local intermediate team to Toronto Saturday morning, and a complete account of the contest, with the Argonauts II. will be found on this page Monday. A victory is looked for on the part of the local team, and if they win it will be their first intermediate victory in several years, although the boys have taken a number of exhibition games.

Watch the bulletin, and read Monday evening's Advertiser for a running account of the game. Every play will be described.

Griffith on Kelly's Trail

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Mike Kelley, manager of the Des Moines Western League Club, who has been the football of organized baseball for several years, is wanted by Manager Griffith, of the New York American League Club, as manager for the Montreal team of the Eastern League, in which the New York club-owners hold a controlling interest.

The Highlander boss was in Chicago yesterday, stopping off on his way to his Montana ranch, where he spends the greater part of the off seasons taking a census of his increasing supply of beefsteaks on the hoof.

Griffith endeavored to reach the Cantillon brothers, who own the Des Moines Club, and have first claim on Kelley's services. But the absence of Joe Cantillon on a hunting trip in the wilds of Arkansas and of Mike Cantillon in Minneapolis over a football game at the Miller's Ball prevented the New Yorkers getting any definite information regarding the chances of securing Kelley for the Highlanders' Canadian farm.

Murphy Speaks at Banquet.

President Murphy, of the Cubs, was a guest and speaker last night at the banquet given by the St. Martin Club of the Episcopal Athletic League to the other clubs in the league at the parish house of St. Martin's Church in Austin.

Judge Cutting, one of the leading speakers at the recent world's championship banquet, was another of the St. Martin Club's guests and speakers. The St. Martin team won the championship of its baseball league this season.

Manager Chance was the recipient of postal greetings from the Cub hunting party which left for Wisconsin on Monday and which the Cub manager intended to accompany. The last of the invading baseball parties is made up of Jimmy Sheppard, Joe Tinker, Howard, Treasurer C. G. Williams, Beecher Starbird, and his brother. Their chief quest at this time is fishing grounds, but "Del" intends later on to go farther north after moose.

Manager Chance has changed his plans for the winter, and instead of spending it in Chicago will leave for California next week. The poor health which he experienced during the last half of the championship season was the chief reason for his change of plan.

Some of the high-priced ones do fade awfully in value after they have been tried and found wanting.

Years ago there was a great boom in the colts of a bad tempered California stallion called Sultan. His daughter, Sweetheart, beat 2:30 as a 2-year-old when a performance of that sort by a trotter of her age was unheard of, and then his son, Stamboul, came out and was a wonder for speed. The Sultans sold for big money at the eastern auctions and elsewhere, and then the Stambouls had an inning. The stallion himself brought $41,000 at auction. One of his sons, Mascot, was thought to be the best of the family. He was sent from California to New York City to let the public bid on him, and Marcus Daly followed in a private car, battled successfully with the millionaires of the east, and paid $27,500 for the colt. Three or four years later Mascot again was sold at auction, and that time he brought $700.—Henry Ten Eyck White.

There is no stop to him if he thinks a horse will win. He makes his own wagers, and when he is through betting on a horse the odds are reduced several points. The only handicap Johnson is under is that, like all the big players, he has a fondness for first choices. A $5,000 bet on an even-money or odds-on favorite is very ordinary, and if they do not run to their price it does not take very long before Johnson is broke.

There is no man within the past five years that has been broke as often as Johnson, but he never fails to turn up with a fresh bankroll. The sickness of his great sprinter Roseben was a severe blow, as Davy always figured on the Ben Strome gelding to recoup his roll when the Fortune refused to smile upon him.
