UMPIRE STAFFORD IN TORONTO COURT

Let Off On Suspended Sentence For Pummeling Manager Dunn.

Toronto, Aug. 2.-Umpire Stafford was in the police court this morning charged with assaulting Manager Dunn during Saturday's game. Dunn admitted having dared Stafford to hit him, while Stafford said he did so because Dunn called him vile names. Magistrate Denison, who in 1907 sentenced Tim Flood to fourteen days in jail for assaulting Umpire Conway, intimated that he thought it served Dunn right and released Stafford on suspended sentence, at the same time giving Stafford an opportunity to lay a charge against the Baltimore manager for using vile language.
