

BROWNS BEAT TIGERS -- PIRATES ARE IDLE -- OTHER SPORTS

TIGERS BEATEN IN OVERTIME MATCH

Jennings' Boys Had Contest Apparently Landed When Edgar Willett Blew Up.

PERNOLL ENDED GAME

But Not Before St. Louis Had Evened Up and Passed the Detroit Crew.

[Special to The Advertiser.] St. Louis, April 25.—With a game supposedly in his mitt, his team having three runs to the good when St. Louis came in to bat in the ninth inning, Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue. The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

ST. LOUIS	BROWNS
Runs	6
Hits	12
Errors	4
Left on base	10
Stolen bases	2
Strikes out	10
Base on balls	4
Double plays	2
Time	1:45
Umpire	W. H. McCreary

DETROIT	TIGERS
Runs	2
Hits	8
Errors	1
Left on base	6
Stolen bases	1
Strikes out	12
Base on balls	3
Double plays	1
Time	1:30
Umpire	W. H. McCreary

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

KLING REPORTS TO CUBS

UNPAID FINE BARRIER

Chance Says Doors Are Closed Until Star Backstop Settles the $700 Penalty.

Chicago Record-Herald: Johnny Kling is back in the fold, literally, but not technically. The barriers were partially cast away in President Murphy's sanctum at the west side park yesterday afternoon, when "Nasty Jaw" appeared just as the weather man decreed a postponement of the Cubs-Pirates opener until May 6, when it is hoped there will be a dearth of snow flurries and pneumonia blasts.

Viewed in the old, familiar light, Kling has really and truly reported. He has fulfilled his promise to confer with the club's management and the little post-funeral ceremony has been executed one day in advance of the time limit looked for by the club's management.

According to Manager Chance, the Kling case won't be settled until Johnny's fine, $700, is settled away by a strong box at National Commission headquarters.

"Kling has not reported to the Chicago National League club," said Chance last night, "and he won't be given a uniform or the privilege of practicing with the players of our team until that fine is settled. Until this matter is adjusted, the day the commission imposed the penalty. Meanwhile, the Cubs management has no business even talking with Kling, according to the rules governing organized baseball."

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

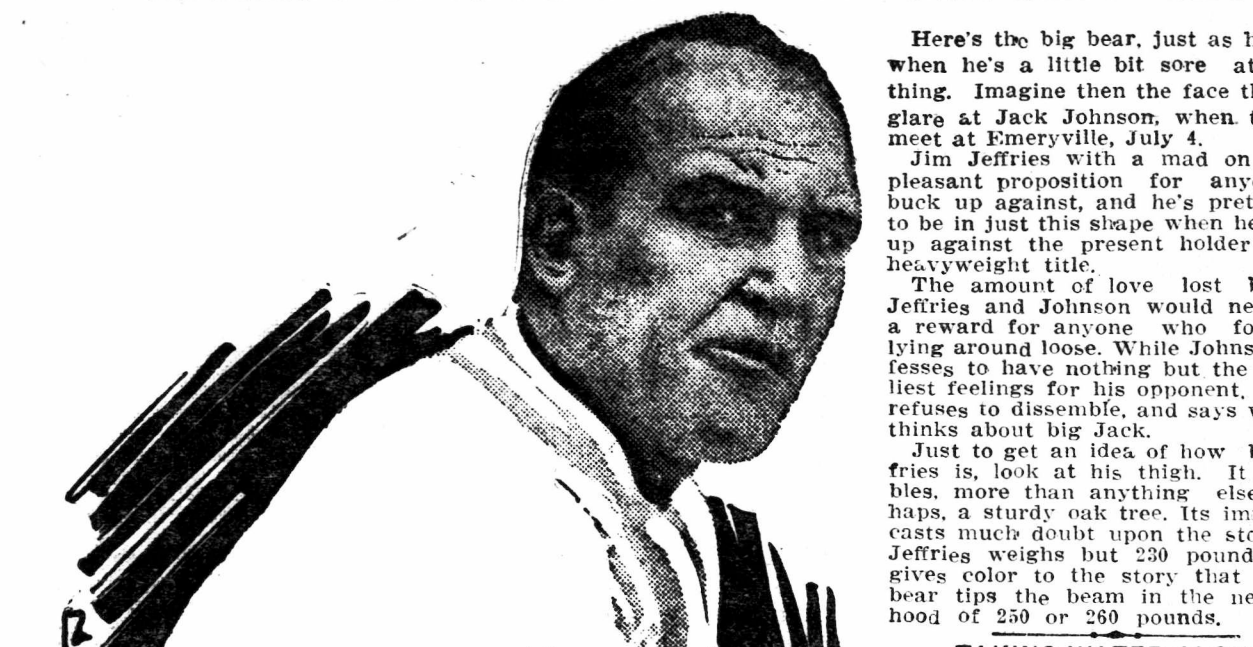

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

LATEST PHOTOGRAPH OF JIM JEFFRIES

Here's the big bear, just as he looks when he's a little bit sore at something. Imagine then the face that will glare at Jack Johnson, when the two meet at Emeryville, July 4.

Jim Jeffries with a mad on isn't a pleasant proposition for anyone to buck up against, and he's pretty sure to be in just this shape when he stacks up against the present holder of the heavyweight title.

The amount of love lost between Jeffries and Johnson would never get a reward for anyone who found it lying around loose. While Johnson professes to have nothing but the friendliest feelings for his opponent, Jeffries refuses to dissemble, and says what he thinks about big Jack.

Just to get an idea of how big Jeffries is, look at his thigh. It resembles, more than anything else, perhaps, a sturdy oak tree. Its immensely casts much doubt upon the story that Jeffries weighs but 230 pounds, and gives color to the story that the big bear tips the beam in the neighborhood of 250 or 260 pounds.

TAKING WATER ALONG. [Associated Press.] Chicago, Ill., April 26.—Ten cases of drinking water have been shipped to Jack Johnson's California training camp. Upon his arrival at the coast the champion will hire a chef to prepare his meals, and the utmost precaution will be taken to see that the food is in proper shape when it is served. Promoter Jack Gleason has left for San Francisco after practically closing deals with railroad officials to handle admission tickets to the fight with the railroad passage.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

The principal reason for making this a day of rest for Jeffries is a bill in the middle of the back, which has been bothering him for a couple of days. His trainers say that the bill is the result of a fall from a horse, and the rest may be extended a day or two longer to keep Jeffries from being bothered by the bill.

Jeffries has a bill.

GREAT FIELDING AT POLO GROUNDS

New York Pulls Off Triple Play in Giving Brooklyn Club a Beating.

FOUR DOUBLES WORKED

Rucker Found For Six Hits and Three Runs in Last Two Innings.

New York, April 25.—In a game marked by exceptionally brilliant fielding, the New York Nationals today defeated Brooklyn 3 to 1.

In the sixth inning Redwell started a triple play by throwing Doyle for a grounder on Wheat. Doyle's throw to Merkle caught Hamilton at first and Rucker, who had over-run third, was nipped at the plate. There also were four double plays in the game. Rucker was found for six hits and three runs in the last two innings. Brooklyn's tally was due to a base on balls and Rucker's triple. Score:

NEW YORK	BROOKLYN
Runs	3
Hits	10
Errors	1
Left on base	8
Stolen bases	1
Strikes out	10
Base on balls	4
Double plays	4
Time	1:45
Umpire	W. H. McCreary

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his saddest disappointment of the springtime this afternoon.

The Tigers had cut down a lead that St. Louis took in the second, establishing a lead margin for themselves, and Willett, their pitcher, had held the home team to errors from that second inning on.

But in the ninth Willett started with a pass, and the succeeding swatters fell on him so seriously that Jennings was obliged to lift him, and to send his recruit left-hander, Pernoll, to the rescue.

The latter saved it temporarily, St. Louis getting only the three runs that tied, but in the twelfth the Browns made the needed tally and won out by a score of 6 to 2.

Edgar Willett, manager of the Tigers, was handed his