American farmers in what he produces—certainly. But the protection is kept on the manufactures which the Canadian farmer must buy. Of course, there was the sop to the farmer of a two per cent or so deduction in the duty on agricultural implements, a reduction which will not in the least affect the price of the manufactures, since the makers will add the two per cent duty reduction to the cost of the article and collect if from the purchaset.

A DISCREDITED PROPHET

The Montreal Witness has exhumo is this soleranty portentous utterance

This is no child's play, this tar iff question. It underlies the very prosperity and happiness of the working classes, who comprise the verk tourds. To the mechanic, the agriculturist, the laborer, nagin comes the bugin note of warning. Its and decived; the success of Laurier and his associates means the commencement of an era of discontent, of uncertainty, of suspicion, an era when people of capital will not put an other dollar into any manufactoring concern I will mangurate a period when the banks will refuse to add the manufacturer with advances to proceed with his undertakings. Let the working classes stay and reflect before it is too lite what Laurier's success would do for us. It would further away capital, dispirit all enterprise, shake the very foundations of commercial credit! But the fossil Liberal will unote Mr. Laurier, who told us 'we will not deall this at once, we will do it gradually' In other words, the country is not to be killed outright, but bed to death slowly by first opening only a few velus. Nevertheless the final ending will be the same whether the death-blow is a knock down staggering one, or one limited to political scientific phelebotomy?

PEANUT TRUST WERE IN POLICE COURT

Must Keep Their Carts Moving -Much Talk for the P. M.

Deputy Magistrate Graydon had a new experience at the police court this morn-ng, when upon opening court he found ing, when upon opening court he found the whole beard of directors of the London Peanut Trust lined up before him. The magnates, present were President George Lampotus, vice-President James Lampotus, and Treasurer Thomas Vasaes and Secretary Gus Vegas.

Mr. Vegas is the gentieman who has the inimitable way of saving "Hot peanuts" at the corner of Park avenue and Dundas street.

The only one who knew any English except "five cents" and "peanuts" was Treasurer Vasaes, and he undertook with much waving of his hands and variation of accent to explain to the court how it happened that the trust found itself in court all at once.

"En? Excuse me, but what was that? Say it again. How?" was all that the court could say as Mr. Vasaes was telling his story.

DISARM ALL FOREIGNERS

Montreal Starts Campaign Against All Carrying Weapons. [Canadian Press.]

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, March 24.—Chief of Police Campeau and Chief of Provincial Detectives McCaskill will hold a consultation today or tomorrow to formulate plans for rounding up and disarming all suspicious characters among the Italian and other foreign residents of the city. The city police have not the power to do so, and the two heads of the force will probably apply to the Attorney-General of the province for the necessary authorization, explaining the necessity therefor. It is planned to wage a relentless campaign through the courts against all found with deadly weapons in their possession, if the power is granted by the Attorney-General.
