THE SPORTING WORLD

Kenney's Blue Grass has been scratched for the Newmarket meeting. The annual convention of the New York Game and Fish Protection association will meet at Niagara Falls on Oct. 1. Johnston's challenge to run any American sprinter has brought out a reply from Boyd, the Canadian short distance runner, and a match imminent. Elva Van Blumert will appear upon her bicycle at the Western New York fair in a race against a horse. The Geneva bicycle club will give an exhibition race. A Boston dispatch states that Sullivan will not accept Mace's challenge, giving a very flimsy excuse. This will be a great disappointment to many friends of both men who have long been anxious of seeing the two men come together.

A dispatch received from New York Saturday evening, says: An international wrestling match for the championship of $500 and a trophy has been arranged to take place at Rochester next month. The contestants will be M. Duffer, Duncan C. Ross and George W. Flagg. Paddy Ryan left Chicago yesterday for an exhibition tour in the far west. At San Francisco he will meet a match with Professor Miller of Australia, who has sailed from Melbourne, Richard K. Fox having sent him for a glove fight with Sullivan. Upon his return Ryan will meet Sullivan in December.

Among the entries for the professional single scull race, to be rowed on the Allegheny river this week are Charles E. Courtney, Wallace Ross, John Teemer, William Elliott, George H. Homer, James H. Riley, John McKay, Albert Hammond and J. A. Tom Eyle. A few days ago Charles Monroe and Jack Loftis fought a prize fight near St. Augustine for the feather-weight championship of Florida and $500. Monroe weighed 110½ pounds and Loftis a pound heavier. Five rounds were fought in eighteen minutes, when Monroe knocked Loftis out of time. Both pugilists were badly bruised and cut, but Loftis received the lion's share.

In one of the Chicago daily of last Sunday Sloaner very properly observes that Sexton should have nothing to do with interfering with a match between Schaefer and the Irish and that he (Sloaner) will give Sexton $75 in 1900 and a receipt for $200 in 1901 at either the ballgame or the championship game, all three games to be played in the city where Sloaner and Sexton reside, and be for $1000 a side piece. The offer of Wallace Ross to give odds of $1000 to $1000 as an inducement to Charles E. Courtney to make the match which the latter and his backers were professing to be anxious to make on the day of the Watkins regatta, has not yet met with a response, the Irish pugilist being of the opinion that the same chances that characterized his treatment of the previous challenge from George H. Homer.

John Teemer the carman was tendered a flattering reception upon his return to McKeesport, Pa., from the east, his fellow-townsmen gathering in force at the station and he being taken through the streets in an open carriage, preceded by brass band and followed by a large and demonstrative crowd. Being asked if he would make a match to row Hanlan this year, he answered negatively, but said that next year he would row the champion and one else for as much money as they liked.

At Myrtle Park. Toronto, Sept. 22.—An unfinished 2000 yard race yesterday at Myrtle park was won today by J. B. Thomas; time 2:20. Hanlan and Sullivan to Run a Foot Race. Toronto, Sept. 22.—John L. Sullivan and Edward Hanlan have arranged to run a 100 yard foot race for $1000 a side, to be contested when Sullivan returns from his national tour.

Schaefer vs. Sloaner Officially. Chicago, Sept. 22.—Jacob Schaefer says Sloaner issued a challenge to play him for the billiard championship at the lake house game it was known that he (Schaefer) had a game with Vignani in Paris in November. If Sloaner would issue a challenge in the regular way that match it might be accepted. Schaefer will leave New York for Paris October 10.

An International Wrestling Match. New York, Sept. 22.—An international wrestling match for a receipt of $500 and a trophy for mixed wrestling was arranged to take place between H. M. Duffer of Marlborough, Mass., Duncan C. Ross of Cleveland, O., and Geo. W. Flagg of Stratford, N. Y. The contest will come off at Rochester, N. Y., next month. The conditions will be the best three in five falls at collar and elbow, side hold, in harness, and catch-as-catch-can.

Hanlan to the Test. Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 22.—An Auburn special states that while Hanlan was at Soda Point yesterday he offered to bet $5000 he could row three miles in the time Courtney is said to have covered it in last do it, and to put the champion to the test has posted $1000 in the hands of E. W. Mack of the Evening Advertiser, Auburn, to bet that Hanlan could not row the course he (Courtney) did and do it in 19:27, the time Courtney is credited with having made, named by Hanlan, who he could afford to do it or had made as much money out of rowing as the champion.

Sheephead Bay Races. SHEEPSHEAD BAY, Sept. 22.—First race, one mile; Vocalio won, Huron 2½. Signal 3½, time, 1:45. Second race, handicap sweepstakes, 1½ miles, Mediator won, Euclid 2½, Retecor 2½, time, 2:10. Third race, great Long Island stakes, all ages, four miles, won by Eole in a gallop; time, 7:43. Apollo by Eole was scratched. Fourth race, handicap sweepstakes, three-quarters of a mile, won by Brevé in two straight heats, beating Navarro, Rena B. Halden, Pike's Pride, Little Phil, Lytton and Jim Nelson. Fifth race was the autumn steeplechase, but the course was not ready to start with a lead, and kept it to the eighth jump, when he fell. This accident gave to the finish, Charlemagne, who held it to the finish, winning by a length. Disturbance 2d, Jim McGowan 3d; time, 5:30.

The Two Great Wrestlers. For over two years H. M. Duffer and John McLaughlin, the two greatest collar and elbow wrestlers in the world, have been in contention and the bone of contention is the championship. There have been only two matches between them, but before each match, Duffer says that he was going to win, while McLaughlin says that he was going to win. In the first match, Duffer won, but in the second, McLaughlin won. The two men are now in a state of intense rivalry, and it is expected that they will meet again soon.

FINANCE AND TRADE

Broader's Weekly Report. New York, Sept. 22.—The improvement in the general business situation of the country reported to Broader's during the past two or three weeks has been continued. The shipments of general merchandise from the north Atlantic coast to the west have been very large. Those of dry goods have been especially heavy not only from New York but from Boston and Philadelphia. Low water in New England streams has resulted in many of the mills having to curtail their production, and it is not impossible in the event of a continuance of the drought that the entire output of the mill will be curtailed. The cotton market is in a state of uncertainty. The cotton crop in the south-west is reported to be better than in the north-west, and in the west are coming quite as rapidly as last year during the past fortnight, and at most of these points the aggregate of the autumn trade is expected to be heavy. Louisville is enjoying a large trade of cotton. The cotton market is in a state of uncertainty.
