Police Find Him Standing Beside Blood-Spattered Car, Wrecked Four Blocks From Tragedy.

PHILADELPHIA, March 2.-Two women and a man were killed early to-day when an automobile, traveling at a high rate of speed, crashed into them as they were alighting from a trolley car in West Philadelphia. The driver of the machine did not slacken his speed, but rushed away as his rictims were hurled 10 feet from the spot where they were struck.

Twenty minutes later Henry G. Brock, banker, club man and member of a widely known Philadelphia family, was found our blocks from the scene of the killing, standing beside a bloodpole. He was arrested in connection with the accident. A fur neckplece worn one of the women was found wedged between the mud guard and the radiator of the car. A barrette was embedded
