ANNAPOLIS CO. HAS MYSTERY

No One Has Identified Body of Young Man Found in Brook of Bay of Shore Lake

Karsdale, Annapolis Co., N. S., Nov.
1.—Annapolis County has a mystery which the residents of this section are anxious to solve.

On Wednesday morning, October 19th, an unidentified body of a young man was found in the Bay Shore Lake Brook, Annapolis County. The body was buried on Friday, October 21st, near the spot where it was found. It was that of a man about five feet eight or nine inches tall, he wore a blue serge suit, light striped shirt, dark brown shoes of English last, size 7½ and black cashmere hose. The face was unrecognizable.

LECTURES TO MUSICAL CLUB
Mrs. W. H. Beckwith is President of This Organization.

Dr. J. D. Logan was the lecturer before the Ladies' Musical Club in Halifax Monday night in the School for the Blind. His subject was "Canadian Creative Composers," namely, Lavallee, (composer of "O Canada"), Forsythe, Lucas, and Gena Branscombe. There was a large attendance of members.

Nova Scotia creative composers also featured on the program and several song compositions by members of the club were read. The composers among them were the following: Soda, by Mrs. Charles Archibald, "In Flanders Fields," song by Lea Curry; song, by Miss Evelyn Curry Crowell, song, by Mrs. Archie Wilson, (Belle Wilson); song, by Miss Nathalie Litter; song, by Mrs. Campbell; song, by Miss Eliza Dunn, song by Miss Major.
Others to contribute to the program were Dr. W. H. Beckwith and Miss Anna MacDonald. Mrs. (Dr.) Beckwith, president of the club, presided.
She announced that the next meeting would be November 15th, when a paper would be read by Mrs. Alvin MacDonald, subject "Current Music."

STERN REMINDERS OF RHEUMATISM

The Trouble Must be Treated
Through the Blood

Every rheumatic sufferer should realize that rheumatism is rooted in the blood and that to get rid of it must be treated through the blood. The old belief that rheumatism was caused by cold, damp weather, is now exploded. Such weather conditions may start the pains, but it is not the cause.
Lotions and outward applications may give temporary relief, but that is all they can do because they do not reach its sources in the blood. The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments with outward applications is only wasting time and money in depending upon such treatment; the trouble still remains, and it is all the time becoming more firmly rooted. Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon find relief. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so act on the cause of the rheumatism. Mr.
P. J. MacPherson, R. R. No. 5, Cardigan, P. E. I., says: "About three years ago I was attacked with rheumatism. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon the trouble disappeared and I am in better health than before. I also know of an old lady acquaintance who was badly crippled with rheumatism in her arms and legs, and who suffered very much. She, too, took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and is now able to do her housework. I tell you this in the hope it may be of benefit to some other sufferer."

You can procure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing direct to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A DANGEROUS PLACE

An Irishman visiting a friend in hospital began to take an interest in the other patients.

"What are you in here for?" he asked one.

"I've got tonsillitis, and I've got to have my tonsils removed," was the answer.

"And you?" he asked another.

"I've got blood poisoning in the arm and they're going to cut it off," was the reply.

"Holy Moses," said Pat in horror.
This is no place for me. I've got a cold in me head!"

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL

Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Langille, Bridgetown, were in town Friday.
They were accompanied by Mrs.
H. B. Hicks.

Good News For BRONCHITIS Sufferers

FAMOUS DOCTOR ENDORSES PEPS

"Peps are exceptionally suited for the treatment of bronchial affections; their peculiar composition, their direct influence on the membranes of the bronchi, and their freedom from risky narcotics, being among their many praiseworthy points."

Dr. GORDON STABLES.

These chilly wet November days, when the old bronchial cough shows signs of return, and the chest feels raw and tender, it is important to have handy a box of Peps. They treat chest trouble in the only direct scientific way.

You breathe the Peps medicine, and it penetrates where ordinary medicines cannot. As Peps tablets dissolve in the mouth, the sufferer inhales with every breath rich balsamic pine essences with other volatile medicine. This air-like Peps medicine carries comfort and healing into the chest; it soothes the sore inflamed air tubes; frees the breathing; loosens phlegm; allays the cough, and relieves the painful tight feeling around the lungs.

Peps are the safest and most valuable remedy ever discovered for throat and chest. With them you can defy coughs and colds, chills and other throat and chest troubles. 50c. box, all dealers.

THE REMEDY
YOU BREATHE

FIGURES DON'T LIE

An Irishman was working for a Dutchman, and wanted a raise in wages. Said the Dutchman:

"Pat, if you are worth it, I will give it to you; but listen, Pat, you know there are 365 days in the year?"

"Yes," said Pat.

"Now, you sleep eight hours each day, that equals 122 days you sleep.
Figures don't lie Pat. Take that off 365 days and you have left only 243 days."

"Yes," said Pat.

"Now, Pat, you have eight hours for recreation and devotion."

"That is equally 122 days. Now take that off 243 days and you have 121 days left. There then are 52 Sundays in the year. You must take that off, for you don't work on Sundays, and that leaves you 69 days."

"You know I always give you 14 days vacation each year?"

"Yes," said Pat.

"That leaves 55 days. Now, Pat, there are 52 Saturdays half-holidays in the year. You know you don't work Saturday afternoon."

"That makes 26 days. Now take that off and that leaves 29 days. Now, Pat, you have about two hours for meals each day."

"Yes," said Pat.

"That equals 28 days. Now you must take that off. That leaves one day, and figures don't lie, Pat!"

"Now, Pat, you know I always give you every St. Patrick's Day off. Now, Pat, I want to ask you do you think they are worth a raise?"

Said Pat—"What the h— have I been doing all this time?"—London Opinion.

Just As Dead

"Why do you turn out for every road hog that comes along?" said the misses rather crossly. "The right of way is ours, isn't it?"

"Oh, undoubtedly!" he answered calmly. "As for our turning out, the reason is plainly suggested in this epitaph which appeared in a newspaper recently:

"Here lies the body of William Jay, Who died maintaining his right-of-way."

He was right, dead right, as he sped along.
But he's just as dead as if he'd been wrong."

The Nuisance Abated

"John, I hear burglars."

The dutiful husband arose and tiptoed bravely out. After undue delay he returned.

"Oh, John," said the wife, what kept you so long? I was so afraid they had overpowered you."

"No, dearie, they were stealing the Victrola from the people across the hall and I made sure that they got all the records."

THE CHARGE OF THE LIMB BRIGADE

Half an inch, half an inch,
Half an inch shorter, Whether the skirts are for Mother or daughter, Briefer the dresses grow, Fuller the ripples now While whisking glimpses show More than they oughter.

Forward the dress parade,
Is there a man dismayed,
No; from the sight displayed None could be sundered.
Theirs not to make remark, Clergymen, clubmen, clerk,
Gleaming from noon till dark
At the "Four Hundred."

Short skirts to right of them,
Short to left of them,
Shortest in front of them,
Flaunted and flirited
In hose of stripes and plaids Hued most exceeding glad Sporting in spats run mad Come the short-skirted.

Flashed all their ankles there Flashed as they turned in air—
What will not women dare,
Just built to walk on eggs,
Come by the hundred.

When can their glory fade?
Oh—the wild show they made,
All the world wondered,
Grand dame and demoiselle, Shop girl and Bowery belle—Four Hundred, h'm, oh, well, Any old hundred.

DON'T KNOW HOW TO TREAT THEIR ANIMALS

(Halifax Herald)
The vigilant S.P.C. agents are finding a surprising amount of cruelty being, whether consciously or unconsciously, practiced in the city and the country, toward domestic animals, particularly dogs and horses, and they propose to increase their activity with a view to conducting an educational propaganda, and also to punishing those guilty of cruelty. Dogs are being housed in filthy kennels which are never cleaned; are being half starved; are being cruelly beaten, and horses are being discovered in a disgraceful condition as the result of neglect and abuse.

asked.

piece."
