Hops

THE U. S. Senate has fixed the duty on hops at 8c, per lb. This makes no difference to Canada as we naturally import more than we export.

No transactions of any account are reported in the local market, but prices for nearly every variety have declined in sympathy with the tumble in the United States last week.

Some of the signboards of England's ancient inns have a strange history, but none so curious as that of the "Gost asl Compasses" of a certain village. It is recorded that one of Oliver Cromwells Ironsides, after the Civil Wars, settled down as landlord of the village inn. He selected a scriptural motto for his sig-board, on which he inscribe! the word, "God encompasseth us." The words be came obliterated through time, but some thing of their sound remained, and when long after the signboard was renewed by a new landlord, the motto reappeared with a blundering, but more suitable, device in the centre, viz., "The Gost and Compasses.
