JOHN BURNS, Publisher of the Record, Convener and Commissioner in the Queen's Bench, offers for sale a select assortment of Religious and other useful BOOKS.

Publication Office of the Record, }
Streetsville, Nov., 1847. }

The Ecclesiastical and Missionary "Record,"

FOR THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CANADA.

ACCORDING to its first intention, the Record will be the record proper of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, giving full reports of all her operations and undertakings, for helping forward the great work of the evangelization of this land. It will also contain condensed accounts of the proceedings, especially of the missionary operations of the Free Church of Scotland, and other evangelical Churches. Room also, it is hoped, will be found for a passing notice of great public events—discoveries in science, and their application to the useful arts; together with occasional literary notices and reviews.

All who take an interest in the prosperity of the Church and in the dissemination of religious intelligence as auxiliary thereto, are respectfully invited to co-operate with the publishers, by obtaining and transmitting original matter, procuring subscriptions and otherwise subserving the interests of the Record. Ministers, Missionaries, and Catechists will confer a favour by securing the appointment in each congregation, and at each preaching station, or other suitable locality, of a proper Agent.

Those who kindly consent to act as Agents for the Record are requested to transmit to us, with all convenient speed, the number of copies required for their respective localities, particularly naming the Post Office to which their Records are to be sent. The extent of our circulation depends mainly upon the zeal and activity of our Agents, and the interest they may take in procuring subscribers. There are many places, even among our own people, where the Record is almost unknown; and we are persuaded that there are few places in which the Record was formerly taken, where an increased subscription might not be obtained. We doubt not the former lists might, in most cases, be doubled. We cannot afford to send special agents throughout the country to attend to the interests of the Record, and are on that account all the more desirous to enlist the friends of the Church—all who have its extension at heart, in lending their aid to spread our monthly throughout the length and breadth of the land.

TERMS:—1s. per annum, paid in advance, or during the first quarter, or 4s. 6d. if not paid until the end of the year. When it is considered that in the New Series double the quantity of matter is offered at an advance of only 60 per cent. upon the former price, it is confidently hoped that it will meet with liberal support; indeed, it cannot be published at the proposed rate, without a large accession to the subscription list. But if, through the energetic and successful efforts of our friends, the list of subscribers could be doubled, we should then be enabled still further to reduce the price. Our object will be attained if, in recording what God is doing for his Church in this and in other lands, we be instrumental in promoting his glory, and the best interests of immortal souls.

We have sent parcels of the Record to agents and others for distribution as specimens. Should any who receive this number decline becoming subscribers, they will be pleased to return it to us, or to one of our Agents, and all who retain this number will be considered subscribers.

All communications for the Record to be addressed (post-paid) to the Rev. William Rintoul, Knox's College, Toronto.—Orders and remittances, with lists of subscribers, may be addressed to John Burns, Esq., Streetsville, C. W.; Mr. George Wardrope, Knox's College, Toronto; or Mr. D. McLellan, Bookseller, Hamilton; and W. Kennedy, Esq., Merchant, Kingston.

The Record presents an eligible and suitable medium for advertisements. Terms:—Six lines and under, 2s. 6d., and 1s. 3d. for each repetition; ten lines and under, 3s. 4d.; each repetition, 1s. 8d. every additional line over ten, 4d. for first insertion, and 2d. each repetition.—Advertisements should be forwarded to us ten days before the day of publication.
