

PILLARS OF THE PRESS.

No. 1.—GEORGE AUGUSTUS SALA.

Written in Isaac Pitman's System. Key, page 170.

"Pillars of the Press," a well-known article by George Augustus Sala, published in Punch in 1865. The shorthand is written in Isaac Pitman's System, as indicated by the key reference.

The left column of shorthand represents the first half of the article, starting with the word "Pillars". The shorthand is written in a cursive style, with many loops and flourishes, characteristic of Pitman's System.