swers from it, in fact more than I can attend to satisfactorily.

(Signed) Imperial Stamp Co. per T. C. Hancock.

In a recent issue of the Berlin Weekly the publishers were complaining that they had no subscribers, and some delinquent advertisers in Hamilton, Ont., suggesting that the Hams be roasted.

Since our first number we have received six subscriptions from Hamilton and the following from a prominent Ham. "All the collectors in this vicinity who have seen the Weekly are very well pleased with it, and it won't be long before a fair sized bundle of them come to Hamilton." We had intended paying no attention to the babyish proceedings of these Berlin publishers, but their own actions have forced us to an explanation. We can promise our readers that this is the finale as far as we are concerned.

I have no hesitation whatever in heartily endorsing the statements made as above by Mr. W. A. Lydiatt, as I am in a position to know all the details, in fact, to my knowledge Mr. Lydiatt has had in contemplation the publication of this paper for more than six months, and am quite sure that he is entitled to the first use of the name of his paper as selected by him.
