

the perceptions of an angel are above those of a human being? Some peculiar sources of happiness you certainly have which the daughters of kings and queens might envy. You meet, and will always meet with love and tender regard everywhere. There is no human heart that does not warm with affection to the dear little sister who finds light in the darkness which envelops her, and music in the silence in which she has her being. God has given you a cheerful temperament, one of the very greatest blessings granted to mortals.

Always affectionately yours,

OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.
