Uxbridge.

During the short stay of his Grace Archbishop Welsh in Uxbridge this week, he was called upon by a number of our prominent oitizens, who enjoyed a half hours conversation with the interesting prelate. Archishop Welshe delimination to have been the first nunister to put foot into Scott. He has a remarkable memory, and can recall places and the names of secroces of the early settlers in this section, and in fact all over this county.—Journal.

The social event of the season in the pretty bown of Aruprior, Out., was the wedding on Thursday last of Mr. William Logue, the widdly known humber king of the Gatucau, to Miss S. Harvey, the popular and pretty disaglater of Ex. Mayor John Harvey of Aruprior. The father of the bride is one of the most widely known residents of South Rentew, and contested that county in the Conservative interests some years ago. A large gathering of fashionable young people attended the wedding cercunony, which was performed by Rev. Father Chaine, P. P. Mr. Wm. Baskerville of Utawa was groomsman and Miss Maud Harvey attended the bride. After the wedding banquet Mr. and Mrs. Logue left for Europe on an extensive wedding trip.— United Canada.

From the Brastlerd Courier.

A recent addition to the Grand Trunk staff in this city is Mr. Thos, Clift, who is living at 75 Chatham stroot. Mr. Clift, who was formerly a policeman in the great city of London, is a fine looking specimen of an Englishman of the type so often seen in the C and Trunk employ and who makes so desirable a class of citizens. Since his advent here has been a warm advocate of that well known medicane, Dr. Williams Pink Pilks, and through his endorsement dozens of boxes have been sold 2 his friends and acquaintances.

A Courier representative, auxious, atthough not surprised, to know the reason for Mr. Clift's warm oulogy of the pills, called on that gentleman recently. Mr. Clift willingly consented to an interview, and in the following story told his reason for being so sincere and advocate of a world renowned medicine. "Some five years ago," said Mr. Clift, "my daughter Lily began to droop and fade, and became disinclined either for work or pleasure. A dector in London was called in and he prescribed excreise and a general "rousing up" as the best medicine to effect acure.
