We understand that the address presented to the Bishop at the Session of the Diocesan Assembly, expressing appreciation of his past measures for the government of the Church, and confidence in the future, has been signed by nearly the whole of the Clergy; who have formally requested that it may be made a Public Document and entered upon the Records of the Diocese. This address with the Bishop's reply will appear in our next number.

The R. M. Steamship Arabia arrived on Thursday last in 12 days from Liverpool, bringing London dates to Oct. 10. The news is not important. The interest in Neapolitan affairs had somewhat subsided, and attention had been turned to the rather alarming condition of France, the monetary concerns of which were in a condition to give much anxiety to the Government.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills, a certain remedy for Bad Legs.—Mr. Aubyn, of Fredericton, N. B., suffered from a boy from a bad leg, with two running ulcers in it, and generally impaired health, which was a source of constant annoyance, humiliation and irritability to him, as the pain he suffered was intense. As he had spent upwards of one hundred pounds in medicine and advice, without deriving benefit, he determined to see what Holloway's Ointment and Pills would do for him, he commenced using them, strictly following the printed directions, and by continuing them for six weeks, the leg is sound, and his health restored.
