Bill Nyo's Philosophy.

To the young the fature has a reseate hue. The reseate hue comes high, but we have to use it in this place. To the young there apreads out a gloriou - range of peasabilities After the youth has endorse I for an inclinate friend a ion times, and purchased the paper at the bank himself later on, the horizon won't seem to horizon so tamultuously as it did aforetime. I remember at one time of did aforetime. I remember at one time of purchasing such a piece of accommodation paper at a bank, and I still have it. I didn't need it any more than a cut reeds eleven tails at one and the same time. Still the bank made it an object to me and I secured it. Such things as these harshly knock the fluff and bloom off the check of youth, and prompt us to turn the straw berry-box bottom sale up before we purberry-box bottom side up before we purchase it. Youth is any and hopeful, age is covered with experient and was where the skin has been knocked off and had to grow on again. To the young a dollar looks large and strong, but to the middle aged and the old it is weak and mefficient. When we are in the heyday and fizz of existence, we believe everything, but after awhile we murmur, "What's that you're givin us, or words of a like character. Age brings caution and a lot of shop worn experience caution and a lot of shop worn experience purchased at the highest market price. Time brings vain regrets and wisdom teeth that can be left in a glass of water over night. The Ingleside.

The Distribution of Wealth.

There has been more wealth create I in the last twenty-five years than was created during the preceding 250 years. This means the transfer to the many of what was formerly the possession of the few. It means ailver teaspoons in every house, carpets on the floor of every laborer, and the heneral comfact of all classes. One dollar buys world since it was a world. Queen Elizaboth d' not live so comfortably as toe hum blest e fiteman in New York can to-day if he is temperate. Our forefathers taught the sheerest nonsense upon the subject of and anterest nonsense upon the subject of wealth and poverty, but in our days Christ ian teachers have dared to assert Christs words, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and Hie righteousness, and all these things shall be a ided unto you." If a community will make God their king, and live by His law they will have things enough. But law, they will have things enough. But now comes the important question. "What will you do with these things?" The laborer now works ten hours a day, and the young est of you will see the time when it will be only eight. What will be so with the rest of his time? Spend it is a liquor-salous, or of his time: Spend it in a requor-sation, or at the public library and the concert. What will the man of millions do with his sur-plus wealth? Upon the answers to these questions will the national prosperity de pend.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgis is one of the meat common and d'atressing complaints incidental to this climate. It is not confined to any particular season, for whilst most general in the winter seasons, yet many suffer its excruciating agony in the heat of summer. In later years this form of disease has become batter known, and consequently the means of relief have become greatly in-cressed in numbers as well as in efficacy. Among the most prweeful and practiating combinations, placed within he reach of the public for the relief of neuralg a, we can mention no remedy equal to cr more certain than Polson's Nerviline Its power over pain is a mothing wonderful, and we adme a trial for nouralgia, or cary other painful complaints. Nerviline is sold by all druggists at 25 cents a bottle, also trial bettles at 10 cents.

Catarrh—A New Treatment.

Perhaps the most extrarordinary success that has been archieved in modern science has been attained by the Dixen Treatment of catarrh. But of 2000 patients reated during the past six m unty fully insety per coult have been carred of that attained mailedy. This is none the tess sterding when it is remembered that out five per cent of the patients prescribing hemselves to the regular practitioner are mendited, while the patient medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all Elarding with the claim now generally believed by the most scientific men that the disease is due to the presence of diving parasites in the disease. Mr Dixon at once adapted his cure to their extermination; this accomplished the externing functioned, as cure effected by him four years sgo are cures still. No one close has ever attempted to cure extending the importance, and one other treatment has ever cured extern. The application of the remedy is simple and can be due at home, and the present season of the year is the most favorable for a speedy and currentent cure the majority of cases being areal at one treatment. Sufferers should cornivated with Messes A II DIXON'S SON St. Kiuz evert West, Toronto, Canada, and enclose stamp for their treaties on extern.—Montreal Star
