The Secret of a Long Life.

You sometimes see a woman whose old age is as exquisite as was the perfect bloom of her youth. She seems concensed sweetness and grace. You wonder how this has come about; you wonder how it is been a long and happy one. Here are some of the reasons:

She knew how to forget disagreeable things.

She understood the art of enjoyment. She kept her nerves well in hand, and in flicted them on no one.

She believed in the goodness of her own daughters and in that of her neighbors.

She cultivated a good digestion.

She mastered the art of saying pleasant

She did not expect too much from her friends She made whatever werk came to her con genial She retained her illusions, and did not be and well.

She never forgot that kind words and a smile cost nothing, but are priceless treasures to the discouraged.

She did unto others as also would be done by, and now that old age less, come to her and there is a halo of white her about her bead, she is loved and considered
