Mercantile Summary.

MESSRS. Caldwell & Co., of Ottawa, dealers in mill machinery and sawmill supplies, have failed to meet their engagements which are mainly local or due in Montreal.

THE shipments of coals from the port of Pictou are rapidly increasing though the straits are not yet free from ice. Some 3,000 tons were shipped last week from the various mines centered in Pictou harbour.

MESSRS. Wees & Shorey dealers in dry goods in Napanee have assigned. Mr. Wees was once successful as a business man, but since the formation of the present partnership neither himself nor his partner have been prosperous.

IN the last two weeks of April, the number of letters and papers delivered by the Post Office carriers in Montreal was 103,139. Before the adoption of the free delivery system, the highest number in a fortnight was 28,318. This was in September 1874.

MESSRS. Mowat & Son, jobbers in clothing, etc., in Ottawa, have made an assignment.
This firm was in difficulties early in 1873 and paid a compromise of almost fifty-five cents on fifteen thousand dollars. With a favourable season they might have continued and been fairly successful, but the past year proved too trying for unsystematic trade.

TWO or three of the railway contractors in Halifax, who have disputed claims arising out of the construction of the Intercolonial Railway, have been informed that the Governor General has issued his fiat to refer the subject to the judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, so it is hoped that this vexing matter will be sifted, and the amount if due paid over to the contractors, whose creditors are anxiously awaiting the issue of the trial.
