

The City of Winnipeg Massed Pipes and Drums, which led the 1974 Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena, U.S., march in Spokane as a preview of Canadian entertainment at Expo '74.

U.S. policemen welcomes RCMP Musical Ride in the downtown street parade prior to Canada Week activities at world's fair in Spokane, Washington.

Canada's Commissioner General Patrick Reid addresses audience at the International Amphitheatre, Canada Day opening ceremonies, August 28, at Spokane World's Fair. Spokane Mayor David Rodgers (extreme left) and Canada's Ambassador to the U.S., Marcel Cadieux, stand behind him.

Hyacinth David (right) sits patiently awaiting ritual dance that preceded the presentation of 25-foot totem pole (above) carved by his son Joseph, to the City of Spokane.

